AMAZING AUDACITY SHOWN BY GANG OF SNEAK THIEVES

Refrigerator at the Residence of W. H. Surles the Object of Attack.

WHOLESALE RAID WAS MADE

POLICEMAN JOINED IN CHASE

But the Fugitives Eluded All Pursuit. Two Females Assisted in Disposing of the Edibles Which Were Stolen.

Boldness such as has scarcely been paralleled in the criminal history of East Liverpool was displayed last night by a gang of thieves who made a wholesale raid on a refrigerator standing on the rear porch of Postmaster W. H. Surles' residence on Third street.

Aside from making a thorough clean-up of the well-filled receptacle, the pillagers made a vicious assault upon Thomas Gotham, the well known modeler, and seriously wounded him. The entire gang escaped, though one of them was given the chase of his life by Policeman Willis Davidson, who was called to the scene of the robbery.

Gotham was conversing with Mrs. Surles and other friends in the sitting room when the thieves made their raid. Mrs. Surles chair was next to a window where the refrigerator stood and she was the first to detect the presence of the intruders. Rushing to the rear door the lady saw three men running in the direction of the Central school building, but owing to the darkness they soon disappeared.

Hastily making an investigation to learn the extent of the scoundrels' depredation, Gotham started in pursuit, and, with rare boldness, Mrs. Surles followed. Attracted by the noise of voices they made their way to the rear steps of the school house, where they came upon three men and two women, all of whom were feasting on the stolen edibles.

Determined to capture the nervy pillagers, Gotham started up the steps, and just as he did so one of the men threw a plate which barely missed Mrs. Surles' head. Undaunted in his eagerness to carry out his aim Gotham climbed to the top of the steps and grappled with one of the men. A desperate struggle ensued, but the thief was outclassed and soon lay stretched out on the ground with his antagonist on top.

Before he had time to tackle the next man, Gotham was knocked down by a blow from a pitcher filled with milk. The vessel was smashed into a dozen pieces and the contents fairly whitewashed the dazed victim of the cowardly blow. He continued to struggle, however, but was again knocked down by one of the rascals who kicked him in the head. The heel of the man's shoe struck Gotham's ear, severely lacerating the member and causing the blood to stream all over him.

Being thus taken at so great a disadvantage Gotham was unable to prevent the gang from getting away. While the encounter was in progress the females, who had been among the number, took to their heels and were soon out of sight. In the meantime Mrs. Surles had sent a message to the city hall for the police, but just at that moment the officers were all on the street.

Though scarcely able to walk, Gotham started in pursuit of his assailants after the had left him and chased them down Union street, where they escaped. Officer Davidson arrived just in time to take up the chase where Gotham left off and though he followed one of the fugitives for a distance of a mile he was unable to overtake him.

None of the thieves were recognized, and Mrs. Surles is the only person able to give a description of either. One, she says, was a heavy set man, wearing a brown suit of clothes and a slouch hat. The others she cannot describe in any way minutely. It is evident the gang knew Mr. Surles was not at home. He had not yet finished his work at the post-office and doubtless the thieves thought Mrs. Surles would have no protection.

If it had been known that the fellows intended to stop at the school house it would have been an easy matter to have quietly summoned the police and rounded them up. The iron fence about the building would have prevented their escape and all would have been caught like rats in a trap.

The thieves were seen by a boy shortly before making their raid, who noticed them throw away a whisky flask after draining the contents. Their boldness gives rise to the belief that they are not novices. Postmaster Surles offers a reward for $25 for the detection and apprehension of the criminals.

EXTENSIONS PLANNED

NEW WATER MAINS TO BE LAID IN EAST END.

Work Resumed at the Reservoir. Trustees Approve Many Bills.

The water works trustees met last evening and decided to extend the water supply system in the East End. How much this will cost has not been determined, although Supt. Phil Morley was authorized to measure the district that is to be covered by the extensions and purchase materials at the lowest rates.

The mains that will be laid in the Fifth ward will be of four and six inches and will be laid on McKinnon avenue and Pope street.

Bids for the pipe have been received, but the prices were too high, and others will be sought. One firm the trustees have been corresponding with states that it would be impossible for the company to enter a bid for the contract, as its stock is sold for a year.

Work was commenced yesterday at the new reservoir repairing the break in the south wall which has been described so often. It will take at least two weeks to complete this task, as some of the wall about the break will have to be taken down, in order that a substantial repair can be made. It is said the wall is so hard that the cement has to be broken with sledges.

The following bills were ordered paid:

East Liverpool Land Co., $62.28; Ohio Valley Gas Co., $107; labor, $253.04; Wallover Oil Co., $24.31; S. Frost, $2.47; freight and hauling, $10.93; Arbuthnot & Bro., $1.60; labor, $230.03; Novelty Machine works, $3.75; Enterprise Coal Co., $28.49; Faulk Bros., 81 cents; Milligan Hardware Co., $7.53; Woodbine Laundry Co., 25 cents; T. M. Murphy, $3.95; Laidlaw Drum Co., $24; Phil Morley, $150; Edward Cox, $80; H. Davidson, $70; T. J. Morley, $70; J. W. Gipner, $75.

HOSPITAL WEEK

PERIOD SET ASIDE FOR RECEIVING CONTRIBUTIONS.

Lists Will Be Circulated From March 29 to April 5—Grand Results Expected.

A hospital committee meeting was held last evening at the home of the treasurer, Miss E. P. Hazlett on Fifth street. It was decided to set apart the time from March 29 to April 5, inclusive, as "Hospital week." During this time subscription lists will be circulated through the potteries, shops and business houses of the city; thus giving every man and boy employed therein an opportunity to subscribe as large or small an amount as he may see fit to the hospital fund. It is a free will offering.

There was but one day set apart for this purpose last year and the results were so gratifying that the association has decided to make this a permanent institution until such time as the hospital is in good running order.

The desire of the hospital association that the people contribute as liberally as possible is certainly not without its merit, for it is the purpose of the association to construct the hospital on a good financial foundation and not upon one handicaped by debt.

ANTI-GAMBLING BILL OFFERED

AN ANTI-INJUNCTION LAW

Not Entitled to Representation at Trenton Convention—Locals Acting on Resolutions And Many New Ones Being Urged—Pottery News.

A Pittsburg trade paper this morning is responsible for the following, which, if true, would be read with interest:

"The deal has been closed for the American Potteries company, which includes the Union Potteries company, Cook Pottery company and the International Pottery company, with a total capacity of 34 kilns. At a meeting held in New York city Wednesday letters are said to have been received asking admission conditions from the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, the Sebring Pottery company, the Ford China company and many other prominent firms in the west.

"At the meeting it is said the directors decided to allow F. W. Tapscot to receive propositions fro many pottery company seeking admission and such would be received by the executive board. The company will ask no firm to enter, but will build if necessary to take care of additional orders."

Officials of the Union Potteries company at Pittsburg were asked about the report this morning, when the item was pronounced a fake of the first water. There is no deal on for the purchase of the plants mentioned, and there is not likely to be, for a time at least. The announcement that W. F. Tapscot would be allowed to receive propositions from firms desiring admission to the new company, is indeed laughable.

Probably 25 men are at work preparing roads, prior to the commencement of the construction of the Champion Fire Clay works, which will be built a short distance out Rowe's Run, just east of Wellsville. At the eastern entrance to Driven From Home switch on the East Liverpool railway eight men are engaged in grading the hillside. The earth secured from this source is used in making a road to the site of the plant. A fill of probably six feet has been made at several places. In order that back water from the Ohio river would not interfere with their plant, the course of Rowe's Run is being changed, keeping the water on the hillside on the west. The vein of clay has been opened, and already quite a quantity has been taken from the hill in order that it may be weathered. The plant will be commenced as soon as possible, the plans for the same being about completed. Rail lengths have been delivered to the opening of the mine, and these will be placed in position within a short time. It is likely the plant will be ready for operation within two months.

Kilnmen's local No. 9, at a session held last night, obligated three new members; received three applications for membership; seated one member by transfer card; granted a withdrawal card to Jasper Smith; donated to the striking carriage and wagon workers of Cincinnati and Zanesville, and looked with favor upon an invitation from Rev. W. H. Gladden, of the M. P. church, to attend a morning service at that church some time in April in a body.

The announcement was made this morning that the annual meeting of

A Pottery Combination Story Which Interested Parties Say Is Unfounded.

WAREHOUSEWOMEN MEET

From a Staff Corerspondent.

Columbus, March 22.—A sweeping anti-gambling bill was offered in the house yesterday by Representative Earhart, of Richland county. Its restrictions are severe, and prohibit almost every known game of chance. Slot machines are especially placed under the ban, and if the bill becomes a law it will be a misdemeanor to have such a device in one's possession. For violating the act, a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of from 10 to 90 days may be imposed. Fines and costs are made a lien on the building where the gambling is conducted.

An anti-injunction bill, modeled after the Hoar bill pending in the United States senate, will be presented in the house by Representative McNamee, of Franklin. The measure was drawn by Former Attorney General Frank S. Monnett. A poll of the house shows that the majority of the members are in favor of the bill of Representative Metzger, of Stark, providing for the erection of an executive mansion for the use of the governor. The structure is to cost $100,000. A number of bills were introduced in the house Friday, most of them being unimportant.

The bill of Representative Seese, of Summit county, to reimburse the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., for the expenditure of money incident to the McKinley inauguration trip, has been placed on the house calendar for third reading and will be reached for passage not later than next Saturday. The finance committee has recommended the passage of the measure.

The officers and directors of the Union Association of Lumber Dealers of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania met here yesterday to discuss legislation affecting the lumber business. Among those present were President B. F. Weybrecht, of Alliance; J. A. Bernard, of Canton, and A. W. Hawkins, of Akron.

A traveling library consisting of 30 volumes has been sent from the state library to Daniel Krabill, at Louisville, Stark county. The library will be used by a school society.

The Clover Leaf club, a social organization of East Liverpool, has been incorporated by Charles L. Scott, Henry Stewart, Charles Armstrong, Robert Williams and George W. White.

The Buckeye Publishing company, of Lisbon, has become an incorporation. The capital is $15,000, divided into 150 shares of $100 each. The incorporators are E. M. Crosser, D. H Frew, L. S. Adams, W. L. Armstrong, H. M. Crooks and Charles E. Hamilton.

ADJUDGED INSANE

A Washington Mute Develops Suicidal And Violent Tendencies.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Orin J. Frederick, of Washingtonville, was examined in probate court yesterday and adjudged insane. He is a mute, of such strength that it took several men to overpower and handcuff him on Thursday. He has previously received treatment at Newburg for insanity.

The cause of his condition is unknown. His insanity has a suicidal tendency. He is suspicious and given to hallucinations. His previous habits are reported good. He is a son of Joseph Frederick, of Washingtonville.

ATTACKED AND BEATEN BY UNKNOWN THUGS

A murderous assault was made early this morning on Oliver Adams, a local hack driver. The victim was terribly cut and bruised about the head and face.

While the fire at Burlingame's livery stable was in progress, Adams, who was making his way on Walnut street past the K., T. & K. pottery, was set upon by a small dog. He drove the brute off and as he did so noticed a party of men coming toward him.

Not suspecting any trouble from the men Adams remarked that if the dog attacked him again he would kill it and stopped to pick up a brick as he spoke. While reaching for the brick he was sent reeling from a blow on the head and the next instant found himself lying in a gutter with a half dozen men beating and kicking him.

More dead than alive Adams was left by the thugs, and with great difficulty he finally reached his home, where a physician dressed his wounds.

The matter was reported to the police this morning, but no arrests have yet ocurred. No attempt at robbery was made and the motive for the assault is a mystery. Adams thinks he recognized two or three of his assailants and their apprehension is looked for.

REFUSED TO BE ARRESTED AND LED OFFICERS A CHASE

Young Local Potter Compelled to Marry a Girl In a Squire's Court.

PATERNITY CHARGE THE CAUSE

Telt Rodenbaugh, a Minor, the Victim of the Unhappy Union.

LOCATED AT HIS RESIDENCE

But Jumped From an Upstairs Window And Fled — Soon Overtaken And Brought Face to Face With His Accuser.

Armed with a warrant for the young man's arrest on a paternity charge Constable C. W. Powell, accompanied by Policeman Dawson and a local newspaper reporter, made their way last evening to the home of Telt Rodenbaugh, on Ravine street, where, after an exciting chase, the man was taken into custody. A few minutes later he was arraigned before Justice McLane.

The charge leading up to Rodenbaugh's apprehension was filed by Edith Connor, a girl about 19 years of age, who is employed by the Potters' Supply company. Attorney W. K. Gaston made oue the affidavit and after the warrant had been prepared Constable Powell started after the accused.

Securing the assistance of Officer Dawson, the constable went to Rodenbaugh's home, where after being informed that the young man wanted was not at home, he demanded that he be given the privilege to search the house. Officer Dawson kept guard at the rear door as the constable made his exploration of the interior, and as the search was going on the reporter above alluded to wandered quietly up near the front door.

Evidently having noticed the approach of the officers, young Rodenbaugh made his way to the upstairs of his home. It was only a few minutes, however, until the constable had him rounded up, but not to be caught without a struggle, the fugitive jumped through a window to the top of a porch and then made a flying leap to the ground.

Alighting safely on his feet the fleeing young man started on a run towards the street in front of the house, but before he had made more than a dozen bounds he found himself confronted by the alert reporter, who held out his arms and frantically signaled "Down brakes."

Hesitating for a moment like a fox at bay, Rodenbaugh wheeled suddenly and started in an opposite direction. Here is where he made a bad mistake, as fleet-footed Dawson then took up the frail and gave immediate pursuit. The fugitive did not even then give up, but started through a field at cyclone speed. But he did not get far away, as the officer soon had him by the coat-tails and brought him back to the constable, after which he was taken to the 'squire's office, where his accuser was in waiting.

In less than a half hour Rodenbaugh's father, mother and brother were at the court room, where they were joined by Attorney M. J. McGarry, who was engaged to defend the accused. The girl's mother also appeared, but before the case was placed on trial the matter of a compromise was brought up.

This seemed to be satisfactory, except to those who had a bill of costs to present. Finally when Rodenbaugh and the girl both expressed a desire to adjust the case the magistrate, for a cause known only to himself, ordered that all persons not directly interested be excluded from hearing the proceedings.

Among those who were thus ordered to leave the room were the officer and reporter who assisted in arresting the defendant. Nobody seemed able to understand the 'squire's reason for taking the action he did, and he was consequently criticised. In a proceeding such as the one then before Justice McLane it has been an unknown occurrence in any other local court for respectable spectators to be ordered out.

A DOCTOR'S BILL

LEADS TO A JURY TRIAL IN JUSTICE'S COURT.

A Suit With Many Interesting Phases Tried Before 'Squire McCarron.

The case of Dr. W. W. Hamilton versus Bert Maple for a balance of $15 for professional services, was called in the court of Justice McCarron this morning and gave promise of developing some very interesting facts.

Attorney J. H. Brookes represented the plaintiff and Attorney M J. McGarry the defendant. Maple demanded a jury trial and the following gentlemen were summoned: W. Welch, John W. Hall, A. Watson, A. W. King, J. N. Crable and F. H. Croxall.

Dr. Hamilton was called in his own behalf and consumed upwards of an hour in detailing the course pursued by him in treating defendant's wife. Dr. Hamilton by his testimony showed that the circumstances surrounding the case were entirely out of the ordinary, and it was necessary to perform what is known to the profession as craneotomy. This, the doctor stated, was a rare and difficult operation and one for which the usual price was $100.

Drs. Bailey, Ikirt, Hobbs, Clark and Taylor were examined, several of whom had been directly or indirectly connected with the case. Elsie Walters also testified.

At 2:30 the testimony was concluded and the arguments were started by Attorney Brookes.

STABLE BURNED

BUILDING AND PART OF ITS CONTENTS DESTROYED.

Cyrus Burlingame's Loss From Fire At an Early Hour This Morning.

The livery stable owned by Cyrus Burlingame on Sophia street, on the North Side, was almost completely destroyed by fire. The central department was summoned, but not until the flames had gained such great headway that their efforts were unavailing to prevent the loss which occurred.

It was about 2 o'clock this morning when the fire was discovered. A party of young men who were passing on the Calcutta road gave the alarm. There were only two horses in the barn and these were rescued.

A fine surrey and harness, together with a large quantity of hay and straw were consumed, aggregating a loss of several hundred dollars.

RUNAWAY TEAM

Throws the Driver Out, Injuring Him. A Horse Badly Hurt.

A team driven by William Grim, of Grim's bridge, ran off from Sixth street and East Market at noon today and one of the horses was badly injured, while the driver was pitched against a telephone pole and suffered a bad sprain to his right ankle.

The horses ran out East Market and across the Horn switch, bringing up against the fence surrounding the residence of J. M. Kelly.

EXTENSIONS PLANNED

NEW WATER MAINS TO BE LAID IN EAST END.

The water works trustees met last evening and decided to extend the water supply system in the East End. How much this will cost has not been determined, although Supt. Phil Morley was authorized to measure the district that is to be covered by the extensions and purchase materials at the lowest rates.

The mains that will be laid in the Fifth ward will be of four and six inches and will be laid on McKinnon avenue and Pope street.

Bids for the pipe have been received, but the prices were too high, and others will be sought. One firm the trustees have been corresponding with states that it would be impossible for the company to enter a bid for the contract, as its stock is sold for a year.

Work was commenced yesterday at the new reservoir repairing the break in the south wall which has been described so often. It will take at least two weeks to complete this task, as some of the wall about the break will have to be taken down, in order that a substantial repair can be made. It is said the wall is so hard that the cement has to be broken with sledges.

The following bills were ordered paid:

Lists Will Be Circulated From March 29 to April 5—Grand Results Expected.

A hospital committee meeting was held last evening at the home of the treasurer, Miss E. P. Hazlett on Fifth street. It was decided to set apart the time from March 29 to April 5, inclusive, as "Hospital week." During this time subscription lists will be circulated through the potteries, shops and business houses of the city; thus giving every man and boy employed therein an opportunity to subscribe as large or small an amount as he may see fit to the hospital fund. It is a free will offering.

There was but one day set apart for this purpose last year and the results were so gratifying that the association has decided to make this a permanent institution until such time as the hospital is in good running order.

The desire of the hospital association that the people contribute as liberally as possible is certainly not without its merit, for it is the purpose of the association to construct the hospital on a good financial foundation and not upon one handicaped by debt.

"At the meeting it is said the directors decided to allow F. W. Tapscot to receive propositions fro many pottery company seeking admission and such would be received by the executive board. The company will ask no firm to enter, but will build if necessary to take care of additional orders."

Officials of the Union Potteries company at Pittsburg were asked about the report this morning, when the item was pronounced a fake of the first water. There is no deal on for the purchase of the plants mentioned, and there is not likely to be, for a time at least. The announcement that W. F. ADJUDGED INSANE

A Washington Mute Develops Suicidal And Violent Tendencies.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Orin J. Frederick, of Washingtonville, was examined in probate court yesterday and adjudged insane. He is a mute, of such strength that it took several men to overpower and handcuff him on Thursday. He has previously received treatment at Newburg for insanity.

The cause of his condition is unknown. His insanity has a suicidal tendency. He is suspicious and given to hallucinations. His previous habits are reported good. He is a son of Joseph Frederick, of Washingtonville.

ATTACKED AND BEATEN BY UNKNOWN THUGS

A murderous assault was made early this morning on Oliver Adams, a local hack driver. The victim was terribly cut and bruised about the head and face.

While the fire at Burlingame's livery stable was in progress, Adams, who was making his way on Walnut street past the K., T. & K. pottery, was set upon by a small dog. He drove the brute off and as he did so noticed a party of men coming toward him.

Not suspecting any trouble from the men Adams remarked that if the dog attacked him again he would kill it and stopped to pick up a brick as he spoke. While reaching for the brick he was sent reeling from a blow on the head and the next instant found himself lying in a gutter with a half dozen men beating and kicking him.

More dead than alive Adams was left by the thugs, and with great difficulty he finally reached his home, where a physician dressed his wounds.

The matter was reported to the police this morning, but no arrests have yet ocurred. No attempt at robbery was made and the motive for the assault is a mystery. Adams thinks he recognized two or three of his assailants and their apprehension is looked for.

Young Local Potter Compelled to Marry a Girl In a Squire's Court.

PATERNITY CHARGE THE CAUSE

Telt Rodenbaugh, a Minor, the Victim of the Unhappy Union.

LOCATED AT HIS RESIDENCE

Armed with a warrant for the young man's arrest on a paternity charge Constable C. W. Powell, accompanied by Policeman Dawson and a local newspaper reporter, made their way last evening to the home of Telt Rodenbaugh, on Ravine street, where, after an exciting chase, the man was taken into custody. A few minutes later he was arraigned before Justice McLane.

The charge leading up to Rodenbaugh's apprehension was filed by Edith Connor, a girl about 19 years of age, who is employed by the Potters' Supply company. Attorney W. K. Gaston made oue the affidavit and after the warrant had been prepared Constable Powell started after the accused.

Securing the assistance of Officer Dawson, the constable went to Rodenbaugh's home, where after being informed that the young man wanted was not at home, he demanded that he be given the privilege to search the house. Officer Dawson kept guard at the rear door as the constable made his exploration of the interior, and as the search was going on the reporter above alluded to wandered quietly up near the front door.

Evidently having noticed the approach of the officers, young Rodenbaugh made his way to the upstairs of his home. It was only a few minutes, however, until the constable had him rounded up, but not to be caught without a struggle, the fugitive jumped through a window to the top of a porch and then made a flying leap to the ground.

Alighting safely on his feet the fleeing young man started on a run towards the street in front of the house, but before he had made more than a dozen bounds he found himself confronted by the alert reporter, who held out his arms and frantically signaled "Down brakes."

Hesitating for a moment like a fox at bay, Rodenbaugh wheeled suddenly and started in an opposite direction. Here is where he made a bad mistake, as fleet-footed Dawson then took up the trail and gave immediate pursuit. The fugitive did not even then give up, but started through a field at cyclone speed. But he did not get far away, as the officer soon had him by the coat-tails and brought him back to the constable, after which he was taken to the 'squire's office, where his accuser was in waiting.

In less than a half hour Rodenbaugh's father, mother and brother were at the court room, where they were joined by Attorney M. J. McGarry, who was engaged to defend the accused. The girl's mother also appeared, but before the case was placed on trial the matter of a compromise was brought up.

This seemed to be satisfactory, except to those who had a bill of costs to present. Finally when Rodenbaugh and the girl both expressed a desire to adjust the case the magistrate, for a cause known only to himself, ordered that all persons not directly interested be excluded from hearing the proceedings.

Among those who were thus ordered to leave the room were the officer and reporter who assisted in arresting the defendant. Nobody seemed able to understand the 'squire's reason for taking the action he did, and he was consequently criticised. In a proceeding such as the one then before Justice McLane it has been an unknown occurrence in any other local court for respectable spectators to be ordered out.

A DOCTOR'S BILL

LEADS TO A JURY TRIAL IN JUSTICE'S COURT.

A Suit With Many Interesting Phases Tried Before 'Squire McCarron.

The case of Dr. W. W. Hamilton versus Bert Maple for a balance of $15 for professional services, was called in the court of Justice McCarron this morning and gave promise of developing some very interesting facts.

Attorney J. H. Brookes represented the plaintiff and Attorney M. J. McGarry the defendant. Maple demanded a jury trial and the following gentlemen were summoned: W. Welch, John W. Hall, A. Watson, A. W. King, J. N. Crable and F. H. Croxall.

Dr. Hamilton was called in his own behalf and consumed upwards of an hour in detailing the course pursued by him in treating defendant's wife. Dr. Hamilton by his testimony showed that the circumstances surrounding the case were entirely out of the ordinary, and it was necessary to perform what is known to the profession as craneotomy. This, the doctor stated, was a rare and difficult operation and one for which the usual price was $100.

Drs. Bailey, Ikirt, Hobbs, Clark and Taylor were examined, several of whom had been directly or indirectly connected with the case. Elsie Walters also testified.

At 2:30 the testimony was concluded and the arguments were started by Attorney Brookes.

STABLE BURNED

BUILDING AND PART OF ITS CONTENTS DESTROYED.

Cyrus Burlingame's Loss From Fire At an Early Hour This Morning.

The livery stable owned by Cyrus Burlingame on Sophia street, on the North Side, was almost completely destroyed by fire. The central department was summoned, but not until the flames had gained such great headway that their efforts were unavailing to prevent the loss which occurred.

It was about 2 o'clock this morning when the fire was discovered. A party of young men who were passing on the Calcutta road gave the alarm. There were only two horses in the barn and these were rescued.

A fine surrey and harness, together with a large quantity of hay and straw were consumed, aggregating a loss of several hundred dollars.

RUNAWAY TEAM

Throws the Driver Out, Injuring Him. A Horse Badly Hurt.

A team driven by William Grim, of Grim's bridge, ran off from Sixth street and East Market at noon today and one of the horses was badly injured, while the driver was pitched against a telephone pole and suffered a bad sprain to his right ankle.

The horses ran out East Market and across the Horn switch, bringing up against the fence surrounding the residence of J. M. Kelly.

College-Riley.

At the parsonage of the Christian church Thursday evening, Miss Erila B. College and Mr. Frank F. Riley, of Chester, were married by Rev. J. W. Gorrell. Mr. Riley is employed at the Chester tin mill, and the young couple will make their home at Chester.

Smallpox at Beaver Falls.

NINETY YEARS OLD

BIRTHDAY OF DR. VALLANDIGHAM CELEBRATED.

A Native of Lisbon Who Got His First Schooling From David McKinley.

Rev. James L. Vallandigham, D. D., a noted Presbyterian minister, recently celebrated his 90th birthday at Newark, Del. The celebration took place in the Presbyterian church and addresses of interest were made. Dr. Vallandigham was born in Lisbon, O., Mar. 13, 1812, and was the son of Clement and Rebecca Laird Vallandigham. The first school he attended was taught by David McKinley, the great-grand-father of the late President McKinley. He was prepared for college by his father who taught a classical school in Lisbon, and was graduated by Jefferson college in 1830 in a class of thirty-two members, of which he is the only survivor.

He immediately commenced teaching and taught for six years, principally Latin and Greek and the higher English branches, and most of the time on the eastern shore of Maryland, and in the meantime studied law. For six years he practiced law in his native town, at the same time taking an active part in politics, writing for a weekly newspaper, and as an assistant editor of a monthly.

In the campaign of 1840, he, in company with Dr. Leonard Hanna, the father of Senator Hanna, Col. James Collier, the Hon. Andrew Loomis and others, stumped parts of Ohio in favor of General Harrison, candidate for the presidency. He remained in the Whig party until its dissolution in 1856 and since then has voted the Democratic ticket.

Dr. Vallandigham is now an active and vigorous man, but no longer a pastor, having passed the ministerial dead line forty years ago. He still preaches whenever called upon, supplying feeble churches or aiding his ministerial brethren in the vicinity of his residence.

The paternal ancestors of Dr. Vallandigham were Huguenots and settled in Virginia about 1670; the maternal ancestors were Scotch-Irish and settled in Pennsylvania.

The New York Sunday Telegraph's Many Fine Features Make It Popular

There is certainly no publication that attracts readers more easily than the New York Sunday Telegraph, and this agreeable state of affairs is due to its clever knack of giving the reader just the kind of news he wants and presenting it in just the manner he likes to read it. The Sunday Telegraph's popularity is enhanced by special features not to be found in any other newspaper, and by a supplement printed in colors on fine book paper, the illustrations of which are equal to those of the best magazines.

The foregoing paragraph is unsolicited praise from the Cleveland Plain Dealer. It is succint and decidedly to the point and conveys so much to the imagination that mere words could not paint a better portrayal of the publication. To convince yourself that the paragraph is not the result of an overheated imagination send for a specimen copy and you will arrive at the conclusion that it was written by a sane man—after mature deliberation.

There is, also, a New York Morning Telegraph, which is a companion sheet to the Sunday Telegraph. It possesses all its good qualities and many things in addition. It is generally looked upon as a "feature" paper, in that certain lines of news are "starred" day after day and gives precedence over news that is to be found in penny publications. To illustrate, the Morning Telegraph is the leading sporting and theatrical organ of America. Under the category of sports might be cited horse racing, both thoroughbred and trotting, pugilistic events, yachting and, in fact, every branch of sports with which Americans are familiar. It prints all the gossip of Broadway, of clubs, and clubmen, horsemen, men about town and others of the smart set. This class of news is featured day after day and printed by the publishers in preference to the news to be found in the general run by the publishers. To this policy may be traced the present vogue of the Morning Telegraph.

By addressing the Morning Telegraph, 116 Nassau street, New York, a specimen copy of both publications will be forwarded. It is an opportunity not to be lost. 69-eod-r

OVER 100 CARLOADS

Of Sewer Pipe Lately Ordered From the East End Plant—Serious Car Shortage.

Never in the history of the plant have there been so many orders booked for sewer pipe from the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company as at present. An official of that company this morning stated that orders for over 100 cars of pipe had been received within the past few days, but the delivery of these orders is being held back seriously on account of the railroad company being unable to furnish cars.

Three cars were put on the "sewer pipe" siding on Thursday, while eight were desired. Not another factory in the East End received an empty car on that day. Much of the pipe being made at this plant is being stocked on account of the car famine.

East End Pedestrians May Soon Accomplish What Was Formerly Impossible.

Charles Brown, he who keeps the East End streets in good repair, is now making a number of cinder paths in and about the Fifth ward, making walking in that section more agreeable than heretofore. Yesterday afternoon a new cinder walk was constructed on River avenue, and also one on Mulberry street from River avenue to St. George street on the west side.

The walk was started near the new residence of Benjamin Harker, and is so constructed that it will last for years. This morning the street force was busily engaged in cleaning rubbish from Mulberry street, and that thoroughfare is cleaner now than it has been for months.

NEW RURAL RESORT

Salem Sportsmen Contemplate Making Artificial Lake and Resort.

Salem, Mar. 22.—A body of Salem sportsmen have a gigantic scheme on foot to make a large artificial lake and resort north of the city about four miles. A large dam will be built on a water course which runs through the farms and fields of that section. The creek runs through the flats and vales and on each side are big hills, which will make banks for the water when dammed up. Years ago there was a small dam at the place which is now proposed to use for an artificial lake. This old dam will be a pigmy compared to the dam which, if all the plans of the gentlemen are carried to completion, will be built.

When the dam is completed and the water is running over the breast the lake will be about one mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. At the present time the creek is a resort for piscatorial artists, and when the plans of the Salem gentlemen are completed it will no doubt be one of the greatest fishing ponds in the state of Ohio. The immense dam will be stocked with bass and all kinds of fish, many being imported. Fish will be secured from the Uunted States Fish commission and a fisherman's paradise made out of the lake.

In addition to this the artificial lake will be used for boating purposes and a pleasure resort and picnic grounds for recreation and pleasure.

Cannot Be Divided Without a Breach of Law in West Virginia.

Wheeling, March 22.—Judge M. H. Willis, of the circuit court of Doddridge, Wetzel and Tyler counties, has rendered a decision which will have a far-reaching effect.

He rules that it is unlawful for a person to divide the contents of a jug of liquor with others who were contributors to the order and paid in advance. He holds that the distributor of such a package is a retailer in the reach of the law and should be fined as such.

FOUND IN THE OHIO

Body of a Man Supposed to Be a Pittsburg Alderman Recovered at New Cumberland.

Pittsburg, March 22.—If the supposition of his son Harry prove correct, Alderman Henry Grelle, who has been mission from his Southside home since Saturday, March 1, has met death by drowning.

Harry Grelle, the son, resides at 13 Industry street, Southside, and shortly after noon today he called at police station No. 7 and notified the sergeant that the body reported found in the Ohio river at New Cumberland, W. Va., yesterday answered the description of his father.

The report said that the drowned man was about 40 years of age, and weighed about 180 pounds, while a valuable watch with the initials "W. H. G." upon it, was found in his pocket. The body had evidently been in the water several weeks. The son said that this description tallied with that of his father, who was 47 years of age, and weighed 190 pounds and had a watch answering the description of that found, with similar initials.

When the son saw the account of the body being found in the Ohio at New Cumberland he decided that the victim was his father.

This old dam will be a pigmy compared to the dam which, if all the plans of the gentlemen are carried to completion, will be built.

When the dam is completed and the water is running over the breast the lake will be about one mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. At the present time the creek is a resort for piscatorial artists, and when the plans of the Salem gentlemen are completed it will no doubt be one of the greatest fishing ponds in the state of Ohio. The immense dam will be stocked with bass and all kinds of fish, many being imported. Fish will be secured from the Uunted States Fish commission and a fisherman's paradise made out of the lake.

In addition to this the artificial lake will be used for boating purposes and a pleasure resort and picnic grounds for recreation and pleasure.

Cannot Be Divided Without a Breach of Law in West Virginia.

Wheeling, March 22.—Judge M. H. Willis, of the circuit court of Doddridge, Wetzel and Tyler counties, has rendered a decision which will have a far-reaching effect.

He rules that it is unlawful for a person to divide the contents of a jug of liquor with others who were contributors to the order and paid in advance. He holds that the distributor of such a package is a retailer in the reach of the law and should be fined as such.

FOUND IN THE OHIO

Body of a Man Supposed to Be a Pittsburg Alderman Recovered at New Cumberland.

Pittsburg, March 22.—If the supposition of his son Harry prove correct, Alderman Henry Grelle, who has been mission from his Southside home since Saturday, March 1, has met death by drowning.

Harry Grelle, the son, resides at 13 Industry street, Southside, and shortly after noon today he called at police station No. 7 and notified the sergeant that the body reported found in the Ohio river at New Cumberland, W. Va., yesterday answered the description of his father.

The report said that the drowned man was about 40 years of age, and weighed about 180 pounds, while a valuable watch with the initials "W. H. G." upon it, was found in his pocket. The body had evidently been in the water several weeks. The son said that this description tallied with that of his father, who was 47 years of age, and weighed 190 pounds and had a watch answering the description of that found, with similar initials.

When the son saw the account of the body being found in the Ohio at New Cumberland he decided that the victim was his father.

REPEAL WAR TAXES.

PROTECTION OF OUR PRESIDENT.

Bill For This Purpose Also Passed the Senate—All Amendments to the Measure Rejected—Passed by a Vote of 52 to 15.

Washington, March 22.—Two important measures were passed by the senate yesterday, the bill for the repeal of the war revenue taxes and that for the protection of the president of the United States. The revenue bill was passed without division and after only one short speech. Mr. Tillman embraced the opportunity afforded by the bill's consideration to protest against the repeal of the duty of 10 cents a pound upon tea.

The bill for the protection of the president was under discussion during the greater part of the session. Mr. Patterson, of Colorado, made an extended speech in opposition to it, and Mr. Fairbanks, of Indiana, advocated it in a forceful address. All amendments offered to the measure were rejected and it was passed by a vote of 52 to 15.

Provisions of the Bill.

The bill provides that any person within the United States, who shall wilfully and maliciously kill the president, or any officer on whom the duties of president may devolve, or any sovereign of a foreign country, or shall attempt to kill any of the persons named, shall suffer death; that any person who shall aid, abet, advise or counsel the killing of any of the persons named, or shall conspire to accomplish their death, shall be imprisoned not exceeding 20 years; that any person who shall threaten to kill or advise or counsel another to kill the president, or any official on whom the duties of president may devolve, shall be imprisoned not exceeding 10 years; that any person who shall wilfully aid in the escape of any person guilty of any of the offenses mentioned shall be deemed an accomplice and shall be punished as a principal. The secretary of war is directed to detail from the regular army a guard of officers and men to protect the president, "without any unnecessary display," and the secretary is authorized to make regulations as to the dress, arms and equipment and duties of such guard.

COL. HAWKINS IS HONORED.

Late Pennsylvania Colonel Nominated to Be Brigadier General.

Other Nominations.

Washington, March 22.—The president has sent to the senate for confirmation the following nominations for brevet commissions in the volunteer army:

To be major generals by brevet—Brigadier General Irving Hale, United States volunteers, for distinguished gallantry in action near Calumpit, Philippine islands; Brigadier General Samuel Ovenshine, United States volunteers, for most distinguished gallantry in action at the Zapote river, Philippine islands.

Brigadier Generals by Brevet.

To be brigadier general by brevet—Colonel William E. Birkhimer, Twenty-eighth infantry, United States volunteers, for conspicuous gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Alfred S. Frost, First South Dakota volunteer infantry, and captain Twenty-second United States infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Alexander L. Hawkins, Tenth Pennsylvania volunteer infantry (since deceased), for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Henry B. McCoy, First Colorado infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel John M. Stotsenburg, First Nebraska volunteer infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action near Quingua, Luzon, Philippine islands (where he was killed); Colonel John H. Wholley, First Washington volunteer infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action near Manila; Lieutenant Colonel Robert Wallace, First Montana volunteer infantry (since deceased), for distinguished gallantry in the Philippines.

Beside the above there are several hundred nominations for minor brevet commissions, among them: To be lieutenant colonels by brevet, Major John A. Logan, Thirty-seventh infantry, United States volunteers, for distinguished gallantry in action at San Jacinto, Luzon (where he was killed); Captain Allyn K. Capron, First artillery (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Santiago.

To be major by brevet—Captain Allyn K. Capron, First United States volunteer cavalry (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Las Guasimas, Cuba.

Nominations For Regular Army.

The nominations for the regular army are as follows:

To be major general by brevet—Colonel Harry G. Egbert, Twenty-second infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action at Manila, Philippine islands (where he was killed).

To be brigadier generals by brevet—Colonel Emerson H. Liscum, Ninth infantry, for conspicuous gallantry in action at Pien-Tsin, China (where he was killed); Colonel Charles A. Wyckoff, Twenty-second infantry (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Santiago, Cuba.

The list as submitted to President Roosevelt by the general board of the army on brevet commissions, of which General MacArthur was president, contained the name of Theodore Roosevelt, recommended for brevet commission as colonel and brigadier for conspicuous gallantry in action before Santiago, but the president erased his name before sending the list to the senate.

CONSPIRACY BILL OPPOSED.

Samuel Gompers Sends a Protest to Senate Against the Measure.

Washington, March 22.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has sent to the senate a protest against the "conspiracy" or anti-injunction bill as reported to the senate on the 17th inst., by the committee on the judiciary. He says that when the bill was first reported, Feb. 3, "it was received by all parties in interest as a measure calculated to right a wrong too long endured." This feeling, however, was rudely changed, he says, by the latest report.

He quoted the opinion of an attorney to the effect that the bill as now reported "is completely subversive of all principles of liberty," and added: "Organized labor seeks no immunity from the law applicable to all other citizens and people of our country, but must insist that those things which are legal when performed by other citizens ought not to be illegal when performed by members of organized labwor, and it was to recover those rights to the members of organized labor that the original bill was drafted.'

He concludes by saying that the labor interests would prefer the defeat of the bill, as amended, to its passage. He, however, asks that the original bill be favorably acted upon.

MILE'S CASE CONSIDERED.

Root and the President Consulted Over the Statement of Army Commander.

Washington, March 22.—Secretary Root was in consultation for some time with President Roosevelt at the White House last night, regarding the statement of General Miles before the military affairs committee of the senate. Senator Spooner also was present.

Secretary Root declined to talk for publication concerning the matter, saying that he had not read the testimony given by General Miles before the committee. It is understood that General Miles has been furnished the stenographic report of his testimony for revision.

MILES CAN BE RETIRED,

But Senators Doubt if He Can Be Otherwise Punished.

Washington, March 22.—The printed testimony of General Miles has not yet been made public, and it is understood that it will be submitted to him for approval. It is well understood that a great deal of what the general said will not appear in the record. Members of the committee say the report published was correct in substance in every particular.

At the same time these senators do not agree that General Miles can be punished for his utterances before the committee, whether they appear in the record or not. Of course the committee could take no action to prevent the retirement of General Miles. That, under the law, is purely an executive act and needs no confirmation or approval of the senate.

WANT TAFT TO RETURN.

Letter Received by Secretary Root From a Prominant Filipino.

Washington, March 22—Secretary Root has received a characteristic letter from Mr. Felipe Buencamino, who was one of the leaders in the original Philippine civil service commission and a staunch friend of the United States government:

"Permit me," he says, "to offer you my congratulations for your policy over my people, Philippine Islands. In my people's name, I request that you send promptly hereto Governor Taft."

The officials are highly gratified at this unsolicited evidence of the appreciation by the friendly Filipinos of the efforts of Governor Taft to ameliorate their condition and give them a good government.

House Passed River and Harbor Bill.

Washington, March 22.—The house yesterday passed the river and harbor bill, which has been under consideration throughout the week. Although several minor amendments were adopted, not a single dollar was added to the measure, and as passed it carried exactly what it did when it came from the committee—$60,688,267, including authorizations. Mr. Sulzer, of New York, attempted to force a record vote on the final passage of the bill, but only three members, Messrs. Smith, of Iowa; Fitzgerald, of New York, and Cochran, of Missouri, supported him.

To Close Schley Controversy.

Washington, March 22.—The house committee on naval affairs, by a vote of 7 to 4, yesterday adopted a resolution concurring in the conclusions of President Roosevelt as to terminating the agitation of the Schley controversy, and indefinitely postponing all bills and resolutions on the subject.

Why a City Should Own Its Street Cars

By Tom Johnson, Mayor of Cleveland

I HAVE OPERATED STREET RAILWAY LINES WITH THREE, FOUR, FIVE AND EVEN SIX CENT FARE, AND I KNOW THAT THERE IS A PROFIT IN THREE CENT FARE. THEREFORE, NO FRANCHISE SHOULD BE GRANTED EXCEPTING ON THE BASIS OF THREE CENT FARE AND UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS. THREE CENT FARE IN CHICAGO, FOR EXAMPLE, WOULD YIELD 20 PER CENT ON THE ACTUAL COST OF REPRODUCING THE CHICAGO PROPERTIES, AND IF THE CITY ITSELF OPERATED THESE LINES IT COULD MORE THAN PAY THE INTEREST AND EXPENSE OF SUCH OPERATION ON TWO CENT FARE, INCLUDING UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS.

A PASTOR WHO WAS BEFRIENDED BY AN EMPEROR SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Elkhorn, Wis., is pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Church of that place. Rev. Steubenvoll is the possessor of two bibles presented to him by Emperor William of Germany. Upon the fly leaf of one of the bibles the Emperor has written in his own handwriting a text.

This honored pastor in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., says concerning their famous catarrh remedy, Peruna:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "I had hemorrhages of the lungs for a long time, and all despaired of me. I took Peruna and was cured. It gave me strength and courage, and made healthy, pure blood. It increased my weight, gave me a healthy color, and I feel well. It is the best medicine in the world. If everyone kept Peruna in the house it would save many from death every year."

Yours very truly,

REV. H. STUBENVOLL.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called some other name than catarrh. The fact is, catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equally great importance, is that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

Catarrh is an American disease. Fully one-half of the people are afflicted more or less with it in some form. Previous to the discovery of Peruna, catarrh was considered well nigh incurable. Since the introduction of Peruna to the medical profession thousands of cases are cured annually.

Mr. W. D. Smith, a well-known grocer of Port Huron, Mich., writes:

"By following your instructions and taking Peruna and Manalin I am cured of catarrh. I had catarrh for twelve years and quite a bad cough so I could not sleep nights. I do not have any cough now, and if I feel anything in the throat I take a swallow of Peruna and I am alright."—W. D. Smith.

Suffered Fifteen Years.

C. F. Gerding, Milburn, Neb., writes: "I contracted a heavy cold about fifteen years ago and tried all kinds of patent medicines and drugs recommended for a cold or heavy cough, but found none to help me until I commenced using Peruna. My age is seventy-eight years, and I am better now than I have been for years. I still keep using your great medicine, and am still improving in health. I recommend it to all sufferers with coughs and colds."—C. F. Gerding.

Peruna, The Greatest Remedy Known For Catarrh.

Mr. Chas. H. Stevens, 97 Seventeenth Street, Detroit, Mich., writes: "It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of Peruna as a remedy for catarrh. I suffered for some time with chronic nasal catarrh, but after five months' treatment during which time I used seven bottles of Peruna I am pleased to say that I am entirely well, there being not the slightest trace of the catarrh left. Peruna is without doubt the greatest remedy known for catarrh."—Chas. H. Stevens.

Afflicted Since Childhood With Catarrh.

Mr. Elbert S. Richards, Milton, Conn., writes:

"I am near sixty-eight years of age, and have from childhood been afflicted with catarrh in the head, and, for the past four or five years been much afflicted with it in my eyes; they being watery, would materate a good deal, and stick together in the night. My condition was so fully described in your almanac that I decided to try Peruna.

"I am thankful to say that I now consider myself entirely free from catarrh, and only use Peruna occasionally now as a tonic. Accept my sincere thanks for your personal interest in my case.

"My son, 21 years of age, has been using Peruna for a number of weeks for catarrh in the head and has obtained great relief."—Elbert S. Richards.

Catarrh Thirty Years.

Mr. Andrew Barrett, 940 N. Kidzie Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to testify to the merits of such a worthy remedy for catarrh as your Peruna. I had suffered for thirty years from this very disagreeable disease and had tried many so-called remedies but until I used Peruna none had the desired effect.

"I have been connected with the Chicago Police Department for the past twenty-eight years. I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to anyone suffering from catarrh."—Andrew Barrett.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

A PASTOR WHO WAS BEFRIENDED BY AN EMPEROR SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Elkhorn, Wis., is pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Church of that place. Rev. Steubenvoll is the possessor of two bibles presented to him by Emperor William of Germany. Upon the fly leaf of one of the bibles the Emperor has written in his own handwriting a text.

This honored pastor in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., says concerning their famous catarrh remedy, Peruna:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "I had hemorrhages of the lungs for a long time, and all despaired of me. I took Peruna and was cured. It gave me strength and courage, and made healthy, pure blood. It increased my weight, gave me a healthy color, and I feel well. It is the best medicine in the world. If everyone kept Peruna in the house it would save many from death every year."

Yours very truly,

REV. H. STUBENVOLL.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called some other name than catarrh. The fact is, catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equally great importance, is that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

Catarrh is an American disease. Fully one-half of the people are afflicted more or less with it in some form. Previous to the discovery of Peruna, catarrh was considered well nigh incurable. Since the introduction of Peruna to the medical profession thousands of cases are cured annually.

Mr. W. D. Smith, a well-known grocer of Port Huron, Mich., writes:

"By following your instructions and taking Peruna and Manalin I am cured of catarrh. I had catarrh for twelve years and quite a bad cough so I could not sleep nights. I do not have any cough now, and if I feel anything in the throat I take a swallow of Peruna and I am alright."—W. D. Smith.

Suffered Fifteen Years.

C. F. Gerding, Milburn, Neb., writes: "I contracted a heavy cold about fifteen years ago and tried all kinds of patent medicines and drugs recommended for a cold or heavy cough, but found none to help me until I commenced using Peruna. My age is seventy-eight years, and I am better now than I have been for years. I still keep using your great medicine, and am still improving in health. I recommend it to all sufferers with coughs and colds."—C. F. Gerding.

Peruna, The Greatest Remedy Known For Catarrh.

Mr. Chas. H. Stevens, 97 Seventeenth Street, Detroit, Mich., writes: "It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of Peruna as a remedy for catarrh. I suffered for some time with chronic nasal catarrh, but after five months' treatment during which time I used seven bottles of Peruna I am pleased to say that I am entirely well, there being not the slightest trace of the catarrh left. Peruna is without doubt the greatest remedy known for catarrh."—Chas. H. Stevens.

Afflicted Since Childhood With Catarrh.

Mr. Elbert S. Richards, Milton, Conn., writes:

"I am near sixty-eight years of age, and have from childhood been afflicted with catarrh in the head, and, for the past four or five years been much afflicted with it in my eyes; they being watery, would materate a good deal, and stick together in the night. My condition was so fully described in your almanac that I decided to try Peruna.

"I am thankful to say that I now consider myself entirely free from catarrh, and only use Peruna occasionally now as a tonic. Accept my sincere thanks for your personal interest in my case.

"My son, 21 years of age, has been using Peruna for a number of weeks for catarrh in the head and has obtained great relief."—Elbert S. Richards.

Catarrh Thirty Years.

Mr. Andrew Barrett, 940 N. Kidzie Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to testify to the merits of such a worthy remedy for catarrh as your Peruna. I had suffered for thirty years from this very disagreeable disease and had tried many so-called remedies but until I used Peruna none had the desired effect.

"I have been connected with the Chicago Police Department for the past twenty-eight years. I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to anyone suffering from catarrh."—Andrew Barrett.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

COUNTY AND NEIGHBORHOOD

New Waterford baseball team has reorganized with J. B. Eyster as manager.

Many men who left the Lisbon tin mill to work at the Canton plant have returned home.

John W. Crawford, of East Fairfield, 47 years old, was crushed by falling slate in a mine and died.

The floater found in the river at Brown's island a few days ago was buried without identification.

Joseph McGoogan's son narrowly escaped being killed at Lisbon by a mad steer which had escaped from a butcher.

The M. E. church at East Fairfield is undergoing extensive interior repairs. A new hot air heater is one of the improvements.

Alice Snyder, aged 31, daughter of Jacob Snyder, formerly of New Waterford, died at Beaver Falls, and was buried at New Waterford.

Herman Pornick, aged 46, was ordered to clean out a locomotive at Youngstown and while he was under it a train bumped into it, crushing him to death.

The body of Mangus Fahrenbach, who suicided by jumping from the Wheeling bridge into the river a week ago, was found floating in the river near Bellaire.

Section men found a broken rail in the main track of the C. & P. railroad near Brilliant. Repairs were made just in time to prevent the wrecking of a passenger train.

All boys under 16 years of age are being discharged at the National Steel company's plant at Mingo by order of the state school commissioner, who says he is going to enforce the law.

Andrew Bolkowski, a Polander, who killed his wife near Adena a few weeks ago, is on trial for murder at Cadiz. The prisoner pleaded guilty, but a formal trial is required in a murder case. If he goes to the electrocution chair at Columbus, which seems probable, it will be the first case of capital punishment from Harrison county.

STRUCK IN SYMPATHY

Alliance, March 22.—The electrical department of the Morgan Engineering company's works, numbering about 25 men, together with five brass foundrymen, quit work yesterday in sympathy with the striking machinists. It is thought the pattern makers will also go out.

The board of trade has asked for a conference with the officials of the works in an effort to adjust the present difficulty.

It has been arranged between the state department and the war department that the stars and stripes shall be raised over the Danish West Indian islands by a detachment of United States troops as soon as the Danish military forces have been withdrawn. The administration has decided that the exchange of ratifications constitutes the formal transfer of authority and that it will not be necessary to wait until the purchase price—$5,000,000—has been paid before the United States government assumes possession.

A bill before congress purposes that Uncle Sam expend $100,000,000 in improving roads. There are worse uses that he could make of his surplus cash. But if he is going into the road-building business, he will doubtless use his money in communities that show a disposition to help a little.

General Miles threatens to retire from the army. If he is not more circumspect, the president may attend to the matter for him. Much as the general is respected and honored, even his staunchest friends must admit that his recent outbreak in the senate was entirely uncalled for.

There are 26 steel ship yards in the United States, and only six have as many as one vessel under way to be registered for foreign trade. Just 17 vessels in all are under construction in the United States for deep-sea service. The ship subsidy bill is a necessity of the situation.

Conversation has been successfully carried on by means of wireless telephones for a distance of a third of a mile. Humph! There are hundreds of men who were reared among the hills who can do better than that without the aid of any sort of devices.

The late Collis P. Huntington left between $28,000,000 and $29,000,000. He might have saved $3,000,000 more had he not loaned money to people who never paid it. But he never became "an easy mark" until he could afford such an experiment.

The bill to protect the president from cranks has been passed by the senate. As Senator Fairbanks said, it was inspired by obvious necessity, and it is therefore strange that any discussion was considered necessary.

The Americans who are shouting "Hoch der Kaiser" would be more numerous and enthusiastic if the German monarch were less prejudiced against our beef and canned goods.

Two Indiana men propose to start for the north pole, as Andree did, in a balloon. They will probably alight as Andree did—nobody knows where or when.

Bryan's capacity for blundering is as great as ever. He is about the only person in the country who has not become weary of his tirades.

AT THE THEATER

The play, "Hon. John Grigsby," was presented at the Grand last evening in a thoroughly artistic manner. The performance was highly enjoyable, from start to finish. Frank Keenan in the leading role gave it such an interpretation as only a gifted actor is capable of. George C. Staley, Fred L. Power, William Webb and F. J. McIntyre gave him able support. The ladies of the cast, Misses Edna Phillips, Katherine Fisher, Josepha Crowell and Kate Long, while pleasing, did not appear to such advantage as the male players. This is the only criticism that can justly be offered on the play, which, taken as a whole, was a rare treat for all who witnessed it. A larger audience, which was certainly merited, would doubtless have inspired better work all around.

Denman Tompson's latest successful New England play, "Our New Minister," will be seen here for the first time at the opera house next Wednesday evening. In this new play the "Old Homestead" author is to be credited with a work of definite merit; the subject is one new to the stage and presents life as it is found today, in any New England village. Mr. Thompson is what may be termed a naturalisitic writer, and the efforts of his pen are always welcome.

ANOTHER DEAL

the stockholders of the Laughlin Pottery company would be held in the general offices of the company at its No. 2 plant during the first week in July. The exact date of the meeting will be arranged after President Aarons and Secretary Wells confer, although it is generally suposed the meeting will be held on July 1. When asked if there was any probability of the present personnel of the officers being changed, the informant remarked: "We have a good set of officers, the best there is to be had, and no change is thought of."

Charles Rager, a saggermaker at the United States, is working on what he thinks is an important discovery in a new clay to be used in the making of saggers. He has been experimenting lately on some clay which he has found in large quantities on a farm about 7 miles across the country in West Virginia, and thinks he will be able to demonstrate that the new product will take the place of that now in use for the making of saggers. Rager has had two wagon loads of the clay brought to Wellsville and a batch of trial saggers will be made from this.

Warehouse womens' local No. 7606 will have no representation in the next convention of the National Brotherhood. This condition is caused by a constitutional provision to the effect that a local must be affiliated a certain length of time before they are entitled to be represented. Mrs. Jenkins, president of the local, states, however, that the organization has no matters of importance which they would have any inclination to bring before the next meeting of the Brotherhood, as the trade is in excellent condition.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will meet at Brotherhood hall this evening, at which time it likely the entire set of resolutions which will be presented by this branch of the Brotherhood to the convention, will be passed. The meeting of the resolution committee held Thursday evening was very harmonious, and there is very little left for the local to do in arranging matters. A large attendance is expected at the meeting tonight.

Bernard Rhead, who has been in the city for several weeks, looking after the interest of the Thomas Hulme company, of Hanley, Eng., is expected to return to his home soon after the first of the month. His visit here has been quite successful, and upon his return to England he will take the effects of the late James Clarke, which were left in this city, before his last and fatal trip to Europe.

A meeting of the committee having in charge the resolutions which are to be presented to the national convention in May by kilndrawers' local No. 17 was held at the home of Edward Veith, on Walnut street. A report of this meeting will be presented to the local on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Childers and William Polton, of Sebring, were married recently at Youngstown. Both are well known here where they have worked. Mrs. Polton was formerly a delegate in Trades council from the warehouse womens' local, while the groom was at one time employed as a presser at the Harker. They will reside here.

Martin Thornbury, bench boss on the glost end at the New Castle pottery, has written friends in this city that he is well pleased with the new shop and the prospects for it being operated steadily are very bright. Mr. Thornbury was formerly employed at the Dresden.

Charles Plant, aged 24, formerly a presser at the Burford, but who has recently resided at Wheeling, died Thursday after an illness of nine months. Last fall he became ill, and was compelled to go to his home in Wheeling.

John Wood, though expected to report for duty at the Diamond last Monday, will not leave the National until next Monday. Mr. Wood has been working at the National since the holidays.

John Weingartner, a saucer jigger-man at the Union, has resigned his position and will hereafter be located at the Dresden. This position for the present at the Union is filled by Henry Weible.

Albert Hargraves, formerly of the Globe, has been working for several days in the packing department at Cartwright's. Sherman Thomas has also taken a position at the same place.

Arthur Hill, who was injured at the Laughlin No. 2 Thursday evening, is recovering from his injury as rapidly as could be expected, though the hurt is causing him much pain.

George Mountford, a turner at the East Liverpool, has been unable to work for several days on account of an attack of the grip. His position is being filled by James Penny.

Work has been resumed in all departments at the Union pottery, the improvements to the machinery in the slip house having been completed a few days ago.

Herbert Lee, employd in the mould shop at the Klondike, is said to have an ambition to become a detective, and may enter the employ of a Chicago agency.

George Kennedy, a kiln hand at the United States, Wellsville, has been compelled on account of illness to give up his position.

John Herron, of Wall street, a batter-out at Laughlin No. 2 for the big jigger, who has been ill for several weeks, is able to be out.

Pat Hester, of the biscuit end of Cartwright's, has been off duty for several days on account of suffering with a large carbuncle.

James Mount, a plate jiggerman at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for several days on account of the death of a relative.

There is a shortage of kilnmen on the glost end at the Union. Increases will also be made on the biscuit end before long also.

John Barber has taken a position on the glost crew at the D. E. McNicol pottery. He commenced work a few days ago.

Charles W. Myler, a decorating kiln placer at the United States, will return to work Monday after an illness.

Ralph Turner, formerly of McNicol's, has taken a position on the glost end at Brunt's.

The big jigger at the East Liverpool has suspended operations for a few days.

Harry DeTemple, a presser at the Burford, is off duty on account of illness.

Edward Wyman, formerly of the National, is now printing at the Burford.

John Barber, of the glost end at McNicol's, is ill at his home.

James Ward, employed at the French China company, and Lizzie Lewis, a decorator at the Sebring pottery, Sebring, will be married in Canton tonight. They will be given a reception on their return home.

AT THE THEATER

The play, "Hon. John Grigsby," was presented at the Grand last evening in a thoroughly artistic manner. The performance was highly enjoyable, from start to finish. Frank Keenan in the leading role gave it such an interpretation as only a gifted actor is capable of. George C. Staley, Fred L. Power, William Webb and F. J. McIntyre gave him able support. The ladies of the cast, Misses Edna Phillips, Katherine Fisher, Josepha Crowell and Kate Long, while pleasing, did not appear to such advantage as the male players. This is the only criticism that can justly be offered on the play, which, taken as a whole, was a rare treat for all who witnessed it. A larger audience, which was certainly merited, would doubtless have inspired better work all around.

Denman Tompson's latest successful New England play, "Our New Minister," will be seen here for the first time at the opera house next Wednesday evening. In this new play the "Old Homestead" author is to be credited with a work of definite merit; the subject is one new to the stage and presents life as it is found today, in any New England village. Mr. Thompson is what may be termed a naturalisitic writer, and the efforts of his pen are always welcome.

the stockholders of the Laughlin Pottery company would be held in the general offices of the company at its No. 2 plant during the first week in July. The exact date of the meeting will be arranged after President Aarons and Secretary Wells confer, although it is generally suposed the meeting will be held on July 1. When asked if there was any probability of the present personnel of the officers being changed, the informant remarked: "We have a good set of officers, the best there is to be had, and no change is thought of."

Charles Rager, a saggermaker at the United States, is working on what he thinks is an important discovery in a new clay to be used in the making of saggers. He has been experimenting lately on some clay which he has found in large quantities on a farm about 7 miles across the country in West Virginia, and thinks he will be able to demonstrate that the new product will take the place of that now in use for the making of saggers. Rager has had two wagon loads of the clay brought to Wellsville and a batch of trial saggers will be made from this.

Warehouse womens' local No. 7606 will have no representation in the next convention of the National Brotherhood. This condition is caused by a constitutional provision to the effect that a local must be affiliated a certain length of time before they are entitled to be represented. Mrs. Jenkins, president of the local, states, however, that the organization has no matters of importance which they would have any inclination to bring before the next meeting of the Brotherhood, as the trade is in excellent condition.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will meet at Brotherhood hall this evening, at which time it likely the entire set of resolutions which will be presented by this branch of the Brotherhood to the convention, will be passed. The meeting of the resolution committee held Thursday evening was very harmonious, and there is very little left for the local to do in arranging matters. A large attendance is expected at the meeting tonight.

Bernard Rhead, who has been in the city for several weeks, looking after the interest of the Thomas Hulme company, of Hanley, Eng., is expected to return to his home soon after the first of the month. His visit here has been quite successful, and upon his return to England he will take the effects of the late James Clarke, which were left in this city, before his last and fatal trip to Europe.

A meeting of the committee having in charge the resolutions which are to be presented to the national convention in May by kilndrawers' local No. 17 was held at the home of Edward Veith, on Walnut street. A report of this meeting will be presented to the local on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Childers and William Polton, of Sebring, were married recently at Youngstown. Both are well known here where they have worked. Mrs. Polton was formerly a delegate in Trades council from the warehouse womens' local, while the groom was at one time employed as a presser at the Harker. They will reside here.

Martin Thornbury, bench boss on the glost end at the New Castle pottery, has written friends in this city that he is well pleased with the new shop and the prospects for it being operated steadily are very bright. Mr. Thornbury was formerly employed at the Dresden.

Charles Plant, aged 24, formerly a presser at the Burford, but who has recently resided at Wheeling, died Thursday after an illness of nine months. Last fall he became ill, and was compelled to go to his home in Wheeling.

John Wood, though expected to report for duty at the Diamond last Monday, will not leave the National until next Monday. Mr. Wood has been working at the National since the holidays.

John Weingartner, a saucer jiggerman at the Union, has resigned his position and will hereafter be located at the Dresden. This position for the present at the Union is filled by Henry Weible.

Albert Hargraves, formerly of the Globe, has been working for several days in the packing department at Cartwright's. Sherman Thomas has also taken a position at the same place.

Arthur Hill, who was injured at the Laughlin No. 2 Thursday evening, is recovering from his injury as rapidly as could be expected, though the hurt is causing him much pain.

George Mountford, a turner at the East Liverpool, has been unable to work for several days on account of an attack of the grip. His position is being filled by James Penny.

Work has been resumed in all departments at the Union pottery, the improvements to the machinery in the slip house having been completed a few days ago.

Herbert Lee, employd in the mould shop at the Klondike, is said to have an ambition to become a detective, and may enter the employ of a Chicago agency.

George Kennedy, a kiln hand at the United States, Wellsville, has been compelled on account of illness to give up his position.

Pat Hester, of the biscuit end of Cartwright's, has been off duty for several days on account of suffering with a large carbuncle.

James Mount, a plate jiggerman at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for several days on account of the death of a relative.

There is a shortage of kilnmen on the glost end at the Union. Increases will also be made on the biscuit end before long also.

John Barber has taken a position on the glost crew at the D. E. McNicol pottery. He commenced work a few days ago.

Charles W. Myler, a decorating kiln placer at the United States, will return to work Monday after an illness.

Ralph Turner, formerly of McNicol's, has taken a position on the glost end at Brunt's.

The big jigger at the East Liverpool has suspended operations for a few days.

Harry DeTemple, a presser at the Burford, is off duty on account of illness.

Edward Wyman, formerly of the National, is now printing at the Burford.

John Barber, of the glost end at McNicol's, is ill at his home.

GOOD-HEARTED OFFICER

Deputy Sheriff Allison Had Sympathy For Demented Albert Shenton.

Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Allison, who took Albert Shenton to Lisbon yesterday afternoon, handcuffed the prisoner only after being repeatedly advised by the police to do so. The deputy had to walk him to the Diamond to get a street car for Wellsville and for this reason did not wish to make a display of the unfortunate man by placing the handcuffs on his wrists.

Shenton made no objection to being thus handicapped, though he shed tears as he shook hands and bade farewell to Mayor Davidson and others about the city hall. He continued, however, to talk about his visionary wealth and it is thought he will have to be sent to an asylum.

NO SIGN OF INSANITY

WELLSVILLE

MOVING THE MAIN

THOUGHT NECESSARY FOR STREET RAILWAY WORK.

Difficulty on Clark Avenue Discussed By Council—Conference With Mr. Healy.

To consider a plan by which the difficulty, which has arisen over the grading of Clark avenue by the street railway company preparatory to the laying of a track down to the corporation line, may be overcome the city council held a special meeting last evening.

Mr. Perkins, superintendent of the city water works, was present and stated that he had found that if the track is laid between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets to conform with the present grade of Clark avenue the main water pipe will come into almost immediate contact with the ties underlying the track, and consequently the cars jolting and jarring over the pipe would injure it to a great extent. He suggested that council either have the line of the street railway changed to the left side of the avenue or move the water main to the right of the street.

After considerable wrangling council found it impossible to come to an agreement without having a conference with Supt. Healy and a committee consisting of Whitacre, Shoub and Glaser was appointed to meet with Mr. Healy and Mr. Perkins, of the water works, in the latter's office next Monday evening for the purpose of settling the matter.

Every member expressed himself as being confident that Mr. Healy would agree to do anything within reason, as he had always treated them fairly heretofore. Solicitor Wells stated that it would simply be discretionary with Mr. Healy in regard to his moving the water main. According to the franchise given the street railway company, Mr. Healy cannot be required to move the main, but it is thought that he might be willing to help, as it will save trouble and expense hereafter. The expense attached to moving the main will not exceed $400.

Vigorous protests have been filed with the council during the week by property owners along Clark avenue. They all object strongly to having the route of the railway altered so that it will run next to the left curb. The cause, they aver, is that the street is only 30 feet wide and decidedly too narrow for a track extending to the curb. It is likely that council will not alter the course.

IMAGINARY BURGLARS

Seen By Children Call Out the Police On a Fruitless Errand.

Several children playing at the corner of Tenth and Main streets last evening at 8:30 o'clock imagined that they saw burglars prowling around in the grocery store owned by C. B. Cummins. The youngsters ran to the home of Mr. Cummins and apprised him of the fact. He immediately sent in a nalarm to police headquarters, but before the officers arrived Mr. Cummins discovered that there were no robbers about his store.

The boys, said Mr. Cummins, probably saw their own shadows.

New Era Club Meeting.

The members of the New Era club held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Gretta Fraser, Tenth street, last evening. A pleasant social was indulged in after the rendition of the following program: Quotations on Harrison, the club; paper on General Grant, Miss Nellie Davis; paper on General Lee, Miss Bessie McLean; paper on Abraham Lincoln, Miss Jennie Stevenson; club lesson on Civil war, led by Miss Goldie Murdock.

Lost His Finger.

While at work in the railroad shops yesterday afternoon James Mollineaux had a finger on his right hand severed. The finger came in contact with a sharp toothed saw. Another finger was badly mashed, but amputation will not be necessary. Mollineaux recently moved to Wellsville from Jackson county, W. Va., and is a skilled workman.

Frank Hibbits and Mrs. Samuel Bunting were called to Somerdale yesterday to see Mrs. Dr. Crawford, a daughter of Mrs. Bunting, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Elwood Bunting left yesterday for Landsdowne, Pa., to visit her daughter Emma, who is leading lady with the Bon Ton Stock company, which is playing a week's stand in that city.

SENTENCE COMPLETED

And James Lowe Is Released From County Jail to Work For the Sheriff.

James Lowe, who was arrested in this city a few months ago for furnishing liquor to minors, being bound over to court by Mayor Davidson, is now working for Sheriff Leonard, according to his own statement to Chief Thompson.

It will be remembered that Lowe was fined $75 and sentenced to jail to serve the penalty, owing to his inability to pay the mayor. His time expired a few days ago and he claims the sheriff immediately gave him a job.

BAPTIST MEETINGS

Encouraging Results From the Special Services—Another Week.

The services at the Baptist chapel continue to be well attended and are increasing in interest. Rev. W. W. Dixon preaches each evening at 8 o'clock, the song service beginning at 7:45. Mr. Dixon's sermon last evening on "The Uplifted Christ" was impressive and helpful. Services will be held this evening at the regular hours.

On Sunday the services will be of a special nature. The Sunday schoo' exercises will be made evangelistic. Mr. Dixon will preach at both services on Sunday. At the morning service "The Palms" will be sung. In the evening Mr. Donaldson will render a clarionet solo. The special meetings will continue next week.

SHENTON IS INSANE

Probate Court Regards Him As a Fit Subject for the Asylum.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Another candidate for the Massillon asylum has arrived from East Liverpool. Albert Shenton was adjudged insane this morning. His own testimony was enough to convince the court that he is demented. But little could be ascertained from him as to his previous life.

He claims to be the son of a minister and very wealthy. He says he is acting under the direction of the Lord, and is constantly wanting to buy expensive jewelry and furniture for his wife, from whom the Lord has separated him.

Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Allison, who took Albert Shenton to Lisbon yesterday afternoon, handcuffed the prisoner only after being repeatedly advised by the police to do so. The deputy had to walk him to the Diamond to get a street car for Wellsville and for this reason did not wish to make a display of the unfortunate man by placing the handcuffs on his wrists.

Shenton made no objection to being thus handicapped, though he shed tears as he shook hands and bade farewell to Mayor Davidson and others about the city hall. He continued, however, to talk about his visionary wealth and it is thought he will have to be sent to an asylum.

NO SIGN OF INSANITY

Discovered By Physicians Who Examined Unfortunate Mary Ann Robinson.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — The physicians' report in the insanity inquest on Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, who was fatally burned in the jail, is extremely brief. Her age is given as 51 years.

No incompetence in fully answering all questions was noted. No reasons to believe her insane and no causes for insanity are reported, save that her habits were necesssarily injurious to her mental and physical health.

JUNIORS WERE EASY

MOVING THE MAIN

THOUGHT NECESSARY FOR STREET RAILWAY WORK.

Difficulty on Clark Avenue Discussed By Council—Conference With Mr. Healy.

To consider a plan by which the difficulty, which has arisen over the grading of Clark avenue by the street railway company preparatory to the laying of a track down to the corporation line, may be overcome the city council held a special meeting last evening.

Mr. Perkins, superintendent of the city water works, was present and stated that he had found that if the track is laid between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets to conform with the present grade of Clark avenue the main water pipe will come into almost immediate contact with the ties underlying the track, and consequently the cars jolting and jarring over the pipe would injure it to a great extent. He suggested that council either have the line of the street railway changed to the left side of the avenue or move the water main to the right of the street.

After considerable wrangling council found it impossible to come to an agreement without having a conference with Supt. Healy and a committee consisting of Whitacre, Shoub and Glaser was appointed to meet with Mr. Healy and Mr. Perkins, of the water works, in the latter's office next Monday evening for the purpose of settling the matter.

Every member expressed himself as being confident that Mr. Healy would agree to do anything within reason, as he had always treated them fairly heretofore. Solicitor Wells stated that it would simply be discretionary with Mr. Healy in regard to his moving the water main. According to the franchise given the street railway company, Mr. Healy cannot be required to move the main, but it is thought that he might be willing to help, as it will save trouble and expense hereafter. The expense attached to moving the main will not exceed $400.

Vigorous protests have been filed with the council during the week by property owners along Clark avenue. They all object strongly to having the route of the railway altered so that it will run next to the left curb. The cause, they aver, is that the street is only 30 feet wide and decidedly too narrow for a track extending to the curb. It is likely that council will not alter the course.

IMAGINARY BURGLARS

Seen By Children Call Out the Police On a Fruitless Errand.

Several children playing at the corner of Tenth and Main streets last evening at 8:30 o'clock imagined that they saw burglars prowling around in the grocery store owned by C. B. Cummins. The youngsters ran to the home of Mr. Cummins and apprised him of the fact. He immediately sent in a nalarm to police headquarters, but before the officers arrived Mr. Cummins discovered that there were no robbers about his store.

The boys, said Mr. Cummins, probably saw their own shadows.

New Era Club Meeting.

The members of the New Era club held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Gretta Fraser, Tenth street, last evening. A pleasant social was indulged in after the rendition of the following program: Quotations on Harrison, the club; paper on General Grant, Miss Nellie Davis; paper on General Lee, Miss Bessie McLean; paper on Abraham Lincoln, Miss Jennie Stevenson; club lesson on Civil war, led by Miss Goldie Murdock.

Lost His Finger.

While at work in the railroad shops yesterday afternoon James Mollineaux had a finger on his right hand severed. The finger came in contact with a sharp toothed saw. Another finger was badly mashed, but amputation will not be necessary. Mollineaux recently moved to Wellsville from Jackson county, W. Va., and is a skilled workman.

SENTENCE COMPLETED

And James Lowe Is Released From County Jail to Work For the Sheriff.

James Lowe, who was arrested in this city a few months ago for furnishing liquor to minors, being bound over to court by Mayor Davidson, is now working for Sheriff Leonard, according to his own statement to Chief Thompson.

It will be remembered that Lowe was fined $75 and sentenced to jail to serve the penalty, owing to his inability to pay the mayor. His time expired a few days ago and he claims the sheriff immediately gave him a job.

BAPTIST MEETINGS

Encouraging Results From the Special Services—Another Week.

The services at the Baptist chapel continue to be well attended and are increasing in interest. Rev. W. W. Dixon preaches each evening at 8 o'clock, the song service beginning at 7:45. Mr. Dixon's sermon last evening on "The Uplifted Christ" was impressive and helpful. Services will be held this evening at the regular hours.

On Sunday the services will be of a special nature. The Sunday school exercises will be made evangelistic. Mr. Dixon will preach at both services on Sunday. At the morning service "The Palms" will be sung. In the evening Mr. Donaldson will render a clarionet solo. The special meetings will continue next week.

SHENTON IS INSANE

Probate Court Regards Him As a Fit Subject for the Asylum.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Another candidate for the Massillon asylum has arrived from East Liverpool. Albert Shenton was adjudged insane this morning. His own testimony was enough to convince the court that he is demented. But little could be ascertained from him as to his previous life.

He claims to be the son of a minister and very wealthy. He says he is acting under the direction of the Lord, and is constantly wanting to buy expensive jewelry and furniture for his wife, from whom the Lord has separated him.

BOOKED FOR DEFEAT

Canal Abandonment Proposition and the Municipal Code Doomed.

SUBSTITUTE FOR FORMER

Features of the Primary Elections Bill—Habitual Criminal Act—Fire Insurance Legislation—Live Stock Commission Threatened.

Columbus, O., March 22.—[Special.]—There is no longer question than two of the important measures which have occupied the attention of the general assembly are booked for defeat. These are the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code. What looked like a probability early in the week is a certainty now. Neither of them can pass. There will be no substitute offered for the municipal code, but a substitute for the canal bill will be introduced and passed. This substitute has been drawn by Former Senator Seiber, of Akron, an advocate of canals, if not always of water. It provides for the perpetual continuance of the Miami and Erie canal in its entirety, and for the Ohio and Erie from Cleveland to Dresden the northern half. The southern half of this canal from Dresden to Portsmouth is to be continued pending an investigation of a commission to be appointed by the governor which will report upon the advisability of either continuing it in perpetuity or abandoning it and when. This report will not be submitted for some time and cannot be acted upon by the legislature until the session of two years hence. But the fact that the canals are not to be abandoned does not imply that the board of public works will be continued. There is a likelihood of dispensing with this portion of the public service by cutting down the appropriation for the payment of salaries to such a figure as to take away all the attractiveness of the office. While the constitution provides for the board and it could not be abolished with a constitutional amendment there might be difficulty in finding members at a $1 a year salary, and that is what is contemplated. There are more ways than one of getting rid of an officer who is not wanted.

The first primary election bill of the session has been passed by the house and needs only senate confirmation to become a law. It was introduced by Representative Ankeney of Greene, who as a reformer, is securing quite a record. This new measure strengthens the present law relating to the punishment of fraud at primaries. Now, the only person who can be held accountable for this offense is the man who buys the vote or influence of a primary voter. The judges and clerks of election can assist in the casting of fraudulent votes, and the law cannot touch them. Mr. Ankeney's bill provides that the judge clerk or other officer of a primary election who receives or sanctions the reception of a fraudulent vote—if he does it knowingly—shall be fined from $50 to $1000, and gives rest in a prison cell from three months to one year. The provisions of the bill are so specific that there can be no mistaking them. They class as fraudulent the refusal to accept a ballot where the voter has all the qualifications as well as the acceptance of a ballot from an illegal voter. Alterations of poll-books, ballots or tally sheets form an offense under the bill. It further allows any candidate to have two witnesses in the booth at a primary.

What, by students of criminology, has long been considered a somewhat barbarous law will undoubtedly be repealed—the house having placed upon it the stamp of disapproval. This is what is known as the habitual criminal act, permitting an offender to be kept in the penitentiary for life, following his third conviction and sentence to that institution. Mayor Golden Rule Jones, of Toledo, has long been in opposition to the bill and in his efforts to repeal it has been assisted by Warden Darby of the penitentiary and workers in prison reform. The law, it is claimed, has worked a great injustice, failing to reach the hardened criminals at which it was aimed, but often affecting those of less offensive character. Instances without number to prove this can be cited where men for committing petty crimes three times are now serving life imprisonment.

There is a determined and a definite purpose on the part of the senate and the sentiment is infecting the house, to do away with the passage of local bills permitting municipalities to issue bonds. Those attorneys in both branches who have given the matter any attention are unanimous in their opinion that such laws are unconstitutional and will not stand the test of supreme court scrutiny. Indeed, the court in several decisions has made plain its feeling in such matters. The plan is to prepare and have passed a general bill relating to bond issues and applying to all municipalities. This would do away with any charge of unconstitutionality and answer the purpose no less well.

A number of Ohio counties which under the present law are grouped together and thus often have no representative in the lower house of the general assembly, have protested so long and so loud that finally their cry has reached Macedonia—which in this case is the legislature. A resolution has been prepared and passed by the house—it will also pass the senate—providing that there be submitted to the people at the next general election a constitutional amendment giving to each county in the state at least one member in the house. This would add eight members and make the total membership 115. This contention is no new one. It has been up time and again, but until now it never received definite attention.

While the Patterson bill relating to the Boxwell law will be made into a law, it will be much amended from the original draft. As finally enacted it will provide that questions at examinations shall be uniform throughout the state and prepared by the commissioner of common schools. It will further definitely set the time and prescribe the manner for conducting the examinations and give to each member of a county board of examiners $10 a day for attendance at commencements. The closing provision is the one of the most importance to students and makes a Boxwell certificate good for admittance into any high school in the state.

Members from counties where their constituents are insisting upon bills placing county officials on a salary, are not disposed to move rapidly in the matter. The action of the judiciary committee of the house in declaring unconstitutional the Franklin county salary bill, which was drawn by able lawyers, as well as the rumor that the supreme court will hold all bills of a similar charcter to be contrary to law, has caused members to be wary and cautious. While it will not come during this session, the ultimate outcome is sure to be, providing any action is taken, a general law touching all counties and placing officials on a salary commensurate with their duties.

Mr. Fisher, of Medina, who bobbed up a short time ago as the new orator of the house, has now come forward as the originator of a new plan by which the spread of tuberculosis and other infectious diseases pertaining to cattle may be much reduced, if not entirely done away with. His idea is to entirely abolish the state live stock commission and place its power in the state board of agriculture, allowing the members of the latter $3 per diem for each day actually employed. The board is to be given full and unlimited authority to inspect cattle and to kill such as are found to be the victims of a disease, while the governor is empowered by proclamation to prohibit the importation of cattle into Ohio from infected districts. To assist in the carrying on of this work the board is authorized to employ a veterinarian and establish his salary, all of which is very good except that the salary of the latter should be determined by the legislature.

Representative McNamee, of Franklin, who is the Moses now leading the people out of bondage, is opposed to tax inquisitors on both private and public grounds. He wants them all abandoned as good St. Patrick banished the snakes from Ireland. "Away with them all," says Mr. McNamee, "they do no good," and suiting his action to his word, he has drafted a bill that, if passed, will make the office of tax inquisitor but a dream of the past. Mr. McNamee, by the way, is gaining a reputation as a humorist. His is the native wit of the genuine product of the "Green Isle." Guerin, of Erie, ran against one of his buzz-saw answers the other day and came out with the laugh against him. It was on the discussion of some bill during which Guerin asked if certain lawyers had not appeared before judiciary committee in defense of the measure for pay. McNamee was on his feet in an instant. "I resent the insinuation," he shouted, "and would inform the gentleman from Erie that there are still a few lawyers with a high sense of honor and deep feelings of patriotism." Guerin is a lawyer himself, and felt the thrust, but he made no reply except to go on with his argument, which by the way, was an able one, a thing for which he is becoming noted.

Senator Hosea's bill to establish a uniform fire insurance policy is found to be more sweeping in its provisions than first glance would indicate. Not only would it provide a uniform policy such as the New York standard, but it would also repeal the valued policy act, the anti-co-insurance law and the county appraiser's law, together with placing one-half the cost for the appraising of loss after fire upon the policy holders. The senator himself probably did not know quite what the law did. Certainly Mr. Hypes, who introduced a similar bill in the house, did not, but both are daily gaining knowledge through the flood of protests which they receive.

The agitation for an executive mansion is to be revived. Recent visits of legislators to other states where fine gubernatorial mansions were shown them has created in them a pardonable pride that Ohio may have the same. Mr. Metzger, of Stark, will probably introduce a bill setting aside $100,000 for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting a suitable house. It is believed that sufficient sentiment prevails in the general assembly to carry it through.

This is the time for legislative committees to take themselves away. The finance and public works committee of the house, and the finance committee of the senate are all away on jaunts, and will not return to work before Monday. These are the last to be made before the finance committees prepare the general appropriation bill and submit it.

BOOKED FOR DEFEAT

Features of the Primary Elections Bill—Habitual Criminal Act—Fire Insurance Legislation—Live Stock Commission Threatened.

Columbus, O., March 22.—[Special.]—There is no longer question that two of the important measures which have occupied the attention of the general assembly are booked for defeat. These are the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code. What looked like a probability early in the week is a certainty now. Neither of them can pass. There will be no substitute offered for the municipal code, but a substitute for the canal bill will be introduced and passed. This substitute has been drawn by Former Senator Seiber, of Akron, an advocate of canals, if not always of water. It provides for the perpetual continuance of the Miami and Erie canal in its entirety, and for the Ohio and Erie from Cleveland to Dresden—the northern half. The southern half of this canal from Dresden to Portsmouth is to be continued pending an investigation of a commission to be appointed by the governor which will report upon the advisability of either continuing it in perpetuity or abandoning it and when. This report will not be submitted for some time and cannot be acted upon by the legislature until the session of two years hence. But the fact that the canals are not to be abandoned does not imply that the board of public works will be continued. There is a likelihood of dispensing with this portion of the public service by cutting down the appropriation for the payment of salaries to such a figure as to take away all the attractiveness of the office. While the constitution provides for the board and it could not be abolished with a constitutional amendment there might be difficulty in finding members at a $1 a year salary, and that is what is contemplated. There are more ways than one of getting rid of an officer who is not wanted.

The first primary election bill of the session has been passed by the house and needs only senate confirmation to become a law. It was introduced by Representative Ankeney of Greene, who as a reformer, is securing quite a record. This new measure strengthens the present law relating to the punishment of fraud at primaries. Now, the only person who can be held accountable for this offense is the man who buys the vote or influence of a primary voter. The judges and clerks of election can assist in the casting of fraudulent votes, and the law cannot touch them. Mr. Ankeney's bill provides that the judge clerk or other officer of a primary election who receives or sanctions the reception of a fraudulent vote—if he does it knowingly—shall be fined from $50 to $1000, and gives rest in a prison cell from three months to one year. The provisions of the bill are so specific that there can be no mistaking them. They class as fraudulent the refusal to accept a ballot where the voter has all the qualifications as well as the acceptance of a ballot from an illegal voter. Alterations of poll-books, ballots or tally sheets form an offense under the bill. It further allows any candidate to have two witnesses in the booth at a primary.

What, by students of criminology, has long been considered a somewhat barbarous law will undoubtedly be repealed—the house having placed upon it the stamp of disapproval. This is what is known as the habitual criminal act, permitting an offender to be kept in the penitentiary for life, following his third conviction and sentence to that institution. Mayor Golden Rule Jones, of Toledo, has long been in opposition to the bill and in his efforts to repeal it has been assisted by Warden Darby of the penitentiary and workers in prison reform. The law, it is claimed, has worked a great injustice, failing to reach the hardened criminals at which it was aimed, but often affecting those of less offensive character. Instances without number to prove this can be cited where men for committing petty crimes three times are now serving life imprisonment.

There is a determined and a definite purpose on the part of the senate and the sentiment is infecting the house, to do away with the passage of local bills permitting municipalities to issue bonds. Those attorneys in both branches who have given the matter any attention are unanimous in their opinion that such laws are unconstitutional and will not stand the test of supreme court scrutiny. Indeed, the court in several decisions has made plain its feeling in such matters. The plan is to prepare and have passed a general bill relating to bond issues and applying to all municipalities. This would do away with any charge of unconstitutionality and answer the purpose no less well.

A number of Ohio counties which under the present law are grouped together and thus often have no representative in the lower house of the general assembly, have protested so long and so loud that finally their cry has reached Macedonia—which in this case is the legislature. A resolution has been prepared and passed by the house—it will also pass the senate—providing that there be submitted to the people at the next general election a constitutional amendment giving to each county in the state at least one member in the house. This would add eight members and make the total membership 118. This contention is no new one. It has been up time and again, but until now it never received definite attention.

While the Patterson bill relating to the Boxwell law will be made into a law, it will be much amended from the original draft. As finally enacted it will provide that questions at examinations shall be uniform throughout the state and prepared by the commissioner of common schools. It will further definitely set the time and prescribe the manner for conducting the examinations and give to each member of a county board of examiners $10 a day for attendance at commencements. The closing provision is the one of the most importance to students and makes a Boxwell certificate good for admittance into any high school in the state.

Members from counties where their constituents are insisting upon bills placing county officials on a salary, are not disposed to move rapidly in the matter. The action of the judiciary committee of the house in declaring unconstitutional the Franklin county salary bill, which was drawn by able lawyers, as well as the rumor that the supreme court will hold all bills of a similar charcter to be contrary to law, has caused members to be wary and cautious. While it will not come during this session, the ultimate outcome is sure to be, providing any action is taken, a general law touching all counties and placing officials on a salary commensurate with their duties.

Mr. Fisher, of Medina, who bobbed up a short time ago as the new orator of the house, has now come forward as the originator of a new plan by which the spread of tuberculosis and other infectious diseases pertaining to cattle may be much reduced, if not entirely done away with. His idea is to entirely abolish the state live stock commission and place its power in the state board of agriculture, allowing the members of the latter $3 per diem for each day actually employed. The board is to be given full and unlimited authority to inspect cattle and to kill such as are found to be the victims of a disease, while the governor is empowered by proclamation to prohibit the importation of cattle into Ohio from infected districts. To assist in the carrying on of this work the board is authorized to employ a veterinarian and establish his salary, all of which is very good except that the salary of the latter should be determined by the legislature.

Representative McNamee, of Franklin, who is the Moses now leading the people out of bondage, is opposed to tax inquisitors on both private and public grounds. He wants them all abandoned as good St. Patrick banished the snakes from Ireland. "Away with them all," says Mr. McNamee, "they do no good," and suiting his action to his word, he has drafted a bill that, if passed, will make the office of tax inquisitor but a dream of the past. Mr. McNamee, by the way, is gaining a reputation as a humorist. His is the native wit of the genuine product of the "Green Isle." Guerin, of Erie, ran against one of his buzz-saw answers the other day and came out with the laugh against him. It was on the discussion of some bill during which Guerin asked if certain lawyers had not appeared before judiciary committee in defense of the measure for pay. McNamee was on his feet in an instant. "I resent the insinuation," he shouted, "and would inform the gentleman from Erie that there are still a few lawyers with a high sense of honor and deep feelings of patriotism." Guerin is a lawyer himself, and felt the thrust, but he made no reply except to go on with his argument, which by the way, was an able one, a thing for which he is becoming noted.

Senator Hosea's bill to establish a uniform fire insurance policy is found to be more sweeping in its provisions than first glance would indicate. Not only would it provide a uniform policy such as the New York standard, but it would also repeal the valued policy act, the anti-co-insurance law and the county appraiser's law, together with placing one-half the cost for the appraising of loss after fire upon the policy holders. The senator himself probably did not know quite what the law did. Certainly Mr. Hypes, who introduced a similar bill in the house, did not, but both are daily gaining knowledge through the flood of protests which they receive.

The agitation for an executive mansion is to be revived. Recent visits of legislators to other states where fine gubernatorial mansions were shown them has created in them a pardonable pride that Ohio may have the same. Mr. Metzger, of Stark, will probably introduce a bill setting aside $100,000 for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting a suitable house. It is believed that sufficient sentiment prevails in the general assembly to carry it through.

This is the time for legislative committees to take themselves away. The finance and public works committee of the house, and the finance committee of the senate are all away on jaunts, and will not return to work before Monday. These are the last to be made before the finance committees prepare the general appropriation bill and submit it.

RESOLUTION.

Declaring It Necessary to Improve Robinson Street from Walnut street to Pennsylvania Avenue.

Resolved, by the City Council of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, (two-thirds of the members elected to the said council concurring) that it is deemed necessary for said city to improve Robinson street from Walnut street to Pennsylvania avenue in said city, by grading, curbing and paving with paving brick in accordance with the plans and profiles on file in the office of the city engineer, and that the cost and expense of the said improvement, less the cost and expense of improving street intersections and one-fiftieth of the entire cost and expense and such further sum as the council may elect to collect by general taxation shall be levied and assessed upon such abutting, adjacent, continguous and benefited lands in said city, as the council shall specify in the ordinance for such improvement; and the City Clerk is hereby directed to cause legal notice of the passage of this resolution to be served on the proper persons, and publication of the resolution to be made, and make return, as required by law.

All persons claiming damage from the foregoing improvement must file their claims therefor in the office of the City Clerk, within four weeks from the first publication of this resolution, or within twenty days after the service of written notice of the passage of the same.

Passed February 11, 1902.

To Owners of Vacant Lots:

We are about to publish the most complete sale list of vacant lots ever offered to the purchasing public of East Liverpool; its scope will cover from the state line to Walkers; and from the river to Thompson's Boulevard. It will be issued in the form of a supplement, to each of our daily papers on Saturday, March 29th; complete description, location and price of your lot will be given in it if you will place it on sale with us or or before March 22d. In order that the public of East Liverpool may appr:ciate this list and preserve it we will give on its reverse side a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool, showing and naming each street, alley, addition, public building, works, etc., and useful statistical information of the city. Every lot in the city is saleable. Place yours with us at once if you desire to sell.

To Prospective Purchasers of Vacant Lots:

It will pay you to wait until March 29th before purchasing and see what is on sale with us. Our map will help you understand the city and determine where you want to live or invest. It is a well established fact that our prices are always under. We will save you money, time and serve you in many ways if you will let us. Delay your purchasing until our list is out.

To the General Public:

We are about to place in your hands a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool. We trust that though we have an adverist-ing profit through it that it will be of convenience to you and will help you locate the street upon which you live and know its name and that you will co-operate in getting our city council to renumber our streets, rename some of them and above all place the names at the corner of the intersecting streets.

BRIGHTER EVERY DAY

Local People Who Are Interested Have Received Most Encouring News.

The prospects of the Green Mountain Mining and Milling company, of this city, grow brighter every day. Its Colorado property is certainly a bonanza, unless experts are mistaken, and men who have had years of experience in the mining business usually know what they are talking about. The following letter speaks for itself and shows that those who have invested in the mine have every reason to be satisfied:

The Green Mountain Mining and Milling Company, East Liverpool, O.
Mr. S. J. Cripps Secretary.

Dear Sirs—I have just returned from the workings of the Osceola and never was so surprised in my life as when I saw them wheeling the car out just as I arrived at the dump.

It was loaded to overflowing with the finest kind of lead and copper ore, the largest pieces being on top, some weighing 100 to 200 pounds, full of lead and copper.

On going inside I found the breast of the Osceola drift proper one mass of ore from one side to the other, the drift being not more than half the width of the vein, so the ore body must be 10 to 12 feet wide and by the looks of it will run at least $20 and maybe higher.

The contractor, Mr. Schwartz, was wild with excitement. He said if some mining man would see that he would build a 100-ton mill right away: he thought it was wonderful; he had never seen the like.

The drift on the Osceola proper is now in 45 feet and the other on No. 2, 22 feet. The latter holding its own right along.

I was so elated over the outlook that I couldn't help but inform you of the good news right away.

I would kindly advise you to be careful at what price you sell your stock. I wouldn't sell a share of mine even at par the way things are looking now. I am pretty sure now that all the different veins will pan out about the same way.

Very truly yours,
WM. BIELEFELDT, SR.

Wellsville Wife Says She Was Deserted Soon After Marriage. Asks Divorce.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Attorney Charles Boyd, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in which Jennie Ferguson asks adivorce from Frank Ferguson. They were married in Anamosa, Ia., in April, 1897. The wife charges that Ferguson deserted her the following November; that he is idle and dissipated and for a year has been a habitual drunkard. They have one child, of which she asks the custody.

Steamboat Man's Child Dying.

Slowly gasping her life away at her home in Williamston, near Huntington, W. Va., lies little Helen Roe, the infant daughter of Captain W. E. Roe, of the steamer Kanawha. Several months ago the child secured some shelled corn and, infant-like, put one of the kernels in her nose. The kernel was drawn into one of the lungs, where it became fastened. Later the child caught cold, the cold developed itno pneumonia, the grain of corn began growing and the growth cannot be stopped. The child is too young to stand an operation and is slowly dying.

Come to our Easter Opening March 21 to 29, Mrs. E. M. Leasure.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Making Improvements—Mrs. Peter Allison is making extensive improvements to her Sixth street property.

Painfully Injured—E. M. Bennett, of May street, was painfully injured while unloading water plugs for the water works. An artery and tendon in his wrist were cut and bled badly.

Had to Take a Rest—Robert Green, a member of the Alliance police force, who is well known here, fell recently while pursuing a thief, and seriously injured his back. He was compelled to rest for a few days.

Invitations Issued—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith have issued invitations for the afternoon and evening of Friday Mar. 28. Both affairs will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith, on Pennsylvania avenue.

A Fine Showing—The annual financial statement of the Potters' Building and Savings company, printed on another page, is a most creditable showing for this flourishing institution and one which stockholders can certainly contemplate with satisfaction.

Much Needed Improvement—A 15-inch water sewer is being laid down the hill from Pleasant street to Eighth street near the Peake property, and it is an improvement that has been very badly needed. About 12 of the street men are engaged at the task, and will hardly complete it before Monday.

April 7 the Date—A great deal of speculation has been going on in certain quarters as to the date of the spring election. It has been argued that election day would fall on Tuesday, doubtless by reason of the fact that the November state elections are held on that day of the week. The spring municipal election falls on Monday, April 7, this year, and residents may make arrangements for their vacations accordingly.

A Daughter Born—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wylie, of Edgewood.

Teachers' Meeting—There will be a general teachers' meeting on Monday afternoon at the Central school.

Scholars Entertained—Mrs. W. R. Clarke entertained her Sunday school class in a very delightful manner last evening.

On Easter Saturday—Emma Marie Walters, of Front street, has issued invitations to her young friends for Easter Saturday, March 29, from 2 to 5.

Episcopal Services in Chester—The second Episcopal service will be held in the M. E. church at Chester Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Rev. Edwin Weary will officiate.

Teachers' Vacation Trip—About 12 teachers from this city will join the party which leaves during vacation week for a trip to Washington, D. C. Supt. W. W. Boyd, of Painesville, will conduct the party.

Palm Sunday — Tomorrow, Palm Sunday, exercises of special interest will be held at the Catholic, Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran churches. At all the churches attractive programs appropriate to the day will be carried out, including special music.

Octogenarian Dead.

Enos Heacock is dead at his home near Sebring. He was aged 80 years and was born on a farm near Salem, only a few miles from where he died. He was widely known and highly respected. The funeral will occur tomorrow.

To Owners of Vacant Lots:

We are about to publish the most complete sale list of vacant lots ever offered to the purchasing public of East Liverpool; its scope will cover from the state line to Walkers; and from the river to Thompson's Boulevard. It will be issued in the form of a supplement, to each of our daily papers on Saturday, March 29th; complete description, location and price of your lot will be given in it if you will place it on sale with us or or before March 22d. In order that the public of East Liverpool may appr ciate this list and preserve it we will give on its reverse side a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool, showing and naming each street, alley, addition, public building, works, etc., and useful statistical information of the city. Every lot in the city is saleable. Place yours with us at once if you desire to sell.

To Prospective Purchasers of Vacant Lots:

It will pay you to wait until March 29th before purchasing and see what is on sale with us. Our map will help you understand the city and determine where you want to live or invest. It is a well established fact that our prices are always under. We will save you money, time and serve you in many ways if you will let us. Delay your purchasing until our list is out.

To the General Public:

We are about to place in your hands a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool. We trust that though we have an adverist-ing profit through it that it will be of convenience to you and will help you locate the street upon which you live and know its name and that you will co-operate in getting our city council to renumber our streets, rename some of them and above all place the names at the corner of the intersecting streets.

Yours Truly,

Elijah W. Hill,

Real Estate Dealer.

P. S. Extra copies of the News Review of March 29th will be printed that all desiring maps may be supplied..

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Making Improvements—Mrs. Peter Allison is making extensive improvements to her Sixth street property.

Painfully Injured—E. M. Bennett, of May street, was painfully injured while unloading water plugs for the water works. An artery and tendon in his wrist were cut and bled badly.

Had to Take a Rest—Robert Green, a member of the Alliance police force, who is well known here, fell recently while pursuing a thief, and seriously injured his back. He was compelled to rest for a few days.

Invitations Issued—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith have issued invitations for the afternoon and evening of Friday Mar. 28. Both affairs will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith, on Pennsylvania avenue.

A Fine Showing—The annual financial statement of the Potters' Building and Savings company, printed on another page, is a most creditable showing for this flourishing institution and one which stockholders can certainly contemplate with satisfaction.

Much Needed Improvement—A 15-inch water sewer is being laid down the hill from Pleasant street to Eighth street near the Peake property, and it is an improvement that has been very badly needed. About 12 of the street men are engaged at the task, and will hardly complete it before Monday.

April 7 the Date—A great deal of speculation has been going on in certain quarters as to the date of the spring election. It has been argued that election day would fall on Tuesday, doubtless by reason of the fact that the November state elections are held on that day of the week. The spring municipal election falls on Monday, April 7, this year, and residents may make arrangements for their vacations accordingly.

A Daughter Born—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wylie, of Edgewood.

Teachers' Meeting—There will be a general teachers' meeting on Monday afternoon at the Central school.

Scholars Entertained—Mrs. W. R. Clarke entertained her Sunday school class in a very delightful manner last evening.

On Easter Saturday—Emma Marie Walters, of Front street, has issued invitations to her young friends for Easter Saturday, March 29, from 2 to 5.

Episcopal Services in Chester—The second Episcopal service will be held in the M. E. church at Chester Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Rev. Edwin Weary will officiate.

Teachers' Vacation Trip—About 12 teachers from this city will join the party which leaves during vacation week for a trip to Washington, D. C. Supt. W. W. Boyd, of Painesville, will conduct the party.

Palm Sunday — Tomorrow, Palm Sunday, exercises of special interest will be held at the Catholic, Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran churches. At all the churches attractive programs appropriate to the day will be carried out, including special music.

Octogenarian Dead.

Enos Heacock is dead at his home near Sebring. He was aged 80 years and was born on a farm near Salem, only a few miles from where he died. He was widely known and highly respected. The funeral will occur tomorrow.

BRIGHTER EVERY DAY

Local People Who Are Interested Have Received Most Encouring News.

The prospects of the Green Mountain Mining and Milling company, of this city, grow brighter every day. Its Colorado property is certainly a bonanza, unless experts are mistaken, and men who have had years of experience in the mining business usually know what they are talking about. The following letter speaks for itself and shows that those who have invested in the mine have every reason to be satisfied:

The Green Mountain Mining and Milling Company, East Liverpool, O.
Mr. S. J. Cripps Secretary.

Dear Sirs—I have just returned from the workings of the Osceola and never was so surprised in my life as when I saw them wheeling the car out just as I arrived at the dump.

It was loaded to overflowing with the finest kind of lead and copper ore, the largest pieces being on top, some weighing 100 to 200 pounds, full of lead and copper.

On going inside I found the breast of the Osceola drift proper one mass of ore from one side to the other, the drift being not more than half the width of the vein, so the ore body must be 10 to 12 feet wide and by the looks of it will run at least $20 and maybe higher.

The contractor, Mr. Schwartz, was wild with excitement. He said if some mining man would see that he would build a 100-ton mill right away; he thought it was wonderful; he had never seen the like.

The drift on the Osceola proper is now in 45 feet and the other on No. 2, 22 feet. The latter holding its own right along.

I was so elated over the outlook that I couldn't help but inform you of the good news right away.

I would kindly advise you to be careful at what price you sell your stock. I wouldn't sell a share of mine even at par the way things are looking now. I am pretty sure now that all the different veins will pan out about the same way.

Very truly yours,
WM. BIELEFELDT, SR.

Wellsville Wife Says She Was Deserted Soon After Marriage. Asks Divorce.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Attorney Charles Boyd, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in which Jennie Ferguson asks adivorce from Frank Ferguson. They were married in Anamosa, Ia., in April, 1897. The wife charges that Ferguson deserted her the following November; that he is idle and dissipated and for a year has been a habitual drunkard. They have one child, of which she asks the custody.

Steamboat Man's Child Dying.

Slowly gasping her life away at her home in Williamston, near Huntington, W. Va., lies little Helen Roe, the infant daughter of Captain W. E. Roe, of the steamer Kanawha. Several months ago the child secured some shelled corn and, infant-like, put one of the kernels in her nose. The kernel was drawn into one of the lungs, where it became fastened. Later the child caught cold, the cold developed itno pneumonia, the grain of corn began growing and the growth cannot be stopped. The child is too young to stand an operation and is slowly dying.

FOREIGN TRADE GAIN

DOMESTIC DEMANDS VIGOROUS.

Pressure For Iron and Steel Has Not Diminished Perceptibly — Believed That After July 1 Situation Will Become Approximately Normal.

New York, March 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Evidences of further improvement are numerous. Labor controversies are less threatening, many settlements having been effected, while others are momentarily anticipated; wages have been advanced, traffic congestion has subsided until impossible to deliver goods according to specifications; aside from some idle foot wear shops, the leading lines of manufacture are very fully engaged while jobbing trade is of exceptional magnitude. Retail dealings are also very large, the Easter stimulus being felt in all lines of wearing apparel. With domestic demands so vigorous it is especially encouraging to notice a gain for the last week in foreign trade at the principal ports.

Pressure Not Diminished.

Pressure for iron and steel has not diminished perceptibly, yet the impression is growing that after July 1 the situation will become approximately normal and it will be possible to secure deliveries with some degree of promptness. This is the more probable, as there has been a further stiffening of quotations and additional importations, which would have been much larger but for the advance in foreign markets. For some time to come it is probable that foreign commerce exhibits as to this industry will be less satisfactory, but it has been worthy of note that imports are mainly of pig iron, billets and sheets, while the exports of many lines of expensive machinery and other finished products are fully sustained. Large contracts are constantly under consideration for structural material on domestic account, including railway bridges, viaducts, car shops and office buildings.

Woolens Are Quiet.

Woolens are quiet, with only a fair movement of staple lines, though some fancy grades are fully sold and out of the market.

Grain markets have begun to feel the effects of weather reports, and for the next few months it will be a simple matter for speculators to secure erratic fluctuations. Strength was conspicuous on Tuesday, last year's serious injury to corn making quotations particularly sensitive to indications of drouth. Another helpful factor was the increase in exports of wheat and flour to 4,657,625 bushels for the week, against only 2,598,472 last week, and 3,355,098 a year ago. Western receipts continued to make an unfavorable comparison with the movement in 1901, wheat amounting to 2,899,990 bushels, against 4,165,833, and corn 1,460,536, compared with 3,074,011. Atlantic exports of corn increased largely over the low record of the preceding week to 298,884 bushels, and there is still a severe loss as compared with the 2,351,272 bushels shipped a year ago.

Failures for the week numbered 209 in the United States, against 224 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 33 last year.

STILL HIGHLY PROFESSIONAL.

Was Stock Market, Friday—Favorable Bank Statement Expected.

New York, March 22.—Friday's stock market was still highly professional and there was abnormal activity in stocks which are usually not a figure in the trading. Considerably more attention, however, was given to the representative stocks in the list, which are quite generally higher as a result of the day's trading. In most instances the gains are merely fractional, but in such stocks as St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville, Illinois Central and St. Louis and San Francisco there are substantial net gains recorded. Rock Island moved rapidly upwards in the last hour to 180, a net rise of 7½. Sugar was inclined to be heavy during the early dealings, but became very strong towards the close, rising more than 3 points over Thursday night and closing with a net gain of 2⅜. Amalgamated Copper was heavy all day on a rather smaller volume of dealings than lately, but a late recovery left it only a fraction lower on the day. The speculation in Colorado Fuel continued very active and feverish, the price raising at 1 to 1⅞ over Thursday night and then falling 1⅜ under. Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal were affected in sympathy. The inertia of the United States Steel stocks was undisturbed. There were conspicuous new candidates for buying demand among the less prominent stocks. They were balanced by relapses of 1 to 3 points among stocks of a similar class, which have had previous advances. The local traction stocks were rather dull and heavy. The late rise in the market was to some extent in an expectation of a favorable bank statement today. The banks seem to have gained from all sources during the week nearly half a million dollars. The market closed about steady and near the top.

CLEVELAND IN A QUANDARY.

Indications That the City Might Be Without a Form of Government.

Cleveland, O., March 22.—A Columbus dispatch says that the supreme court judges are practically unanimous for a decision that will knock out the Cleveland federal plan law, and that the decision will be rendered within a few days. Action was brought some time ago by Attorney Charles D. Gibbons and others, in a suit to oust the federal plan on the grounds of unconstitutionality. The decision of the supreme court will be final, and if the petitioners' case is sustained Cleveland will be without any form of government whatever.

In view of this, it is said that strenuous efforts will be made to pass the municipal code bill now before the legislature. Should this bill be held over for an extra session and an adverse decision rendered by the supreme court in the meantime, the city of Cleveland will find itself in a very bad fix.

MAY ACT FINALLY TODAY.

Anthracite Miners Did Not Make Decision Yesterday.

Shamokin, Pa., March 22.—Contrary to expectations the convention of districts Nos. 1, 7 and 9, United Mine Workers of America, failed to reach a determination yesterday concerning the grievances of the anthracite coal miners. Many of the delegates had expected an adjournment and definite action not later than yesterday, but the discussion of the scale committee report was more protracted than was anticipated, and its adoption, entire, had not been accomplished at the hour of adjournment yesterday afternoon.

The committee presented its report to the convention at the afternoon session. President Mitchell announced that a part of the reoprt had been adopted, but failed to state the nature of the clauses accepted. President Mitchell was not certain that the report would be made public in its entirety today, although he stated that he expected final action and adjournment by noon today. There was much uncertainty here last night concerning the situation, and opinion is about equally divided as to whether the convention will declare in favor of drastic measures to secure an adjustment of their grievances.

AIMED AT AMERICANS ALONE,

Are Exclusion of Meats, Preserved With Borax, Said Exporters.

Berlin, March 22.—The criticism made in the United States of the exclusion by Germany of meats preserved with borax is answered here by the statements that the prohibition applies to domestic and foreign meats equally and that American exporters have nothing to complain of that does not apply to German preserved meat dealers.

But the agents here of American meat exporters say that this is no answer at all, because boracic meat preserving is an unknown art in Germany and never likely to be much used, as it is unnecessary to preserve meat that is consumed where it is produced. Besides, they declare the regulations are aimed at America alone and can serve no other object than to prevent American exporters from competing with domestic meat producers.

BAPTISTS SOCIETIES LOSE.

Relatives to Get Land Near Painesville, Left by Gray.

Cleveland, O. March 22.—Judge Wing, of the United States circuit court, yesterday set aside the deeds signed by Martin E. Gray upon his death bed, three years ago, by which title to 285 acres of land near Painesville, valued at over $100,000, was deeded to the American Baptist Home Mission society and the American Baptist Publication society. The property will now revert to the heirs

In the testimony it was alleged that undue influence was used.

CLUB WIRED TO SHARKEY.

Los Angeles People Refuse to Grant Fitzsimmons' Demands.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 22.—The Century Athletic club yesterday wired Tom Sharkey, the pugilist, asking under what terms he would take Fitzsimmons' place and fight Jeffries in this city during the first week in May.

The club has not heard further from Fitzsimmons and refuses to accede to his demands for a larger purse and percentage than they originally offered.

West Virginia Murderer Hanged.

Moundsville, W. Va., March 22.—George Carter, colored, was hanged here last night in the penitentiary for the murder of Virgil Whistler, colored.

ORDERED MEN SHOT.

Witness Testified Officers Told Him Waller Coolly Gave Directions.

MAJOR PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

But He Admitted 11 Men Had Been Killed—After a Communication From General Chaffee, Court Decided It Had Jurisdiction.

Manila, March 22.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Waller and Lieutenant John H. A. Day, of the marine corps, on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, after receiving a communication from General Chaffee yesterday, decided that it had jurisdiction in the case and proceeded to try the accused officers. Major Waller pleaded "not guilty" to the charge of murder, but admitted that 11 men had been killed.

Captain Robert H. Dunlap, of the marine corps, testified that he received information from Lieutenant Gridley and Sergeant Quick regarding the arrival at Cargadores of prisoners, who, while on the march across the island, ate roots and parts of plants and refused to assist the marines by giving them similar food. He reported the facts to Major Waller, who was lying in a cot and who ordered Lieutenant Day to take the prisoners and have them shot.

The witness said Major Waller was not excited and had personally expressed that the men should be shot.

Captain Adolph T. Marix, marine corps, representing Major Waller, objected to the testimony of Dr. Love regarding the sanity of Major Waller at the time, claiming that his fitness for duty was a matter for the defense alone. He conceded that Major Waller gave the orders while in his right senses.

LORD HOPE DIVORCED.

Decree Granted on Elopement of May Yohe With Strong.

London, March 22.—Lord Francis Hope was granted a divorce on the ground of the misconduct of his wife (May Yohe) with Putnam Bradley Strong, of New York.

Counsel for Lord Hope detailed the marriage of his client to May Yohe, their visits to the United States in 1900, the meeting with Strong and the subsequent intimacy of the respondent and co-respondent, ending with their departure for Japan under the name of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith.

Lord Hope, who is still suffering from the amputation of his leg, corroborated counsel's statements. He said he had no suspicion whatever of his wife when he left her alone in a flat in New York. He first noticed a change in her behavior at the end of March, 1901, and in April his wife insisted on a seperation.

Affidavits in proof of the misconduct of Lady Hope were read and the degree was pronounced.

Lady Hope is in Japan with Captain Strong, a son of former Mayor Strong, of New York. She was May Yohe, an actress, before she became Lady Hope.

CLEVELAND NOT TROUBLED.

So Spoke of Recent Attack Upon Him by Mr. Bryan.

Princeton, N. J., March 22.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland was yesterday shown a dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., which said that W. J. Bryan, commenting editorially in The Commoner upon Mr. Cleveland's letter to a Mississippi editor, denounces him as a "traitor, ingrate and political nonenity."

"I am not at all troubled about it," was the only comment Mr. Cleveland would make.

The ex-president was asked what he thought of the prospects of pulling together the Democratic party for the next presidential campaign, and replied:

"I don't know much about it, but there seems to be some efforts in that direction. I wouldn't care to express any further opinion on it at present."

NATIONS AGAIN FRIENDLY.

Further Relations With Mexico Approved by Austrian Congress.

Vienna, March 22.—The government bill arranging for provisional consular and commercial relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico was agreed upon in the upper house of the reichsrath yesterday.

This bill passed the lower house of the reichsrath March 18.

An Austro-Hungarian minister to Mexico was appointed last June. Diplomatic relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico had been interrupted since 1867, the year Emperor Maximilian was shot.

Ruhlin Knocked Out Maher.

Philadelphia March 22.—Peter Maher was knocked out in the second round last night by Gus Ruhlin.

New York, March 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Evidences of further improvement are numerous. Labor controversies are less threatening, many settlements having been effected, while others are momentarily anticipated; wages have been advanced, traffic congestion has subsided until impossible to deliver goods according to specifications; aside from some idle foot wear shops, the leading lines of manufacture are very fully engaged while jobbing trade is of exceptional magnitude. Retail dealings are also very large, the Easter stimulus being felt in all lines of wearing apparel. With domestic demands so vigorous it is especially encouraging to notice a gain for the last week in foreign trade at the principal ports.

Pressure Not Diminished.

Pressure for iron and steel has not diminished perceptibly, yet the impression is growing that after July 1 the situation will become approximately normal and it will be possible to secure deliveries with some degree of promptness. This is the more probable, as there has been a further stiffening of quotations and additional importations, which would have been much larger but for the advance in foreign markets. For some time to come it is probable that foreign commerce exhibits as to this industry will be less satisfactory, but it has been worthy of note that imports are mainly of pig iron, billets and sheets, while the exports of many lines of expensive machinery and other finished products are fully sustained. Large contracts are constantly under consideration for structural material on domestic account, including railway bridges, viaducts, car shops and office buildings.

Woolens Are Quiet.

Woolens are quiet, with only a fair movement of staple lines, though some fancy grades are fully sold and out of the market.

Grain markets have begun to feel the effects of weather reports, and for the next few months it will be a simple matter for speculators to secure erratic fluctuations. Strength was conspicuous on Tuesday, last year's serious injury to corn making quotations particularly sensitive to indications of drouth. Another helpful factor was the increase in exports of wheat and flour to 4,657,625 bushels for the week, against only 2,598,472 last week, and 3,355,098 a year ago. Western receipts continued to make an unfavorable comparison with the movement in 1901, wheat amounting to 2,899,990 bushels, against 4,165,833, and corn 1,460,536, compared with 3,074,011. Atlantic exports of corn increased largely over the low record of the preceding week to 298,884 bushels, and there is still a severe loss as compared with the 2,351,272 bushels shipped a year ago.

Failures for the week numbered 209 in the United States, against 224 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 33 last year.

STILL HIGHLY PROFESSIONAL.

Was Stock Market, Friday—Favorable Bank Statement Expected.

New York, March 22.—Friday's stock market was still highly professional and there was abnormal activity in stocks which are usually not a figure in the trading. Considerably more attention, however, was given to the representative stocks in the list, which are quite generally higher as a result of the day's trading. In most instances the gains are merely fractional, but in such stocks as St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville, Illinois Central and St. Louis and San Francisco there are substantial net gains recorded. Rock Island moved rapidly upwards in the last hour to 180, a net rise of 7½. Sugar was inclined to be heavy during the early dealings, but became very strong towards the close, rising more than 3 points over Thursday night and closing with a net gain of 2⅜. Amalgamated Copper was heavy all day on a rather smaller volume of dealings than lately, but a late recovery left it only a fraction lower on the day. The speculation in Colorado Fuel continued very active and feverish, the price raising at 1 to 1⅞ over Thursday night and then falling 1⅜ under. Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal were affected in sympathy. The inertia of the United States Steel stocks was undisturbed. There were conspicuous new candidates for buying demand among the less prominent stocks. They were balanced by relapses of 1 to 3 points among stocks of a similar class, which have had previous advances. The local traction stocks were rather dull and heavy. The late rise in the market was to some extent in an expectation of a favorable bank statement today. The banks seem to have gained from all sources during the week nearly half a million dollars. The market closed about steady and near the top.

CLEVELAND IN A QUANDARY.

Indications That the City Might Be Without a Form of Government.

Cleveland, O., March 22.—A Columbus dispatch says that the supreme court judges are practically unanimous for a decision that will knock out the Cleveland federal plan law, and that the decision will be rendered within a few days. Action was brought some time ago by Attorney Charles D. Gibbons and others, in a suit to oust the federal plan on the grounds of unconstitutionality. The decision of the supreme court will be final, and if the petitioners' case is sustained Cleveland will be without any form of government whatever.

In view of this, it is said that strenuous efforts will be made to pass the municipal code bill now before the legislature. Should this bill be held over for an extra session and an adverse decision rendered by the supreme court in the meantime, the city of Cleveland will find itself in a very bad fix.

MAY ACT FINALLY TODAY.

Anthracite Miners Did Not Make Decision Yesterday.

Shamokin, Pa., March 22.—Contrary to expectations the convention of districts Nos. 1, 7 and 9, United Mine Workers of America, failed to reach a determination yesterday concerning the grievances of the anthracite coal miners. Many of the delegates had expected an adjournment and definite action not later than yesterday, but the discussion of the scale committee report was more protracted than was anticipated, and its adoption, entire, had not been accomplished at the hour of adjournment yesterday afternoon.

The committee presented its report to the convention at the afternoon session. President Mitchell announced that a part of the reoprt had been adopted, but failed to state the nature of the clauses accepted. President Mitchell was not certain that the report would be made public in its entirety today, although he stated that he expected final action and adjournment by noon today. There was much uncertainty here last night concerning the situation, and opinion is about equally divided as to whether the convention will declare in favor of drastic measures to secure an adjustment of their grievances.

AIMED AT AMERICANS ALONE,

Are Exclusion of Meats, Preserved With Borax, Said Exporters.

Berlin, March 22.—The criticism made in the United States of the exclusion by Germany of meats preserved with borax is answered here by the statements that the prohibition applies to domestic and foreign meats equally and that American exporters have nothing to complain of that does not apply to German preserved meat dealers.

But the agents here of American meat exporters say that this is no answer at all, because boracic meat preserving is an unknown art in Germany and never likely to be much used, as it is unnecessary to preserve meat that is consumed where it is produced. Besides, they declare the regulations are aimed at America alone and can serve no other object than to prevent American exporters from competing with domestic meat producers.

BAPTISTS SOCIETIES LOSE.

Relatives to Get Land Near Painesville, Left by Gray.

Cleveland, O. March 22.—Judge Wing, of the United States circuit court, yesterday set aside the deeds signed by Martin E. Gray upon his death bed, three years ago, by which title to 285 acres of land near Painesville, valued at over $100,000, was deeded to the American Baptist Home Mission society and the American Baptist Publication society. The property will now revert to the heirs.

In the testimony it was alleged that undue influence was used.

CLUB WIRED TO SHARKEY.

Los Angeles People Refuse to Grant Fitzsimmons' Demands.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 22.—The Century Athletic club yesterday wired Tom Sharkey, the pugilist, asking under what terms he would take Fitzsimmons' place and fight Jeffries in this city during the first week in May.

The club has not heard further from Fitzsimmons and refuses to accede to his demands for a larger purse and percentage than they originally offered.

Moundsville, W. Va., March 22.—George Carter, colored, was hanged here last night in the penitentiary for the murder of Virgil Whistler, colored.

ORDERED MEN SHOT.

MAJOR PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

But He Admitted 11 Men Had Been Killed—After a Communication From General Chaffee, Court Decided It Had Jurisdiction.

Manila, March 22.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Waller and Lieutenant John H. A. Day, of the marine corps, on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, after receiving a communication from General Chaffee yesterday, decided that it had jurisdiction in the case and proceeded to try the accused officers. Major Waller pleaded "not guilty" to the charge of murder, but admitted that 11 men had been killed.

Captain Robert H. Dunlap, of the marine corps, testified that he received information from Lieutenant Gridley and Sergeant Quick regarding the arrival at Cargadores of prisoners, who, while on the march across the island, ate roots and parts of plants and refused to assist the marines by giving them similar food. He reported the facts to Major Waller, who was lying in a cot and who ordered Lieutenant Day to take the prisoners and have them shot.

The witness said Major Waller was not excited and had personally expressed that the men should be shot.

Captain Adolph T. Marix, marine corps, representing Major Waller, objected to the testimony of Dr. Love regarding the sanity of Major Waller at the time, claiming that his fitness for duty was a matter for the defense alone. He conceded that Major Waller gave the orders while in his right senses.

LORD HOPE DIVORCED.

Decree Granted on Elopement of May Yohe With Strong.

London, March 22.—Lord Francis Hope was granted a divorce on the ground of the misconduct of his wife (May Yohe) with Putnam Bradley Strong, of New York.

Counsel for Lord Hope detailed the marriage of his client to May Yohe, their visits to the United States in 1900, the meeting with Strong and the subsequent intimacy of the respondent and co-respondent, ending with their departure for Japan under the name of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith.

Lord Hope, who is still suffering from the amputation of his leg, corroborated counsel's statements. He said he had no suspicion whatever of his wife when he left her alone in a flat in New York. He first noticed a change in her behavior at the end of March, 1901, and in April his wife insisted on a seperation.

Affidavits in proof of the misconduct of Lady Hope were read and the degree was pronounced.

Lady Hope is in Japan with Captain Strong, a son of former Mayor Strong, of New York. She was May Yohe, an actress, before she became Lady Hope.

CLEVELAND NOT TROUBLED.

So Spoke of Recent Attack Upon Him by Mr. Bryan.

Princeton, N. J., March 22.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland was yesterday shown a dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., which said that W. J. Bryan, commenting editorially in The Commoner upon Mr. Cleveland's letter to a Mississippi editor, denounces him as a "traitor, ingrate and political nonenity."

"I am not at all troubled about it," was the only comment Mr. Cleveland would make.

The ex-president was asked what he thought of the prospects of pulling together the Democratic party for the next presidential campaign, and replied:

"I don't know much about it, but there seems to be some efforts in that direction. I wouldn't care to express any further opinion on it at present."

NATIONS AGAIN FRIENDLY.

Further Relations With Mexico Approved by Austrian Congress.

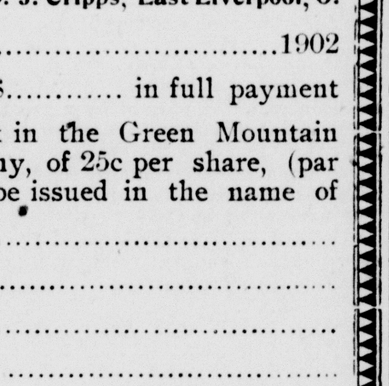

Vienna, March 22.—The government bill arranging for provisional consular and commercial relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico was agreed upon in the upper house of the reichsrath yesterday.

This bill passed the lower house of the reichsrath March 18.

An Austro-Hungarian minister to Mexico was appointed last June. Diplomatic relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico had been interrupted since 1867, the year Emperor Maximilian was shot.

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Experiences of Some of Our Wealthiest Men—Good Health the Keynote.

Success does not follow ill health: on the contrary, it takes good health to make one successful. A good appetite, ability to sleep soundly all night long, and arise feeling rested and refreshed, with a body that has no pains or aches, and a clear brain, full of vim, ideas and insight into business, is what make success. The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors, Havemeyers, and a long list of others that we could name, attribute their wealth and success in business to long hours and hard work, which were made possible by good health. Bad health is the cause of more failures in business than anything else. "Blood Wine" keeps the health good. It cleanses every particle of blood that flows through your veins. It abstracts the impurities and germs, forces them out of the body, and leaves only the pure, rich blood, which feeds the weakened tissues, and keeps one in good health. "Blood Wine" will give you a clear brain, so that you can think, reason, plan, and succeed. It enables you to grasp a situation quickly, to understand clearly. It takes every ache and pain out of your system, and transforms every organ of your body to its normal healthy condition. Blood Wine contains no wine or opiates, simply medicines of wonderful curative characteristics that never disappoint.

In the business world "Blood Wine" is a great favorite with both men and women. Storekeepers, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, lawyers, clergymen, and all requiring a powerful agent to clear the brain, and aid them in business, take it.

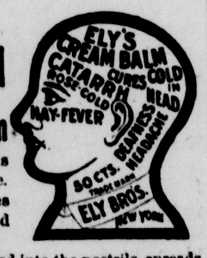

Mrs. Annie Morgan of Waterville, Me., says: "I think it is my duty to let you know what benefit I have derived from taking your "Blood Wine." I have taken one bottle and a half, and feel wonderfully better. My appetite is improved; I do not suffer nearly so much, for I was all run down and felt tired all the time, and my brain seemed clouded. Your "Blood Wine" has benefited me so much that I feel grateful to have found it, and I can heartily recommend it to any one who is suffering from loss of appetite, nervousness, and all trouble arising from poor digestion, overwork, and a run-down condition in general."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug-stores.

THEATRICAL BUDGET

Ludwig Fulda's "The Twin Sister" Not a Clean Play.

WHOLE MORAL TONE IS FALSE.

Excellent Acting of Charles Richman—The Richepin-Belasco Squabble Over "Du Barry"—Maude Adams' Plans For the Summer.

The Empire theater company has made its second offering of the season, selecting as its vehicle Louis N. Parker's translation of Ludwig Fulda's four act "comedy," "The Twin Sister." This play is a comedy only in the technical sense that all ends well. To me it is a high grade melodrama "with a purpose." It is true that the purpose appears to be to endeavor to demonstrate that a woman can retain a man's love only by constant appeals to his baser passions, but the "purpose" is there nevertheless.

CHARLES RICHMAN AS ORLANDO IN "THE TWIN SISTER."

"The Twin Sister" deals with Orlando and his wife Giuditta, a couple of wealth and refinement. Orlando no longer cares for the society of his spouse, and she, noting his indifference, is sorely distressed. Orlando is moody until a roue of a friend suggests that he should see more of the many pretty women about him and to that end should induce his wife to make a trip to any place he can think of. Orlando promptly takes a portion of his friend's advice by making love to the stupid but pretty wife of his huntsman. Giuditta enters in time to see her husband kiss the woman, but wisely does not let him know that he has been detected.

She decides to resort to artifice. She receives a letter from her twin sister, whom her husband has never seen, announcing that she is about to visit her. Giuditta offers to postpone her visit to her mother, but Orlando protests that the sister probably will not arrive for some time. Giuditta sets off on her trip, but goes only far enough to find a place where she may change her habiliments and bleach her hair, that she may the more closely resemble her sister, between whom and her there is a startling likeness. She immediately returns as her own sister. Her husband, Orlando, is completely mystified, but very promptly accepts his own wife as her twin and, worse still, encouraged by her little artifices, makes violent love to her. The end is clear. She yields sufficiently to make him still more eager and then puts him off for a day. The real sister turns up, and all is well.

Without going into details, which, by the way, would be a difficult thing to do if one would have any regard for the usual amenities of polite society, it will be seen that the tone of "The Twin Sister" is false. It teaches just what civilization is trying to combat—that the physical, and not the spiritual, should dominate the relations between man and wife.

The cast of "The Twin Sister," as was to be expected, was an excellent one. Charles Richman was a manly and dignified yet at times impetuous Orlando. Margaret Anglin was fairly good as Giuditta, and the minor roles were acceptably carried off by the other members of the really strong stock company attached to the Empire theater.

The thoroughly veracious gentlemen to whom we are indebted through the kindly medium of the Atlantic cables for redhot theatrical news from Europe are as a class the greatest humorists connected with the American press. They vary the monotony of cabling to this country "news" which was sent broadcast throughout the United States weeks before by taxing their employers 10 cents a word for the privilege of printing announcements of changes in plans which were never formulated.

Now, for instance, we are sagely and apparently seriously told via London that Maude Adams is not to appear there in "Quality Street," her manager preferring that she go to France immediately upon the close of her tour here. The visit to France is ostensibly for rest, and therefore it is a trifle funny to read in the next sentence that, Miss Adams being in France, there will be greater opportunity for perfecting arrangements for the not yet abandoned plan of presenting "Romeo and Juliet" in Paris, Mme. Bernhardt being the Romeo and Miss Adams the Juliet. It is further casually mentioned that in the event of this production Miss Adams will study her role in French. I am not a prophet, but I do not hesitate to predict that Miss Adams' vacation next summer is not likely to be interfered with by her French studies.

It would seem to be pretty safe to assert that among the London correspondents of the New York papers which devote considerable spacé to theatrical matters there are at least a couple of embryo P. T. Barnums—men who believe that the American public likes to be humbugged.

There bids fair to be a very pretty quarrel between David Belasco and Jean Richepin, the French author, over the play "Du Barry," in which Mrs. Leslie Carter has been enormously successful at the Criterion theater, in this city. It is conceded that Mr. Belasco a couple of years ago contracted with M. Richepin to write a play based on the career of Mme. Du Barry. This was intended for the use of Mrs. Leslie Carter. Mr. Belasco paid a sum of money in advance and later made two additional payments. Just prior to sending Richepin the last installment Belasco claims to have discovered that the play "La Du Barry" was not original. He thereupon returned the manuscript to the author, who acknowledges having received it. It is Belasco's contention that this act of his, to use the vernacular, "let Richepin out" so far as royalties are concerned.

When Belasco later wrote his play "Du Barry" for Mrs. Carter, Richepin for some reason feared that he might have used material taken from "La Du Barry." Upon the production of the former melodrama Richepin's agents declare that they discovered points of similarity which would prompt a court to decide that Richepin was entitled to royalties as originally agreed upon. Suit was accordingly entered.

Belasco does not appear to permit accusations of this sort to worry him and in speaking of the matter is reported to have said:

"I have not had much to say about Mr. Richepin's charges, although he and his agent have kept them constantly before the public, but I have always said that when the proper time came I would be fully vindicated. I now intend to make a fight to the end.

"I have a copy of the book from which we allege Mr. Richepin's play was taken. In due time it will be introduced in evidence. Until the case is in court I shall not tell what it is.

"But the matter will not be permitted to rest with the trial of this suit in America. I have retained Coudert Bros. in Paris to bring the matter to the attention of the Authors' society, charging that Mr. Richepin appropriated the work of a fellow author. We shall have plenty of proof, and when we are through the public will realize that I was the one who was wronged, because I paid $3,500 for something which did not prove to be what I had paid for."

Until the case has been tried it will of course be impossible to ascertain the merits of the case. Richepin stands high in the French literary world, and, no matter what the outcome, it would be a difficult matter to make any one believe that Richepin does not conscientiously regard himself as having been wronged. On the other hand, it is probable that Belasco feels that he has been treated badly by the Frenchman, just as he felt a short time ago that he did not get fair play in the matter of "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch," produced by Mrs. Fiske at the Manhattan theater in this city. Mrs. Burton Harrison was named in the advertisements as the author, though Mr. Belasco stoutly asserted that he was largely responsible for the play, which

Courtship In China.

A curious custom prevails at Huayning-hsien, in Kwangsi. On the fifteenth day of the first month in each year all the young ladies and gentlemen take a walk to the Yenyen mountain. Each damsel carries a little box, which she deposits at the foot of the hill. Any young gentleman desirous of entering the bonds of matrimony may select one of the boxes and take it away with him, whereupon the fair owner of the box makes herself known, and an acquaintanceship is thus formed. Ill assorted matches are not likely to occur, as this custom is observed only among the well to do classes of society.

How He Saved Him.

They were speaking of a certain physician favorably occasionally, but mostly otherwise. Finally one of the party spoke of the good qualities of the absent doctor and said his life had once been saved by the much criticised practitioner.

"How is that?" some one asked. "I did not know he usually treated you."

"No, he does not," said the man, "but one day when my family physician was out of town I was suddenly taken ill and sent for this fellow in the emergency, and he couldn't come."

Excellent Acting of Charles Richman—The Richepin-Belasco Squabble Over "Du Barry"—Maude Adams' Plans For the Summer.

The Empire theater company has made its second offering of the season, selecting as its vehicle Louis N. Parker's translation of Ludwig Fulda's four act "comedy," "The Twin Sister." This play is a comedy only in the technical sense that all ends well. To me it is a high grade melodrama "with a purpose." It is true that the purpose appears to be to endeavor to demonstrate that a woman can retain a man's love only by constant appeals to his baser passions, but the "purpose" is there nevertheless.

CHARLES RICHMAN AS ORLANDO IN "THE TWIN SISTER."

"The Twin Sister" deals with Orlando and his wife Giuditta, a couple of wealth and refinement. Orlando no longer cares for the society of his spouse, and she, noting his indifference, is sorely distressed. Orlando is moody until a roue of a friend suggests that he should see more of the many pretty women about him and to that end should induce his wife to make a trip to any place he can think of. Orlando promptly takes a portion of his friend's advice by making love to the stupid but pretty wife of his huntsman. Giuditta enters in time to see her husband kiss the woman, but wisely does not let him know that he has been detected.

She decides to resort to artifice. She receives a letter from her twin sister, whom her husband has never seen, announcing that she is about to visit her. Giuditta offers to postpone her visit to her mother, but Orlando protests that the sister probably will not arrive for some time. Giuditta sets off on her trip, but goes only far enough to find a place where she may change her habiliments and bleach her hair, that she may the more closely resemble her sister, between whom and her there is a startling likeness. She immediately returns as her own sister. Her husband, Orlando, is completely mystified, but very promptly accepts his own wife as her twin and, worse still, encouraged by her little artifices, makes violent love to her. The end is clear. She yields sufficiently to make him still more eager and then puts him off for a day. The real sister turns up, and all is well.

Without going into details, which, by the way, would be a difficult thing to do if one would have any regard for the usual amenities of polite society, it will be seen that the tone of "The Twin Sister" is false. It teaches just what civilization is trying to combat—that the physical, and not the spiritual, should dominate the relations between man and wife.

The cast of "The Twin Sister," as was to be expected, was an excellent one. Charles Richman was a manly and dignified yet at times impetuous Orlando. Margaret Anglin was fairly good as Giuditta, and the minor roles were acceptably carried off by the other members of the really strong stock company attached to the Empire theater.

The thoroughly veracious gentlemen to whom we are indebted through the kindly medium of the Atlantic cables for redhot theatrical news from Europe are as a class the greatest humorists connected with the American press. They vary the monotony of cabling to this country "news" which was sent broadcast throughout the United States weeks before by taxing their employers 10 cents a word for the privilege of printing announcements of changes in plans which were never formulated.

Now, for instance, we are sagely and apparently seriously told via London that Maude Adams is not to appear there in "Quality Street," her manager preferring that she go to France immediately upon the close of her tour here. The visit to France is ostensibly for rest, and therefore it is a trifle funny to read in the next sentence that, Miss Adams being in France, there will be greater opportunity for perfecting arrangements for the not yet abandoned plan of presenting "Romeo and Juliet" in Paris. Mme. Bernhardt being the Romeo and Miss Adams the Juliet. It is further casually mentioned that in the event of this production Miss Adams will study her role in French. I am not a prophet, but I do not hesitate to predict that Miss Adams' vacation next summer is not likely to be interfered with by her French studies.

It would seem to be pretty safe to assert that among the London correspondents of the New York papers which devote considerable spacé to theatrical matters there are at least a couple of embryo P. T. Barnums—men who believe that the American public likes to be humbugged.

There bids fair to be a very pretty quarrel between David Belasco and Jean Richepin, the French author, over the play "Du Barry," in which Mrs. Leslie Carter has been enormously successful at the Criterion theater, in this city. It is conceded that Mr. Belasco a couple of years ago contracted with M. Richepin to write a play based on the career of Mme. Du Barry. This was intended for the use of Mrs. Leslie Carter. Mr. Belasco paid a sum of money in advance and later made two additional payments. Just prior to sending Richepin the last installment Belasco claims to have discovered that the play "La Du Barry" was not original. He thereupon returned the manuscript to the author, who acknowledges having received it. It is Belasco's contention that this act of his, to use the vernacular, "let Richepin out" so far as royalties are concerned.

When Belasco later wrote his play "Du Barry" for Mrs. Carter, Richepin for some reason feared that he might have used material taken from "La Du Barry." Upon the production of the former melodrama Richepin's agents declare that they discovered points of similarity which would prompt a court to decide that Richepin was entitled to royalties as originally agreed upon. Suit was accordingly entered.

Belasco does not appear to permit accusations of this sort to worry him and in speaking of the matter is reported to have said:

"I have not had much to say about Mr. Richepin's charges, although he and his agent have kept them constantly before the public, but I have always said that when the proper time came I would be fully vindicated. I now intend to make a fight to the end.

"I have a copy of the book from which we allege Mr. Richepin's play was taken. In due time it will be introduced in evidence. Until the case is in court I shall not tell what it is.

"But the matter will not be permitted to rest with the trial of this suit in America. I have retained Coudert Bros. in Paris to bring the matter to the attention of the Authors' society, charging that Mr. Richepin appropriated the work of a fellow author. We shall have plenty of proof, and when we are through the public will realize that I was the one who was wronged, because I paid $3,500 for something which did not prove to be what I had paid for."

Until the case has been tried it will of course be impossible to ascertain the merits of the case. Richepin stands high in the French literary world, and, no matter what the outcome, it would be a difficult matter to make any one believe that Richepin does not conscientiously regard himself as having been wronged. On the other hand, it is probable that Belasco feels that he has been treated badly by the Frenchman, just as he felt a short time ago that he did not get fair play in the matter of "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch," produced by Mrs. Fiske at the Manhattan theater in this city. Mrs. Burton Harrison was named in the advertisements as the author, though Mr. Belasco stoutly asserted that he was largely responsible for the play, which Mrs. Harrison disposed of to Mrs. Fiske and upon which she regularly drew her royalties, which she did not divide with Mr. Belasco.

Courtship In China.

A curious custom prevails at Huayning-hsien, in Kwangsi. On the fifteenth day of the first month in each year all the young ladies and gentlemen take a walk to the Yenyen mountain. Each damsel carries a little box, which she deposits at the foot of the hill. Any young gentleman desirous of entering the bonds of matrimony may select one of the boxes and take it away with him, whereupon the fair owner of the box makes herself known, and an acquaintanceship is thus formed. Ill assorted matches are not likely to occur, as this custom is observed only among the well to do classes of society.

How He Saved Him.

They were speaking of a certain physician favorably occasionally, but mostly otherwise. Finally one of the party spoke of the good qualities of the absent doctor and said his life had once been saved by the much criticised practitioner.

"How is that?" some one asked. "I did not know he usually treated you."

"No, he does not," said the man, "but one day when my family physician was out of town I was suddenly taken ill and sent for this fellow in the emergency, and he couldn't come."

Large Family.

Patsy Dooley was a very poor arithmetician and was puzzled by a great many questions of numbers which did not enter other people's heads.

One day a new acquaintance remarked in his presence:

"I have eight brothers."

"Ye have eight brothers?" said Patsy. "Then I suppose ivery wan o' thim has eight brothers too?"

"Certainly."

"Arrah, thin," said Patsy, "how many mothers had the sixty-foor o' ye?"

JONES ON JUMPING

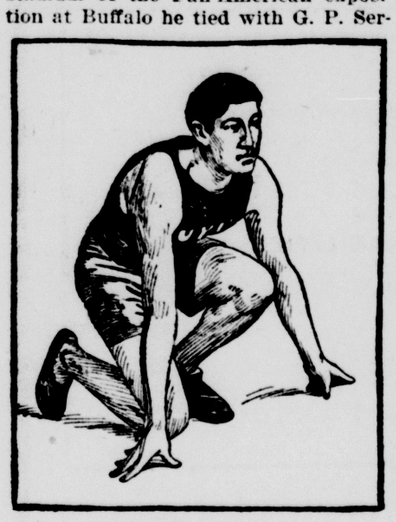

World's Greatest High Bar Skimmer Tells Methods.

It Is Very Important to Strike the Takeoff Properly—Maintain Perfect Balance When Clearing the Bar. How to Train.

America has produced another phenomenal high jumper in Samuel S. Jones of the New York Athletic club and the New York university. He is considered a worthy successor of M. F. Sweeney, and his friends look to see him break Sweeney's great record of 6 feet 5⅝ inches before he retires from competition.

Jones has won interscholastic, intercollegiate, metropolitan and American championships, and last summer in the stadium of the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo he tied with G. P. Serviss, Jr., of Cornell, with a jump of 6 feet 3 inches, for the world's championship.

Despite his great height, 6 feet 3½ inches, Jones is well proportioned. He has often been compared to Sweeney in this respect.

Jones speaks on the subject of high jumping as follows:

"One of the main things in jumping is to get a good run and strike the takeoff properly. To know the exact spot to take off is absolutely necessary, and the run must be measured so that you will strike within six inches of this spot. I found the takeoff by facing the bar and raising my right leg. When you can stand on one foot and touch the bar with your right toe, you have found the proper takeoff for the height you have measured.

"The distance of the run varies with different men. I find that fifty feet suits me, and I measure it by taking fifteen strides from my takeoff. The importance of the takeoff can be realized when it is stated that you cannot put your whole mind on the spring unless the takeoff is a perfect one.

"The first part of the jump is comparatively easy. You go almost straight up in the air. It is the second part, called the second hitch, that is hard to acquire. With this hitch you turn the body toward the right until you practically face the bar while falling. The second hitch is really a sort of snap forward that carries the body across the bar. It gets the hip, shoulder and right arm out of the way and really makes possible the great performances of the present day. Without this hitch very few men could ever have cleared six feet.

"Another essential is a perfect balance while sailing across the bar. This is only acquired by constant practice. It is quite a knack to get the right arm out of the way. Many a good jump has been spoiled by the inability of the athlete to do this. But for my arm dragging a bit I would have been credited last summer with a jump of 6 feet 6½ inches, for my body was entirely over the bar. The arm should be got out of the way when the second hitch is made.

"The training of a high jumper is rather more scientific than training for other events in athletics. A jumper really nurses his muscles into condition. To develop the spring is the main thing, and this is done by very light training, plenty of rubbing and a good deal of rest. Sweeney lay in bed for the most part of several days before he made his great record jump.

"When in training, practice every other day. For the first week or two I content myself each time I train with clearing 5 feet 3 inches several times in succession. After that I gradually raise the bar until I am doing 5 feet 7 inches without much effort."

Why Uncle Sam SHOULD NOT Own the Telegraph

By Congressman CHARLES H. GROSVENOR of Ohio

GOVERNMENT ownership of the telegraph is utterly impracticable and wholly inadvisable. ONE EXCELLENT REASON WHY THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT OWN THE TELEGRAPH SYSTEM IS THAT IT WOULD CAUSE AND NECESSITATE A GREAT STANDING ARMY OF EMPLOYEES. This would be bad in principle, and it would be ruinous financially in practice. The experience of England with government ownership should be enough to satisfy this country that it would be a great mistake. Since England, as large as the state of Ohio, began the experiment her telegraph system has cost her £40,000,000. How large a deficit may it be supposed that this country, 4,000 miles wide, would soon have?

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IN A FREE COUNTRY ANY INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM SHOULD BE UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

This project would mean that the nine people in ten who do not use the telegraph would have to be taxed to pay for a system for the benefit of the other tenth of the population.

It has been argued that because the postal system of the government has proved successful the telegraph system should also be owned by the nation. The postal system is a fine one, but I can demonstrate that nearly every improvement that has taken place in it, if not all of them, since my father paid 25 cents to send a letter has come because of private competition and enterprise.

HIS HORSES WERE WOODEN

But All the Same He Had to Pay For a Livery License.

As "his honor" sat on the bench from which even handed justice was dispensed in the town of Lavilla, which flourished way down in Florida before the days of Greater Jacksonville, he was amazed to note among the prisoners at the bar a "paleface."

Casting the eagle eye of the law over the room, he was agitated still more to observe a "biled" shirt and standing collar and that these were worn by another white man.

The marshal, being called on, explained that one white gentleman was arrested by him for running a "flying jinny" without a license, and the other was his lawyer. To a man cast in a less heroic mold than the mayor such complete smashing of all records and invading of precedent would have been a Waterloo. A white man arrested in Lavilla and a lawyer appearing to plead in its court! To what are we coming?

Repressing all signs of such a strain on his judicial composure, the mayor announced that to fittingly mark so great an occasion he would disregard the calendar and take up the white man's case first.

The lawyer demanded the immediate discharge of the prisoner on the ground that there was no ordinance requiring "flying jinny" to pay a license and threw the court on its "beam ends" by asking for a copy of the ordinance book.

No one had seen it in years. Many doubted if there had ever been one. A whispered consultation was held between the mayor and the marshal and a search instituted which revealed the book, with a brick on top of it, supplying the place of a missing leg of the stove.

After looking vainly through the book for law on "flying jinnies" his honor delivered judgment as follows:

"Ordinance No. 11 requires all keepers of livery stables to pay a license of $10 and imposes a fine of twice the amount for running without a license. The defendant must pay both the fine and the license."

"But," objected the lawyer, "this man don't run a livery stable; he runs a 'flying jinny.'"

"He keeps horses for hire, doesn't he?"

"Yes, but they are wooden horses, and he charges a nickel for one ride."

"The ordinance makes no fine distinction. It says livery stables require a license. A livery stable is a place where horses are kept for hire. It makes no difference whether they are wooden horses or 'meat' horses. Next case, Mr. Marshal."—New York Mail and Express.

Stable of Great Pacers.

W. L. Snow of Hornellsville, N. Y., has in his string the pacers Hal B., 2:01¼; Fanny Dillard, 2:06¼; Charley Hoyt, 2:06½, and Council Chimes, 2:07½. That would seem to be an embarrass du riche for the fast pacing classes.

Stone Throwing.

A propensity to throw stones regardless of consequences has been one of the earliest signs of natural depravity among men since time began and, we fear, must continue that way until the millennium ushers in the era when bad boys are no more and stones are confined to their proper and legitimate uses.

Anyway, the mischief wrought by this vicious and execrable habit looms up into serious proportions when the figures are given out by plate glass insurance men showing that it costs not less than $250,000 a year to make good the losses thus caused by reckless boys in this country alone.

With stone throwing costing $250,000 a year, carelessness in setting fires costing hundreds of millions more and heedless accidents causing immense sacrifice of property, the good people have many bills to foot which ought not to be theirs.—Leslie's Weekly.

The Coffee Heart.

The largest part of the coffee grown in the world is consumed in the United States, and some of our life insurance societies are beginning to realize how its excessive use increases the risks of life. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart, and medical examiners for insurance companies have added the term "coffee heart" to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. These physicians advise that the use of coffee be limited to not more than two cups a day. Coffee topers, they say, are plentiful and are as much tied to their cups as the whisky toper. The effect of the coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor.—Detroit Free Press.

Umbrella Inconsistencies.

"There's something remarkable about this umbrella," said Jawleigh, exhibiting the antique handle.

"I suppose," remarked his friend, "you refer to the fact that while your name is John Anderson Jawleigh the monogram is F. L. T.? Nothing peculiar about that at all, sir."—Baltimore News.

THEY ALL SAY SO

Not Only In East Liverpool, But In Every City and Town In the Union.

If the reader took the time and trouble to ask his fellow residents of East Liverpool the simple question given below, he would obtain the one answer. If he would read the statements now being published in East Liverpool, which refer to this answer, it would surprise him to know that they number so many. As many more could be, and may be, published, but in the meantime ask the first person you meet what cures backache? The answer will be, Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a citizen who endorses our claim.

Mr. B. H. Hawkins, an employe of Sebring's pottery who resides at 234 Second street, says: "I had been taking medicine for my kidneys right along, and if I had found a cure I would have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled two years or more with distressing backache across the loins, a steady, aching pain with a quick twinge now and then while stooping or lifting that felt as if a sharp instrument had pierced my back, and the secretions of the kidneys were highly colored, feverish or slightly scalding. Work seemed to be a drag. I had no energy and I am more than thankful that I was induced to go to the W. & W. pharmacy and get Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them there was no sign of my old complaint."

America has produced another phenomenal high jumper in Samuel S. Jones of the New York Athletic club and the New York university. He is considered a worthy successor of M. F. Sweeney, and his friends look to see him break Sweeney's great record of 6 feet 5⅝ inches before he retires from competition.

Jones has won interscholastic, intercollegiate, metropolitan and American championships, and last summer in the stadium of the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo he tied with G. P. Serviss, Jr., of Cornell, with a jump of 6 feet 3 inches, for the world's championship.

Despite his great height, 6 feet 3½ inches, Jones is well proportioned. He has often been compared to Sweeney in this respect.

Jones speaks on the subject of high jumping as follows:

"One of the main things in jumping is to get a good run and strike the takeoff properly. To know the exact spot to take off is absolutely necessary, and the run must be measured so that you will strike within six inches of this spot. I found the takeoff by facing the bar and raising my right leg. When you can stand on one foot and touch the bar with your right toe, you have found the proper takeoff for the height you have measured.

"The distance of the run varies with different men. I find that fifty feet suits me, and I measure it by taking fifteen strides from my takeoff. The importance of the takeoff can be realized when it is stated that you cannot put your whole mind on the spring unless the takeoff is a perfect one.

"The first part of the jump is comparatively easy. You go almost straight up in the air. It is the second part, called the second hitch, that is hard to acquire. With this hitch you turn the body toward the right until you practically face the bar while falling. The second hitch is really a sort of snap forward that carries the body across the bar. It gets the hip, shoulder and right arm out of the way and really makes possible the great performances of the present day. Without this hitch very few men could ever have cleared six feet.

"Another essential is a perfect balance while sailing across the bar. This is only acquired by constant practice. It is quite a knack to get the right arm out of the way. Many a good jump has been spoiled by the inability of the athlete to do this. But for my arm dragging a bit I would have been credited last summer with a jump of 6 feet 6½ inches, for my body was entirely over the bar. The arm should be got out of the way when the second hitch is made.

"The training of a high jumper is rather more scientific than training for other events in athletics. A jumper really nurses his muscles into condition. To develop the spring is the main thing, and this is done by very light training, plenty of rubbing and a good deal of rest. Sweeney lay in bed for the most part of several days before he made his great record jump.

"When in training, practice every other day. For the first week or two I content myself each time I train with clearing 5 feet 3 inches several times in succession. After that I gradually raise the bar until I am doing 5 feet 7 inches without much effort."

If the reader took the time and trouble to ask his fellow residents of East Liverpool the simple question given below, he would obtain the one answer. If he would read the statements now being published in East Liverpool, which refer to this answer, it would surprise him to know that they number so many. As many more could be, and may be, published, but in the meantime ask the first person you meet what cures backache? The answer will be, Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a citizen who endorses our claim.

Mr. B. H. Hawkins, an employe of Sebring's pottery who resides at 234 Second street, says: "I had been taking medicine for my kidneys right along, and if I had found a cure I would have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled two years or more with distressing backache across the loins, a steady, aching pain with a quick twinge now and then while stooping or lifting that felt as if a sharp instrument had pierced my back, and the secretions of the kidneys were highly colored, feverish or slightly scalding. Work seemed to be a drag. I had no energy and I am more than thankful that I was induced to go to the W. & W. pharmacy and get Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them there was no sign of my old complaint."

By Congressman CHARLES H. GROSVENOR of Ohio

GOVERNMENT ownership of the telegraph is utterly impracticable and wholly inadvisable. ONE EXCELLENT REASON WHY THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT OWN THE TELEGRAPH SYSTEM IS THAT IT WOULD CAUSE AND NECESSITATE A GREAT STANDING ARMY OF EMPLOYEES. This would be bad in principle, and it would be ruinous financially in practice. The experience of England with government ownership should be enough to satisfy this country that it would be a great mistake. Since England, as large as the state of Ohio, began the experiment her telegraph system has cost her £40,000,000. How large a deficit may it be supposed that this country, 4,000 miles wide, would soon have?

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IN A FREE COUNTRY ANY INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM SHOULD BE UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

This project would mean that the nine people in ten who do not use the telegraph would have to be taxed to pay for a system for the benefit of the other tenth of the population.

It has been argued that because the postal system of the government has proved successful the telegraph system should also be owned by the nation. The postal system is a fine one, but I can demonstrate that nearly every improvement that has taken place in it, if not all of them, since my father paid 25 cents to send a letter has come because of private competition and enterprise.

Stable of Great Pacers.

W. L. Snow of Hornellsville, N. Y., has in his string the pacers Hal B., 2:04¼; Fanny Dillard, 2:06¼; Charley Hoyt, 2:06½, and Council Chimes, 2:07½. That would seem to be an embarrass du riche for the fast pacing classes.

Stone Throwing.

A propensity to throw stones regardless of consequences has been one of the earliest signs of natural depravity among men since time began and, we fear, must continue that way until the millennium ushers in the era when bad boys are no more and stones are confined to their proper and legitimate uses.

Anyway, the mischief wrought by this vicious and execrable habit looms up into serious proportions when the figures are given out by plate glass insurance men showing that it costs not less than $250,000 a year to make good the losses thus caused by reckless boys in this country alone.

With stone throwing costing $250,000 a year, carelessness in setting fires costing hundreds of millions more and heedless accidents causing immense sacrifice of property, the good people have many bills to foot which ought not to be theirs.—Leslie's Weekly.

The Coffee Heart.

The largest part of the coffee grown in the world is consumed in the United States, and some of our life insurance societies are beginning to realize how its excessive use increases the risks of life. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart, and medical examiners for insurance companies have added the term "coffee heart" to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. These physicians advise that the use of coffee be limited to not more than two cups a day. Coffee topers, they say, are plentiful and are as much tied to their cups as the whisky toper. The effect of the coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor.—Detroit Free Press.

Umbrella Inconsistencies.

"There's something remarkable about this umbrella," said Jawleigh, exhibiting the antique handle.

"I suppose," remarked his friend, "you refer to the fact that while your name is John Anderson Jawleigh the monogram is F. L. T.? Nothing peculiar about that at all, sir."—Baltimore News.

HIS HORSES WERE WOODEN

But All the Same He Had to Pay For a Livery License.

As "his honor" sat on the bench from which even handed justice was dispensed in the town of Lavilla, which flourished way down in Florida before the days of Greater Jacksonville, he was amazed to note among the prisoners at the bar a "paleface."

Casting the eagle eye of the law over the room, he was agitated still more to observe a "biled" shirt and standing collar and that these were worn by another white man.

The marshal, being called on, explained that one white gentleman was arrested by him for running a "flying jinny" without a license, and the other was his lawyer. To a man cast in a less heroic mold than the mayor such complete smashing of all records and invading of precedent would have been a Waterloo. A white man arrested in Lavilla and a lawyer appearing to plead in its court! To what are we coming?

Repressing all signs of such a strain on his judicial composure, the mayor announced that to fittingly mark so great an occasion he would disregard the calendar and take up the white man's case first.

The lawyer demanded the immediate discharge of the prisoner on the ground that there was no ordinance requiring "flying jinny" to pay a license and threw the court on its "beam ends" by asking for a copy of the ordinance book.

No one had seen it in years. Many doubted if there had ever been one. A whispered consultation was held between the mayor and the marshal and a search instituted which revealed the book, with a brick on top of it, supplying the place of a missing leg of the stove.

After looking vainly through the book for law on "flying jinnies" his honor delivered judgment as follows:

"Ordinance No. 11 requires all keepers of livery stables to pay a license of $10 and imposes a fine of twice the amount for running without a license. The defendant must pay both the fine and the license."

"But," objected the lawyer, "this man don't run a livery stable; he runs a 'flying jinny.'"

"He keeps horses for hire, doesn't he?"

"Yes, but they are wooden horses, and he charges a nickel for one ride."

"The ordinance makes no fine distinction. It says livery stables require a license. A livery stable is a place where horses are kept for hire. It makes no difference whether they are wooden horses or 'meat' horses. Next case, Mr. Marshal."—New York Mail and Express.

TROUBLESIOF J. BULL

Diversion of War Funds to Pockets of Contractors Has Roused His Ire. Kitchener's Poor Horses—Why De Wet Got Away.

England is beset with a peck of troubles these days, at home as well as abroad. The Boers have fulfilled to the letter their promise that the price of their liberty would stagger humanity, and the end seems yet afar off. Now come rumors that much money intended for the suppression of the South African republics has found its way into the pockets of army contractors, and, to cap the climax, it is hinted that conscription may be found necessary to keep the army up to the required standard.

The true Briton will stand a good deal for the glory of his country and the acquisition of territory, but the limit seems to have been nearly reached in the tight little isle. Recent disclosures in parliament showing apparent incompetence and dishonesty in the purchasing departments of the army have caused a public agitation that augurs ill for the war office.

Hon. W. St. John Brodrick, secretary of state for war, in introducing the army estimates, $345,550,000, to the house of commons, entered into a defense of the war office, contending that the work has been done well, considering that 300,000 men and 245,000 horses are being fed in South Africa.

Judging from recent and promised disclosures, however, scarcely any of the supplies for the army in South Africa were secured on business principles. Speculating contractors are now known to have made hundreds of thousands of dollars by reselling contracts.

It is openly stated in England that the contract for meat for the army was first resold at $50,000 premium and then at $200,000, while Cecil Rhodes and the De Beers group handed over $1,000,000 and thus finally secured the privilege of supplying the troops in South Africa with meat.

The horse purchasing scandal is another raw spot on John Bull's epidermis and has had a very disquieting effect on the public mind. During the Crimean war there were similar scandals, but that affair is such ancient history that it is altogether forgotten or was never known to the present generation. So that the exposures of the horse purchasing scandals have come as a genuine shock to the moralists who have been fond of holding up the British virtues for other nations to copy.

RIGHT HON. W. ST. JOHN BRODRICK.
[British secretary for war.]

Recently it has come to light through the medium of a French horse dealer that frauds before which those of the Crimean times pale have been perpetrated. This individual stated to a newspaper correspondent that he was making a fortune out of the English by selling them the most wretched crocks of horses, only fit for the boneyard, at prices that were simply astounding. The officers who bought the horses knew very well that they were doctored. All they wanted was to ship over as many heads as was possible in a given number of days, and no one can maintain that they did not succeed in this questionable purpose. The war could probably have been concluded by this time if Lord Kitchener had been provided with fit and proper horses. The secret of De Wet's mobility is at last out, and the inability of the British commanders to catch him is explained, because their horses were not equal to the task.

While these criticisms of the war office are being publicly aired there is proceeding beneath the surface a revolt that threatens to be of even greater importance. Leading officers in the volunteers, many of them noblemen, are working against Mr. Brodrick's new volunteer regulations. Mr. Brodrick wants a conscription. Should his idea prevail the volunteers would cease to be an effective force and furnish the war office with a strong argument for compulsory military service.

Ahead of the Times.

"The trouble with dear Jason," said the patient looking woman, "is that he is so far ahead of the times."

"In what way?"

"He keeps figuring on whether he'd better endow a college or build a hospital when he gets to be a millionaire instead of going ahead and getting the money."—Washington Star.

Some people are so suspicious that it is a wonder that they trust themselves.—Atchison Globe.

G. W. ROLANDOW ON BODY CULTURE.

Famous Athlete Outlines Exercises For Those Who Would Be Muscular.

G. W. Rolandow, the famous strong man, is a splendid specimen of an all around, well developed athlete; consequently his views on the subject of health and muscle and how to obtain them should be of great interest to all persons desirous of possessing an able, symmetrically formed body. Rowlandow speaks on physical culture as follows:

"It is well to get the whole body in shape before beginning the extraordinary development of any special muscle or set of muscles. With that end in view I'm going to give a series of exercises that will give work to all the muscles.

"They can be practiced in your own room or in a gymnasium. Wear as few clothes as possible, take precautions to avert strain and have something heavy to slip on as soon as you pause to avert catching cold. Many a man has been killed or rendered a wreck by sitting down to cool off while dripping with perspirattion from exercising. Do not let perspiration dry, nor after your cold bath delay in getting into warm clothing.

"The first exercise I'll give you is as follows:

"Inhale and render abdomen muscles rigid.

"Stand facing the wall, several feet away from it. Step forward with your right foot, putting out your right hand flat against the wall and pushing as though trying to push the wall back. Keep your feet firmly planted.

"Now stand straight again, bringing back your right foot to a line with the left. Then step forward with the left foot, putting the left hand against the wall and pushing as before. Then recover your standing position and exhale. Draw in another breath and repeat. While going through this keep every muscle of the whole body rigid. Tighten the muscles of the free hand as in the accompanying picture.

"This exercise may seem silly to you, but it is not. As you will soon find, it brings into play to a greater or less degree every muscle of the body.

"Another thing I want to impress on you, and this is the keynote of the whole system and the secret of success in getting strong: Keep your mind on what you are doing. Be strenuous. Keep every atom of your mind on your work. If you're going through an exercise requiring you to lift your arm, just imagine you're lifting a thousand pound dumbbell. When you try the wall pushing exercise I've just shown you, imagine you're pushing the wall down. Put all your mind and energy into every motion. I have young men at my gymnasium who work there ten minutes a day and who accomplish more than other persons who work an hour. Why? Simply because they throw all their mind and will power into their work. There lies the whole secret of strength's concentration.

"Lie on your back, clasp your hands behind your head; inhale. Now, keeping the legs rigid, rise toward a sitting posture until your shoulders are from twelve to sixteen inches off the floor. Then slowly sink back and do it again; then exhale. Don't keep on rising till you reach a sitting posture. After you pass a certain point the strain all falls on the spine, and this is bad for it.

"These movements I've given you will exercise all the muscles, and by those alone you can become strong. They are a splendid and necessary groundwork for harder work later on.

"Give up tea, coffee, liquor of all kinds, tobacco, pastries and rich fried food. It may be more or less hard to do this, but all are injurious, and you can't hope to be really strong and healthy unless you leave them alone.

"Drink nothing with your meals. A little after meals won't hurt you. Chew every mouthful of food carefully. Don't bolt it down, thus leaving the overworked stomach to do the work nature intended your teeth to do. Eat slowly; never rush through meals.

"Don't exercise for at least an hour and a half after eating."

Animal Intelligence.

Elephants are among the most severely drilled of animals. Their intelligence does not have free play in consequence. But all English trainers agree that there is a great difference in capacity between them and that some will learn and remember a lesson far more quickly than others.

Cats have very "level" brains and are too self centered and self contained as a rule to show the distinctions which exist between them. Their strongest instinct is toward a kind of domestic comfort not exactly shared with human beings, but enjoyed in their company, to which the cat perfectly adapts itself. Yet there are misanthropic cats which make no secret of their dislike and contempt for mankind in general, only come into the house under protest and would prefer to sleep in a coal cellar to taking their nap in good society. These are the exceptions in the cat world, but every one has met with them.

Birds are usually regarded as possessing brains in "classes," not as individuals, the origin of the belief being probably the fact that birds of one species usually build exactly the same kind of nest. The generalization is not correct. The same species may have brains of all capacities.—London Spectator.

TROUBLESIOF J. BULL

England is beset with a peck of troubles these days, at home as well as abroad. The Boers have fulfilled to the letter their promise that the price of their liberty would stagger humanity, and the end seems yet afar off. Now come rumors that much money intended for the suppression of the South African republics has found its way into the pockets of army contractors, and, to cap the climax, it is hinted that conscription may be found necessary to keep the army up to the required standard.

The true Briton will stand a good deal for the glory of his country and the acquisition of territory, but the limit seems to have been nearly reached in the tight little isle. Recent disclosures in parliament showing apparent incompetence and dishonesty in the purchasing departments of the army have caused a public agitation that augurs ill for the war office.

Hon. W. St. John Brodrick, secretary of state for war, in introducing the army estimates, $345,550,000, to the house of commons, entered into a defense of the war office, contending that the work has been done well, considering that 300,000 men and 245,000 horses are being fed in South Africa.

Judging from recent and promised disclosures, however, scarcely any of the supplies for the army in South Africa were secured on business principles. Speculating contractors are now known to have made hundreds of thousands of dollars by reselling contracts.

It is openly stated in England that the contract for meat for the army was first resold at $50,000 premium and then at $200,000, while Cecil Rhodes and the De Beers group handed over $1,000,000 and thus finally secured the privilege of supplying the troops in South Africa with meat.

The horse purchasing scandal is another raw spot on John Bull's epidermis and has had a very disquieting effect on the public mind. During the Crimean war there were similar scandals, but that affair is such ancient history that it is altogether forgotten or was never known to the present generation. So that the exposures of the horse purchasing scandals have come as a genuine shock to the moralists who have been fond of holding up the British virtues for other nations to copy.

RIGHT HON. W. ST. JOHN BRODRICK.

Recently it has come to light through the medium of a French horse dealer that frauds before which those of the Crimean times pale have been perpetrated. This individual stated to a newspaper correspondent that he was making a fortune out of the English by selling them the most wretched crocks of horses, only fit for the boneyard, at prices that were simply astounding. The officers who bought the horses knew very well that they were doctored. All they wanted was to ship over as many heads as was possible in a given number of days, and no one can maintain that they did not succeed in this questionable purpose. The war could probably have been concluded by this time if Lord Kitchener had been provided with fit and proper horses. The secret of De Wet's mobility is at last out, and the inability of the British commanders to catch him is explained, because their horses were not equal to the task.

While these criticisms of the war office are being publicly aired there is proceeding beneath the surface a revolt that threatens to be of even greater importance. Leading officers in the volunteers, many of them noblemen, are working against Mr. Brodrick's new volunteer regulations. Mr. Brodrick wants a conscription. Should his idea prevail the volunteers would cease to be an effective force and furnish the war office with a strong argument for compulsory military service.

G. W. ROLANDOW ON BODY CULTURE.

Famous Athlete Outlines Exercises For Those Who Would Be Muscular.

G. W. Rolandow, the famous strong man, is a splendid specimen of an all around, well developed athlete; consequently his views on the subject of health and muscle and how to obtain them should be of great interest to all persons desirous of possessing an able, symmetrically formed body. Rowlandow speaks on physical culture as follows:

"It is well to get the whole body in shape before beginning the extraordinary development of any special muscle or set of muscles. With that end in view I'm going to give a series of exercises that will give work to all the muscles.

"They can be practiced in your own room or in a gymnasium. Wear as few clothes as possible, take precautions to avert strain and have something heavy to slip on as soon as you pause to avert catching cold. Many a man has been killed or rendered a wreck by sitting down to cool off while dripping with perspirattion from exercising. Do not let perspiration dry, nor after your cold bath delay in getting into warm clothing.

"The first exercise I'll give you is as follows:

"Inhale and render abdomen muscles rigid.

"Stand facing the wall, several feet away from it. Step forward with your right foot, putting out your right hand flat against the wall and pushing as though trying to push the wall back. Keep your feet firmly planted.

"Now stand straight again, bringing back your right foot to a line with the left. Then step forward with the left foot, putting the left hand against the wall and pushing as before. Then recover your standing position and exhale. Draw in another breath and repeat. While going through this keep every muscle of the whole body rigid. Tighten the muscles of the free hand as in the accompanying picture.

"This exercise may seem silly to you, but it is not. As you will soon find, it brings into play to a greater or less degree every muscle of the body.

"Another thing I want to impress on you, and this is the keynote of the whole system and the secret of success in getting strong: Keep your mind on what you are doing. Be strenuous. Keep every atom of your mind on your work. If you're going through an exercise requiring you to lift your arm, just imagine you're lifting a thousand pound dumbbell. When you try the wall pushing exercise I've just shown you, imagine you're pushing the wall down. Put all your mind and energy into every motion. I have young men at my gymnasium who work there ten minutes a day and who accomplish more than other persons who work an hour. Why? Simply because they throw all their mind and will power into their work. There lies the whole secret of strength's concentration.

"Lie on your back, clasp your hands behind your head; inhale. Now, keeping the legs rigid, rise toward a sitting posture until your shoulders are from twelve to sixteen inches off the floor. Then slowly sink back and do it again; then exhale. Don't keep on rising till you reach a sitting posture. After you pass a certain point the strain all falls on the spine, and this is bad for it.

"These movements I've given you will exercise all the muscles, and by those alone you can become strong. They are a splendid and necessary groundwork for harder work later on.

"Drink nothing with your meals. A little after meals won't hurt you. Chew every mouthful of food carefully. Don't bolt it down, thus leaving the overworked stomach to do the work nature intended your teeth to do. Eat slowly; never rush through meals.

AMAZING AUDACITY SHOWN BY GANG OF SNEAK THIEVES

Refrigerator at the Residence of W. H. Surles the Object of Attack.

POLICEMAN JOINED IN CHASE

But the Fugitives Eluded All Pursuit. Two Females Assisted in Disposing of the Edibles Which Were Stolen.

Boldness such as has scarcely been paralleled in the criminal history of East Liverpool was displayed last night by a gang of thieves who made a wholesale raid on a refrigerator standing on the rear porch of Postmaster W. H. Surles' residence on Third street.

Aside from making a thorough clean-up of the well-filled receptacle, the pillagers made a vicious assault upon Thomas Gotham, the well known modeler, and seriously wounded him. The entire gang escaped, though one of them was given the chase of his life by Policeman Willis Davidson, who was called to the scene of the robbery.

Gotham was conversing with Mrs. Surles and other friends in the sitting room when the thieves made their raid. Mrs. Surles chair was next to a window where the refrigerator stood and she was the first to detect the presence of the intruders. Rushing to the rear door the lady saw three men running in the direction of the Central school building, but owing to the darkness they soon disappeared.

Hastily making an investigation to learn the extent of the scoundrels' depredation Gotham started in pursuit, and, with rare boldness, Mrs. Surles followed. Attracted by the noise of voices they made their way to the rear steps of the school house, where they came upon three men and two women, all of whom were feasting on the stolen edibles.

Determined to capture the nervy pillagers, Gotham started up the steps, and just as he did so one of the men threw a plate which barely missed Mrs. Surles' head. Undaunted in his eagerness to carry out his aim Gotham climbed to the top of the steps and grappled with one of the men. A desperate struggle ensued, but the thief was outclassed and soon lay stretched out on the ground with his antagonist on top.

Before he had time to tackle the next man, Gotham was knocked down by a blow from a pitcher filled with milk. The vessel was smashed into a dozen pieces and the contents fairly whitewashed the dazed victim of the cowardly blow. He continued to struggle, however, but was again knocked down by one of the rascals who kicked him in the head. The heel of the man's shoe struck Gotham's ear, severely lacerating the member and causing the blood to stream all over him.

Being thus taken at so great a disadvantage Gotham was unable to prevent the gang from getting away. While the encounter was in progress the females, who had been among the number, took to their heels and were soon out of sight. In the meantime Mrs. Surles had sent a message to the city hall for the police, but just at that moment the officers were all on the street.

Though scarcely able to walk, Gotham started in pursuit of his assailants after the had left him and chased them down Union street, where they escaped. Officer Davidson arrived just in time to take up the chase where Gotham left off and though he followed one of the fugitives for a distance of a mile he was unable to overtake him.

None of the thieves were recognized, and Mrs. Surles is the only person able to give a description of either. One, she says, was a heavy set man, wearing a brown suit of clothes and a slouch hat. The others she cannot describe in any way minutely. It is evident the gang knew Mr. Surles was not at home. He had not yet finished his work at the postoffice and doubtless the thieves thought Mrs. Surles would have no protection.

If it had been known that the fellows intended to stop at the school house it would have been an easy matter to have quietly summoned the police and rounded them up. The iron fence about the building would have prevented their escape and all would have been caught like rats in a trap.

The thieves were seen by a boy shortly before making their raid, who noticed them throw away a whisky flask after draining the contents. Their boldness gives rise to the belief that they are not novices. Postmaster Surles offers a reward for $25 for the detection and apprehension of the criminals.

EXTENSIONS PLANNED

NEW WATER MAINS TO BE LAID IN EAST END.

Work Resumed at the Reservoir. Trustees Approve Many Bills.

The water works trustees met last evening and decided to extend the water supply system in the East End. How much this will cost has not been determined, although Supt. Phil Morley was authorized to measure the district that is to be covered by the extensions and purchase materials at the lowest rates.

The mains that will be laid in the Fifth ward will be of four and six inches and will be laid on McKinnon avenue and Pope street.

Bids for the pipe have been received, but the prices were too high, and others will be sought. One firm the trustees have been corresponding with states that it would be impossible for the company to enter a bid for the contract, as its stock is sold for a year.

Work was commenced yesterday at the new reservoir repairing the break in the south wall which has been described so often. It will take at least two weeks to complete this task, as some of the wall about the break will have to be taken down, in order that a substantial repair can be made. It is said the wall is so hard that the cement has to be broken with sledges.

The following bills were ordered paid:

Lists Will Be Circulated From March 29 to April 5—Grand Results Expected.

A hospital committee meeting was held last evening at the home of the treasurer, Miss E. P. Hazlett on Fifth street. It was decided to set apart the time from March 29 to April 5, inclusive, as "Hospital week." During this time subscription lists will be circulated through the potteries, shops and business houses of the city; thus giving every man and boy employed therein an opportunity to subscribe as large or small an amount as he may see fit to the hospital fund. It is a free will offering.

There was but one day set apart for this purpose last year and the results were so gratifying that the association has decided to make this a permanent institution until such time as the hospital is in good running order.

The desire of the hospital association that the people contribute as liberally as possible is certainly not without its merit, for it is the purpose of the association to construct the hospital on a good financial foundation and not upon one handicaped by debt.

ANTI-GAMBLING BILL OFFERED

Not Entitled to Representation at Trenton Convention—Locals Acting on Resolutions And Many New Ones Being Urged—Pottery News.

A Pittsburg trade paper this morning is responsible for the following, which, if true, would be read with interest:

"The deal has been closed for the American Potteries company, which includes the Union Potteries company, Cook Pottery company and the International Pottery company, with a total capacity of 34 kilns. At a meeting held in New York city Wednesday letters are said to have been received asking admission conditions from the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, the Sebring Pottery company, the Ford China company and many other prominent firms in the west.

"At the meeting it is said the directors decided to allow F. W. Tapscot to receive propositions fro many pottery company seeking admission and such would be received by the executive board. The company will ask no firm to enter, but will build if necessary to take care of additional orders."

Officials of the Union Potteries company at Pittsburg were asked about the report this morning, when the item was pronounced a fake of the first water. There is no deal on for the purchase of the plants mentioned, and there is not likely to be, for a time at least. The announcement that W. F. Tapscot would be allowed to receive propositions from firms desiring admission to the new company, is indeed laughable.

Probably 25 men are at work preparing roads, prior to the commencement of the construction of the Champion Fire Clay works, which will be built a short distance out Rowe's Run, just east of Wellsville. At the eastern entrance to Driven From Home switch on the East Liverpool railway eight men are engaged in grading the hillside. The earth secured from this source is used in making a road to the site of the plant. A fill of probably six feet has been made at several places. In order that back water from the Ohio river would not interfere with their plant, the course of Rowe's Run is being changed, keeping the water on the hillside on the west. The vein of clay has been opened, and already quite a quantity has been taken from the hill in order that it may be weathered. The plant will be commenced as soon as possible, the plans for the same being about completed. Rail lengths have been delivered to the opening of the mine, and these will be placed in position within a short time. It is likely the plant will be ready for operation within two months.

Kilnmen's local No. 9, at a session held last night, obligated three new members; received three applications for membership; seated one member by transfer card; granted a withdrawal card to Jasper Smith; donated to the striking carriage and wagon workers of Cincinnati and Zanesville, and looked with favor upon an invitation from Rev. W. H. Gladden, of the M. P. church, to attend a morning service at that church some time in April in a body.

The announcement was made this morning that the annual meeting of

WAREHOUSEWOMEN MEET

From a Staff Corerspondent.

Columbus, March 22.—A sweeping anti-gambling bill was offered in the house yesterday by Representative Earhart, of Richland county. Its restrictions are severe, and prohibit almost every known game of chance. Slot machines are especially placed under the ban, and if the bill becomes a law it will be a misdemeanor to have such a device in one's possession. For violating the act, a fine of from $100 to $500 and imprisonment of from 10 to 90 days may be imposed. Fines and costs are made a lien on the building where the gambling is conducted.

An anti-injunction bill, modeled after the Hoar bill pending in the United States senate, will be presented in the house by Representative McNamee, of Franklin. The measure was drawn by Former Attorney General Frank S. Monnett. A poll of the house shows that the majority of the members are in favor of the bill of Representative Metzger, of Stark, providing for the erection of an executive mansion for the use of the governor. The structure is to cost $100,000. A number of bills were introduced in the house Friday, most of them being unimportant.

The bill of Representative Seese, of Summit county, to reimburse the Eighth regiment, O. N. G., for the expenditure of money incident to the McKinley inauguration trip, has been placed on the house calendar for third reading and will be reached for passage not later than next Saturday. The finance committee has recommended the passage of the measure.

The officers and directors of the Union Association of Lumber Dealers of Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania met here yesterday to discuss legislation affecting the lumber business. Among those present were President B. F. Weybrecht, of Alliance; J. A. Bernard, of Canton, and A. W. Hawkins, of Akron.

A traveling library consisting of 36 volumes has been sent from the state library to Daniel Krabill, at Louisville, Stark county. The library will be used by a school society.

The Clover Leaf club, a social organization of East Liverpool, has been incorporated by Charles I. Scott, Henry Stewart, Charles Armstrong, Robert Williams and George W. White.

The Buckeye Publishing company, of Lisbon, has become an incorporation. The capital is $15,000, divided into 150 shares of $100 each. The incorporators are E. M. Cresser, D. H Frew, L. S. Adams, W. L. Armstrong, H. M. Crooks and Charles E. Hamilton.

ADJUDGED INSANE

A Washington Mute Develops Suicidal And Violent Tendencies.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Orin J. Frederick, of Washingtonville, was examined in probate court yesterday and adjudged insane. He is a mute, of such strength that it took several men to overpower and handcuff him on Thursday. He has previously received treatment at Newburg for insanity.

The cause of his condition is unknown. His insanity has a suicidal tendency. He is suspicious and given to hallucinations. His previous habits are reported good. He is a son of Joseph Frederick, of Washingtonville.

A DOCTOR'S BILL

A Suit With Many Interesting Phases Tried Before 'Squire McCarron.

The case of Dr. W. W. Hamilton versus Bert Maple for a balance of $15 for professional services, was called in the court of Justice McCarron this morning and gave promise of developing some very interesting facts.

Attorney J. H. Brookes represented the plaintiff and Attorney M. J. McGarry the defendant. Maple demanded a jury trial and the following gentlemen were summoned: W. Welch, John W. Hall, A. Watson, A. W. King, J. N. Crable and F. H. Croxall.

Dr. Hamilton was called in his own behalf and consumed upwards of an hour in detailing the course pursued by him in treating defendant's wife. Dr. Hamilton by his testimony showed that the circumstances surrounding the case were entirely out of the ordinary, and it was necessary to perform what is known to the profession as craneotomy. This, the doctor stated, was a rare and difficult operation and one for which the usual price was $100.

Drs. Bailey, Ikirt, Hobbs, Clark and Taylor were examined, several of whom had been directly or indirectly connected with the case. Elsie Walters also testified.

At 2:30 the testimony was concluded and the arguments were started by Attorney Brookes.

BUILDING AND PART OF ITS CONTENTS DESTROYED.

Cyrus Burlingame's Loss From Fire At an Early Hour This Morning.

The livery stable owned by Cyrus Burlingame on Sophia street, on the North Side, was almost completely destroyed by fire. The central department was summoned, but not until the flames had gained such great headway that their efforts were unavailing to prevent the loss which occurred.

It was about 2 o'clock this morning when the fire was discovered. A party of young men who were passing on the Calcutta road gave the alarm. There were only two horses in the barn and these were rescued.

A fine surrey and harness, together with a large quantity of hay and straw were consumed, aggregating a loss of several hundred dollars.

RUNAWAY TEAM

Throws the Driver Out, Injuring Him. A Horse Badly Hurt.

A team driven by William Grim, of Grim's bridge, ran off from Sixth street and East Market at noon today and one of the horses was badly injured, while the driver was pitched against a telephone pole and suffered a bad sprain to his right ankle.

The horses ran out East Market and across the Horn switch, bringing up against the fence surrounding the residence of J. M. Kelly.

College-Riley.

At the parsonage of the Christian church Thursday evening, Miss Erila B. College and Mr. Frank F. Riley, of Chester, were married by Rev. J. W. Gorrell. Mr. Riley is employed at the Chester tin mill, and the young couple will make their home at Chester.

Smallpox at Beaver Falls.

ATTACKED AND BEATEN BY UNKNOWN THUGS

A murderous assault was made early this morning on Oliver Adams, a local hack driver. The victim was terribly cut and bruised about the head and face.

While the fire at Burlingame's livery stable was in progress, Adams, who was making his way on Walnut street past the K., T. & K. pottery, was set upon by a small dog. He drove the brute off and as he did so noticed a party of men coming toward him.

Not suspecting any trouble from the men Adams remarked that if the dog attacked him again he would kill it and stopped to pick up a brick as he spoke. While reaching for the brick he was sent reeling from a blow on the head and the next instant found himself lying in a gutter with a half dozen men beating and kicking him.

More dead than alive Adams was left by the thugs, and with great difficulty he finally reached his home, where a physician dressed his wounds.

The matter was reported to the police this morning, but no arrests have yet ocurred. No attempt at robbery was made and the motive for the assault is a mystery. Adams thinks he recognized two or three of his assailants and their apprehension is looked for.

Young Local Potter Compelled to Marry a Girl In a Squire's Court.

PATERNITY CHARGE THE CAUSE

Telt Rodenbaugh, a Minor, the Victim of the Unhappy Union.

LOCATED AT HIS RESIDENCE

But Jumped From an Upstairs Window And Fled — Soon Overtaken And Brought Face to Face With His Accuser.

Armed with a warrant for the young man's arrest on a paternity charge Constable C. W. Powell, accompanied by Policeman Dawson and a local newspaper reporter, made their way last evening to the home of Telt Rodenbaugh, on Ravine street, where, after an exciting chase, the man was taken into custody. A few minutes later he was arraigned before Justice McLane.

The charge leading up to Rodenbaugh's apprehension was filed by Edith Connor, a girl about 19 years of age, who is employed by the Potters' Supply company. Attorney W. K. Gaston made oue the affidavit and after the warrant had been prepared Constable Powell started after the accused.

Securing the assistance of Officer Dawson, the constable went to Rodenbaugh's home, where after being informed that the young man wanted was not at home, he demanded that he be given the privilege to search the house. Officer Dawson kept guard at the rear door as the constable made his exploration of the interior, and as the search was going on the reporter above alluded to wandered quietly up near the front door.

Evidently having noticed the approach of the officers, young Rodenbaugh made his way to the upstairs of his home. It was only a few minutes, however, until the constable had him rounded up, but not to be caught without a struggle, the fugitive jumped through a window to the top of a porch and then made a flying leap to the ground.

Alighting safely on his feet the fleeing young man started on a run towards the street in front of the house, but before he had made more than a dozen bounds he found himself confronted by the alert reporter, who held out his arms and frantically signaled "Down brakes."

Hesitating for a moment like a fox at bay, Rodenbaugh wheeled suddenly and started in an opposite direction. Here is where he made a bad mistake, as fleet-footed Dawson then took up the frail and gave immediate pursuit. The fugitive did not even then give up, but started through a field at cyclone speed. But he did not get far away, as the officer soon had him by the coat-tails and brought him back to the constable, after which he was taken to the 'squire's office, where his accuser was in waiting.

In less than a half hour Rodenbaugh's father, mother and brother were at the court room, where they were joined by Attorney M. J. McGarry, who was engaged to defend the accused. The girl's mother also appeared, but before the case was placed on trial the matter of a compromise was brought up.

This seemed to be satisfactory, except to those who had a bill of costs to present. Finally when Rodenbaugh and the girl both expressed a desire to adjust the case the magistrate, for a cause known only to himself, ordered that all persons not directly interested be excluded from hearing the proceedings.

Among those who were thus ordered to leave the room were the officer and reporter who assisted in arresting the defendant. Nobody seemed able to understand the 'squire's reason for taking the action he did, and he was consequently criticised. In a proceeding such as the one then before Justice McLane it has been an unknown occurrence in any other local court for respectable spectators to be ordered out.

NINETY YEARS OLD

BIRTHDAY OF DR. VALLANDIGHAM CELEBRATED.

A Native of Lisbon Who Got His First Schooling From David McKinley.

Rev. James L. Vallandigham, D. D., a noted Presbyterian minister, recently celebrated his 90th birthday at Newark, Del. The celebration took place in the Presbyterian church and addresses of interest were made. Dr. Vallandigham was born in Lisbon, O., Mar. 13, 1812, and was the son of Clement and Rebecca Laird Vallandigham. The first school he attended was taught by David McKinley, the great-grand-father of the late President McKinley. He was prepared for college by his father who taught a classical school in Lisbon, and was graduated by Jefferson college in 1830 in a class of thirty-two members, of which he is the only survivor.

He immediately commenced teaching and taught for six years, principally Latin and Greek and the higher English branches, and most of the time on the eastern shore of Maryland, and in the meantime studied law. For six years he practiced law in his native town, at the same time taking an active part in politics, writing for a weekly newspaper, and as an assistant editor of a monthly.

In the campaign of 1840, he, in company with Dr. Leonard Hanna, the father of Senator Hanna, Col. James Collier, the Hon. Andrew Loomis and others, stumped parts of Ohio in favor of General Harrison, candidate for the presidency. He remained in the Whig party until its dissolution in 1856 and since then has voted the Democratic ticket.

Dr. Vallandigham is now an active and vigorous man, but no longer a pastor, having passed the ministerial dead line forty years ago. He still preaches whenever called upon, supplying feeble churches or aiding his ministerial brethren in the vicinity of his residence.

AN ORIGINAL NEWSPAPER

There is certainly no publication that attracts readers more easily than the New York Sunday Telegraph, and this agreeable state of affairs is due to its clever knack of giving the reader just the kind of news he wants and presenting it in just the manner he likes to read it. The Sunday Telegraph's popularity is enhanced by special features not to be found in any other newspaper, and by a supplement printed in colors on fine book paper, the illustrations of which are equal to those of the best magazines.

The foregoing paragraph is unsolicited praise from the Cleveland Plain Dealer. It is succint and decidedly to the point and conveys so much to the imagination that mere words could not paint a better portrayal of the publication. To convince yourself that the paragraph is not the result of an overheated imagination send for a specimen copy and you will arrive at the conclusion that it was written by a sane man—after mature deliberation.

There is, also, a New York Morning Telegraph, which is a companion sheet to the Sunday Telegraph. It possesses all its good qualities and many things in addition. It is generally looked upon as a "feature" paper, in that certain lines of news are "starred" day after day and gives precedence over news that is to be found in penny publications. To illustrate, the Morning Telegraph is the leading sporting and theatrical organ of America. Under the category of sports might be cited horse racing, both thoroughbred and trotting, pugilistic events, yachting and, in fact, every branch of sports with which Americans are familiar. It prints all the gossip of Broadway, of clubs, and clubmen, horsemen, men about town and others of the smart set. This class of news is featured day after day and printed by the publishers in preference to the news to be found in the general run by the publishers. To this policy may be traced the present vogue of the Morning Telegraph.

By addressing the Morning Telegraph, 116 Nassau street, New York, a specimen copy of both publications will be forwarded. It is an opportunity not to be lost. 69-eod-r

EAST END

Of Sewer Pipe Lately Ordered From the East End Plant—Serious Car Shortage.

Never in the history of the plant have there been so many orders booked for sewer pipe from the East End plant of the American Sewer Pipe company as at present. An official of that company this morning stated that orders for over 100 cars of pipe had been received within the past few days, but the delivery of these orders is being held back seriously on account of the railroad company being unable to furnish cars.

Three cars were put on the "sewer pipe" siding on Thursday, while eight were desired. Not another factory in the East End received an empty car on that day. Much of the pipe being made at this plant is being stocked on account of the car famine.

KEEP OUT OF THE MUD

East End Pedestrians May Soon Accomplish What Was Formerly Impossible.

Charles Brown, he who keeps the East End streets in good repair, is now making a number of cinder paths in and about the Fifth ward, making walking in that section more agreeable than heretofore. Yesterday afternoon a new cinder walk was constructed on River avenue, and also one on Mulberry street from River avenue to St. George street on the west side.

The walk was started near the new residence of Benjamin Harker, and is so constructed that it will last for years. This morning the street force was busily engaged in cleaning rubbish from Mulberry street, and that thoroughfare is cleaner now than it has been for months.

A GROWING CHURCH

Erie Street M. E. Congregation Now Numbers About 375 Members.

In speaking of the recent revival services at the Erie street M. E. church, Rev. G. W. Orcutt said:

"As a result the church has been greatly strengthened and encouraged. Many souls have been saved and the work moves on with greater promise than ever before. Seventy-two members were added during the past quarter, 94 since conference, so that now there are about 375 members in full connection and on probation."

Street Railway Men's Meeting.

A meeting of the local No. 52, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, of this city, will be held this evening in their rooms on Mulberry street. There are several new members to be initiated and a few propositions for membership are also to be acted upon. This local is one of the strongest in the city and is growing rapidly. Much routine business will be considered this evening.

Real Estate Deals.

George Debee yesterday sold his residence on Mulberry street to Ernest Ferrall, foreman of the clay shops of Laughlin No. 2. The consideration is private. Several other properties in this end of the city will change hands next week and deals are likely to be closed not later than Tuesday evening.

Quiet Wedding.

A quiet little wedding took place in the East End lately, when H. A. Birch, a kilndrawer at K., T. & K., and Miss Grace Taylor, a finisher at the Smith-Phillips China company, were married by Rev. G. W. Orcutt, pastor of the Erie street M. E. church.

USE OF SUNDAY SCHOOLS

The Subject of an Address By Dr. W. F. McCauley Next Tuesday Evening.

As before announced Rev. W. F. McCauley, Lit. D., will address a special meeting of the city Sunday School association in the First Presbyterian church next Tuesday evening. The speaker will tell briefly why Sunday schools should be organized and occasionally meet for mutual benefit. He will also deliver an address on some important phase of Sunday school work.

This meeting is but preliminary, and it is expected that another meeting will soon be called to effect a permanent organization.

NEW RURAL RESORT

Salem Sportsmen Contemplate Making Artificial Lake and Resort.

Salem, Mar. 22.—A body of Salem sportsmen have a gigantic scheme on foot to make a large artificial lake and resort north of the city about four miles. A large dam will be built on a water course which runs through the farms and fields of that section. The creek runs through the flats and vales and on each side are big hills, which will make banks for the water when dammed up. Years ago there was a small dam at the place which is now proposed to use for an artificial lake. This old dam will be a pigmy compared to the dam which, if all the plans of the gentlemen are carried to completion, will be built.

When the dam is completed and the water is running over the breast the lake will be about one mile long and a quarter of a mile wide. At the present time the creek is a resort for piscatorial artists, and when the plans of the Salem gentlemen are completed it will no doubt be one of the greatest fishing ponds in the state of Ohio. The immense dam will be stocked with bass and all kinds of fish, many being imported. Fish will be secured from the Uunted States Fish commission and a fisherman's paradise made out of the lake.

In addition to this the artificial lake will be used for boating purposes and a pleasure resort and picnic grounds for recreation and pleasure.

Cannot Be Divided Without a Breach of Law in West Virginia.

Wheeling, March 22.—Judge M. H. Willis, of the circuit court of Doddridge, Wetzel and Tyler counties, has rendered a decision which will have a far-reaching effect.

He rules that it is unlawful for a person to divide the contents of a jug of liquor with others who were contributors to the order and paid in advance. He holds that the distributor of such a package is a retailer in the reach of the law and should be fined as such.

FOUND IN THE OHIO

Body of a Man Supposed to Be a Pittsburg Alderman Recovered at New Cumberland.

Pittsburg, March 22.—If the supposition of his son Harry prove correct, Alderman Henry Grelle, who has been mission from his Southside home since Saturday, March 1, has met death by drowning.

Harry Grelle, the son, resides at 13 Industry street, Southside, and shortly after noon today he called at police station No. 7 and notified the sergeant that the body reported found in the Ohio river at New Cumberland, W. Va., yesterday answered the description of his father.

The report said that the drowned man was about 40 years of age, and weighed about 180 pounds, while a valuable watch with the initials "W. H. G." upon it, was found in his pocket. The body had evidently been in the water several weeks. The son said that this description tallied with that of his father, who was 47 years of age, and weighed 190 pounds and had a watch answering the description of that found, with similar initials.

When the son saw the account of the body being found in the Ohio at New Cumberland he decided that the victim was his father.

REPEAL WAR TAXES.

PROTECTION OF OUR PRESIDENT.

Bill For This Purpose Also Passed the Senate—All Amendments to the Measure Rejected—Passed by a Vote of 52 to 15.

Washington, March 22.—Two important measures were passed by the senate yesterday, the bill for the repeal of the war revenue taxes and that for the protection of the president of the United States. The revenue bill was passed without division and after only one short speech. Mr. Tillman embraced the opportunity afforded by the bill's consideration to protest against the repeal of the duty of 10 cents a pound upon tea.

The bill for the protection of the president was under discussion during the greater part of the session. Mr. Patterson, of Colorado, made an extended speech in opposition to it, and Mr. Fairbanks, of Indiana, advocated it in a forceful address. All amendments offered to the measure were rejected and it was passed by a vote of 52 to 15.

Provisions of the Bill.

The bill provides that any person within the United States, who shall wilfully and maliciously kill the president, or any officer on whom the duties of president may devolve, or any sovereign of a foreign country, or shall attempt to kill any of the persons named, shall suffer death; that any person who shall aid, abet, advise or counsel the killing of any of the persons named, or shall conspire to accomplish their death, shall be imprisoned not exceeding 20 years; that any person who shall threaten to kill or advise or counsel another to kill the president, or any official on whom the duties of president may devolve, shall be imprisoned not exceeding 10 years; that any person who shall wilfully aid in the escape of any person guilty of any of the offenses mentioned shall be deemed an accomplice and shall be punished as a principal. The secretary of war is directed to detail from the regular army a guard of officers and men to protect the president, "without any unnecessary display," and the secretary is authorized to make regulations as to the dress, arms and equipment and duties of such guard.

COL. HAWKINS IS HONORED.

Late Pennsylvania Colonel Nominated to Be Brigadier General.

Other Nominations.

Washington, March 22.—The president has sent to the senate for confirmation the following nominations for brevet commissions in the volunteer army:

To be major generals by brevet—Brigadier General Irving Hale, United States volunteers, for distinguished gallantry in action near Calumpit, Philippine islands; Brigadier General Samuel Ovenshine, United States volunteers, for most distinguished gallantry in action at the Zapote river, Philippine islands.

Brigadier Generals by Brevet.

To be brigadier general by brevet—Colonel William E. Birkhimer, Twenty-eighth infantry, United States volunteers, for conspicuous gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Alfred S. Frost, First South Dakota volunteer infantry, and captain Twenty-second United States infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Alexander L. Hawkins, Tenth Pennsylvania volunteer infantry (since deceased), for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel Henry B. McCoy, First Colorado infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action in the Philippines; Colonel John M. Stotsenburg, First Nebraska volunteer infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action near Quingua, Luzon, Philippine islands (where he was killed); Colonel John H. Wholley, First Washington volunteer infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action near Manila; Lieutenant Colonel Robert Wallace, First Montana volunteer infantry (since deceased), for distinguished gallantry in the Philippines.

Beside the above there are several hundred nominations for minor brevet commissions, among them: To be lieutenant colonels by brevet, Major John A. Logan, Thirty-seventh infantry, United States volunteers, for distinguished gallantry in action at San Jacinto, Luzon (where he was killed); Captain Allyn K. Capron, First artillery (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Santiago.

To be major by brevet—Captain Allyn K. Capron, First United States volunteer cavalry (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Las Guasimas, Cuba.

Nominations For Regular Army.

The nominations for the regular army are as follows:

To be major general by brevet—Colonel Harry G. Egbert, Twenty-second infantry, for distinguished gallantry in action at Manila, Philippine islands (where he was killed).

To be brigadier generals by brevet—Colonel Emerson H. Liscum, Ninth infantry, for conspicuous gallantry in action at Pien-Tsin, China (where he was killed); Colonel Charles A. Wyckoff, Twenty-second infantry (since deceased), for gallantry in battle, Santiago, Cuba.

The list as submitted to President Roosevelt by the general board of the army on brevet commissions, of which General MacArthur was president, contained the name of Theodore Roosevelt, recommended for brevet commission as colonel and brigadier for conspicuous gallantry in action before Santiago, but the president erased his name before sending the list to the senate.

CONSPIRACY BILL OPPOSED.

Samuel Gompers Sends a Protest to Senate Against the Measure.

Washington, March 22.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has sent to the senate a protest against the "conspiracy" or anti-injunction bill as reported to the senate on the 17th inst., by the committee on the judiciary. He says that when the bill was first reported, Feb. 3, "it was received by all parties in interest as a measure calculated to right a wrong too long endured." This feeling, however, was rudely changed, he says, by the latest report.

He quoted the opinion of an attorney to the effect that the bill as now reported "is completely subversive of all principles of liberty," and added: "Organized labor seeks no immunity from the law applicable to all other citizens and people of our country, but must insist that those things which are legal when performed by other citizens ought not to be illegal when performed by members of organized labwor, and it was to recover those rights to the members of organized labor that the original bill was drafted.'

He concludes by saying that the labor interests would prefer the defeat of the bill, as amended, to its passage. He, however, asks that the original bill be favorably acted upon.

MILE'S CASE CONSIDERED.

Root and the President Consulted Over the Statement of Army Commander.

Washington, March 22.—Secretary Root was in consultation for some time with President Roosevelt at the White House last night, regarding the statement of General Miles before the military affairs committee of the senate. Senator Spooner also was present.

Secretary Root declined to talk for publication concerning the matter, saying that he had not read the testimony given by General Miles before the committee. It is understood that General Miles has been furnished the stenographic report of his testimony for revision.

MILES CAN BE RETIRED,

But Senators Doubt if He Can Be Otherwise Punished.

Washington, March 22.—The printed testimony of General Miles has not yet been made public, and it is understood that it will be submitted to him for approval. It is well understood that a great deal of what the general said will not appear in the record. Members of the committee say the report published was correct in substance in every particular.

At the same time these senators do not agree that General Miles can be punished for his utterances before the committee, whether they appear in the record or not. Of course the committee could take no action to prevent the retirement of General Miles. That, under the law, is purely an executive act and needs no confirmation or approval of the senate.

WANT TAFT TO RETURN.

Letter Received by Secretary Root From a Prominant Filipino.

Washington, March 22—Secretary Root has received a characteristic letter from Mr. Felipe Buencamino, who was one of the leaders in the original Philippine civil service commission and a staunch friend of the United States government:

"Permit me," he says, "to offer you my congratulations for your policy over my people, Philippine Islands. In my people's name, I request that you send promptly hereto Governor Taft."

The officials are highly gratified at this unsolicited evidence of the appreciation by the friendly Filipinos of the efforts of Governor Taft to ameliorate their condition and give them a good government.

House Passed River and Harbor Bill.

Washington March 22.—The house yesterday passed the river and harbor bill, which has been under consideration throughout the week. Although several minor amendments were adopted, not a single dollar was added to the measure, and as passed it carried exactly what it did when it came from the committee—$60,688,267, including authorizations. Mr. Sulzer, of New York, attempted to force a record vote on the final passage of the bill, but only three members, Messrs. Smith, of Iowa; Fitzgerald, of New York, and Cochran, of Missouri, supported him.

To Close Schley Controversy.

Washington, March 22.—The house committee on naval affairs, by a vote of 7 to 4, yesterday adopted a resolution concurring in the conclusions of President Roosevelt as to terminating the agitation of the Schley controversy, and indefinitely postponing all bills and resolutions on the subject.

The Quickest Cough Eradicator.

(From the Shortsville, N. Y., Enterprise.)

This is the month that one takes cold so easily and quickly—secures that hacking cough, which is so persistently disagreeable as we know by personal experience. And we also know that the quickest eradicator of such cough has been Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and which has been our staunch standby for several years. This is no paid "puff," but merely a just recognition for an invariable remedy for for coughs, colds, and all lung affections, and like the editor, it has scores of other staunch friends in this town. Why a City Should Own Its Street Cars

By Tom Johnson, Mayor of Cleveland

I HAVE OPERATED STREET RAILWAY LINES WITH THREE, FOUR, FIVE AND EVEN SIX CENT FARE, AND I KNOW THAT THERE IS A PROFIT IN THREE CENT FARE. THEREFORE, NO FRANCHISE SHOULD BE GRANTED EXCEPTING ON THE BASIS OF THREE CENT FARE AND UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS. THREE CENT FARE IN CHICAGO, FOR EXAMPLE, WOULD YIELD 20 PER CENT ON THE ACTUAL COST OF REPRODUCING THE CHICAGO PROPERTIES, AND IF THE CITY ITSELF OPERATED THESE LINES IT COULD MORE THAN PAY THE INTEREST AND EXPENSE OF SUCH OPERATION ON TWO CENT FARE, INCLUDING UNIVERSAL TRANSFERS.

A PASTOR WHO WAS BEFRIENDED BY AN EMPEROR SAVED BY PE-RU-NA.

Rev. H. Stubenvoll, of Elkhorn, Wis., is pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran St. John's Church of that place. Rev. Steubenvoll is the possessor of two bibles presented to him by Emperor William of Germany. Upon the fly leaf of one of the bibles the Emperor has written in his own handwriting a text.

This honored pastor in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., says concerning their famous catarrh remedy, Peruna:

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.:

Gentlemen: "I had hemorrhages of the lungs for a long time, and all despaired of me. I took Peruna and was cured. It gave me strength and courage, and made healthy, pure blood. It increased my weight, gave me a healthy color, and I feel well. It is the best medicine in the world. If everyone kept Peruna in the house it would save many from death every year."

Yours very truly,

REV. H. STUBENVOLL.

Thousands of people have catarrh who would be surprised to know it, because it has been called some other name than catarrh. The fact is, catarrh is catarrh wherever located; and another fact which is of equally great importance, is that Peruna cures catarrh wherever located.

Catarrh is an American disease. Fully one-half of the people are afflicted more or less with it in some form. Previous to the discovery of Peruna, catarrh was considered well nigh incurable. Since the introduction of Peruna to the medical profession thousands of cases are cured annually.

Mr. W. D. Smith, a well-known grocer of Port Huron, Mich., writes:

"By following your instructions and taking Peruna and Manalin I am cured of catarrh. I had catarrh for twelve years and quite a bad cough so I could not sleep nights. I do not have any cough now, and if I feel anything in the throat I take a swallow of Peruna and I am alright."—W. D. Smith.

Suffered Fifteen Years.

C. F. Gerding, Milburn, Neb., writes: "I contracted a heavy cold about fifteen years ago and tried all kinds of patent medicines and drugs recommended for a cold or heavy cough, but found none to help me until I commenced using Peruna. My age is seventy-eight years, and I am better now than I have been for years. I still keep using your great medicine, and am still improving in health. I recommend it to all sufferers with coughs and colds."—C. F. Gerding.

Peruna, The Greatest Remedy Known For Catarrh.

Mr. Chas. H. Stevens, 97 Seventeenth Street, Detroit, Mich., writes: "It affords me great pleasure to testify to the merits of Peruna as a remedy for catarrh. I suffered for some time with chronic nasal catarrh, but after five months' treatment during which time I used seven bottles of Peruna I am pleased to say that I am entirely well, there being not the slightest trace of the catarrh left. Peruna is without doubt the greatest remedy known for catarrh."—Chas. H. Stevens.

Afflicted Since Childhood With Catarrh.

Mr. Elbert S. Richards, Milton, Conn., writes:

"I am near sixty-eight years of age, and have from childhood been afflicted with catarrh in the head, and, for the past four or five years been much afflicted with it in my eyes; they being watery, would materate a good deal, and stick together in the night. My condition was so fully described in your almanac that I decided to try Peruna.

"I am thankful to say that I now consider myself entirely free from catarrh, and only use Peruna occasionally now as a tonic. Accept my sincere thanks for your personal interest in my case.

"My son, 21 years of age, has been using Peruna for a number of weeks for catarrh in the head and has obtained great relief."—Elbert S. Richards.

Catarrh Thirty Years.

Mr. Andrew Barrett, 940 N. Kidzie Ave., Chicago, Ill., writes:

"It gives me great pleasure to testify to the merits of such a worthy remedy for catarrh as your Peruna. I had suffered for thirty years from this very disagreeable disease and had tried many so-called remedies but until I used Peruna none had the desired effect.

"I have been connected with the Chicago Police Department for the past twenty-eight years. I can cheerfully recommend Peruna to anyone suffering from catarrh."—Andrew Barrett.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

New Waterford baseball team has reorganized with J. B. Eyster as manager.

Many men who left the Lisbon tin mill to work at the Canton plant have returned home.

The floater found in the river at Brown's island a few days ago was buried without identification.

Joseph McGoogan's son narrowly escaped being killed at Lisbon by a mad steer which had escaped from a butcher.

The M. E. church at East Fairfield is undergoing extensive interior repairs. A new hot air heater is one of the improvements.

Herman Pornick, aged 46, was ordered to clean out a locomotive at Youngstown and while he was under it a train bumped into it, crushing him to death.

The body of Mangus Fahrenbach, who suicided by jumping from the Wheeling bridge into the river a week ago, was found floating in the river near Bellaire.

Section men found a broken rail in the main track of the C. & P. railroad near Brilliant. Repairs were made just in time to prevent the wrecking of a passenger train.

All boys under 16 years of age are being discharged at the National Steel company's plant at Mingo by order of the state school commissioner, who says he is going to enforce the law.

Andrew Bolkowski, a Polander, who killed his wife near Adena a few weeks ago, is on trial for murder at Cadiz. The prisoner pleaded guilty, but a formal trial is required in a murder case. If he goes to the electrocution chair at Columbus, which seems probable, it will be the first case of capital punishment from Harrison county.

Alliance, March 22.—The electrical department of the Morgan Engineering company's works, numbering about 25 men, together with five brass foundrymen, quit work yesterday in sympathy with the striking machinists. It is thought the pattern makers will also go out.

The board of trade has asked for a conference with the officials of the works in an effort to adjust the present difficulty.

It has been arranged between the state department and the war department that the stars and stripes shall be raised over the Danish West Indian islands by a detachment of United States troops as soon as the Danish military forces have been withdrawn. The administration has decided that the exchange of ratifications constitutes the formal transfer of authority, and that it will not be necessary to wait until the purchase price—$5,000,000—has been paid before the United States government assumes possession.

A bill before congress purposes that Uncle Sam expend $100,000,000 in improving roads. There are worse uses that he could make of his surplus cash. But if he is going into the road-building business, he will doubtless use his money in communities that show a disposition to help a little.

General Miles threatens to retire from the army. If he is not more circumspect, the president may attend to the matter for him. Much as the general is respected and honored, even his staunchest friends must admit that his recent outbreak in the senate was entirely uncalled for.

There are 26 steel ship yards in the United States, and only six have as many as one vessel under way to be registered for foreign trade. Just 17 vessels in all are under construction in the United States for deep-sea service. The ship subsidy bill is a necessity of the situation.

Conversation has been successfully carried on by means of wireless telephones for a distance of a third of a mile. Humph! There are hundreds of men who were reared among the hills who can do better than that without the aid of any sort of devices.

The late Collis P. Huntington left between $28,000,000 and $29,000,000. He might have saved $3,000,000 more had he not loaned money to people who never paid it. But he never became "an easy mark" until he could afford such an experiment.

The bill to protect the president from cranks has been passed by the senate. As Senator Fairbanks said, it was inspired by obvious necessity, and it is therefore strange that any discussion was considered necessary.

The Americans who are shouting "Hoch der Kaiser" would be more numerous and enthusiastic if the German monarch were less prejudiced against our beef and canned goods.

Bryan calls Cleveland a traitor, an ingrate, a political nonentity and a few other pet names. And yet Grover has occupied a place that William will never attain.

American maize or Indian corn is about to be introduced in the Philippines. The natives will find it vastly more profitable to raise corn than to raise Ned.

Two Indiana men propose to start for the north pole, as Andree did, in a balloon. They will probably alight as Andree did—nobody knows where or when.

Bryan's capacity for blundering is as great as ever. He is about the only person in the country who has not become weary of his tirades.

England is planning to enlarge its military establishment as well as its navy.

Its simply a case of sour grapes with Bryan. Grover understands it.

AT THE THEATER

The play, "Hon. John Grigsby," was presented at the Grand last evening in a thoroughly artistic manner. The performance was highly enjoyable, from start to finish. Frank Keenan in the leading role gave it such an interpretation as only a gifted actor is capable of. George C. Staley, Fred L. Power, William Webb and F. J. McIntyre gave him able support. The ladies of the cast, Misses Edna Phillips, Katherine Fisher, Josepha Crowell and Kate Long, while pleasing, did not appear to such advantage as the male players. This is the only criticism that can justly be offered on the play, which, taken as a whole, was a rare treat for all who witnessed it. A larger audience, which was certainly merited, would doubtless have inspired better work all around.

Denman Tompson's latest successful New England play, "Our New Minister," will be seen here for the first time at the opera house next Wednesday evening. In this new play the "Old Homestead" author is to be credited with a work of definite merit; the subject is one new to the stage and presents life as it is found today, in any New England village. Mr. Thompson is what may be termed a naturalisitic writer, and the efforts of his pen are always welcome.

the stockholders of the Laughlin Pottery company would be held in the general offices of the company at its No. 2 plant during the first week in July. The exact date of the meeting will be arranged after President Aarons and Secretary Wells confer, although it is generally suposed the meeting will be held on July 1. When asked if there was any probability of the present personnel of the officers being changed, the informant remarked: "We have a good set of officers, the best there is to be had, and no change is thought of."

Charles Rager, a saggermaker at the United States, is working on what he thinks is an important discovery in a new clay to be used in the making of saggers. He has been experimenting lately on some clay which he has found in large quantities on a farm about 7 miles across the country in West Virginia, and thinks he will be able to demonstrate that the new product will take the place of that now in use for the making of saggers. Rager has had two wagon loads of the clay brought to Wellsville and a batch of trial saggers will be made from this.

Warehouse womens' local No. 7606 will have no representation in the next convention of the National Brotherhood. This condition is caused by a constitutional provision to the effect that a local must be affiliated a certain length of time before they are entitled to be represented. Mrs. Jenkins, president of the local, states, however, that the organization has no matters of importance which they would have any inclination to bring before the next meeting of the Brotherhood, as the trade is in excellent condition.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will meet at Brotherhood hall this evening, at which time it likely the entire set of resolutions which will be presented by this branch of the Brotherhood to the convention, will be passed. The meeting of the resolution committee held Thursday evening was very harmonious, and there is very little left for the local to do in arranging matters. A large attendance is expected at the meeting tonight.

Bernard Rhead, who has been in the city for several weeks, looking after the interest of the Thomas Hulme company, of Hanley, Eng., is expected to return to his home soon after the first of the month. His visit here has been quite successful, and upon his return to England he will take the effects of the late James Clarke, which were left in this city, before his last and fatal trip to Europe.

A meeting of the committee having in charge the resolutions which are to be presented to the national convention in May by kilndrawers' local No. 17 was held at the home of Edward Veith, on Walnut street. A report of this meeting will be presented to the local on Saturday evening.

Miss Rose Childers and William Polton, of Sebring, were married recently at Youngstown. Both are well known here where they have worked. Mrs. Polton was formerly a delegate in Trades council from the warehouse womens' local, while the groom was at one time employed as a presser at the Harker. They will reside here.

Martin Thornbury, bench boss on the glost end at the New Castle pottery, has written friends in this city that he is well pleased with the new shop and the prospects for it being operated steadily are very bright. Mr. Thornbury was formerly employed at the Dresden.

Charles Plant, aged 24, formerly a presser at the Burford, but who has recently resided at Wheeling, died Thursday after an illness of nine months. Last fall he became ill, and was compelled to go to his home in Wheeling.

John Wood, though expected to report for duty at the Diamond last Monday, will not leave the National until next Monday. Mr. Wood has been working at the National since the holidays.

John Weingartner, a saucer jiggerman at the Union, has resigned his position and will hereafter be located at the Dresden. This position for the present at the Union is filled by Henry Weible.

Albert Hargraves, formerly of the Globe, has been working for several days in the packing department at Cartwright's. Sherman Thomas has also taken a position at the same place.

Arthur Hill, who was injured at the Laughlin No. 2 Thursday evening, is recovering from his injury as rapidly as could be expected, though the hurt is causing him much pain.

George Mountford, a turner at the East Liverpool, has been unable to work for several days on account of an attack of the grip. His position is being filled by James Penny.

Work has been resumed in all departments at the Union pottery, the improvements to the machinery in the slip house having been completed a few days ago.

Herbert Lee, employd in the mould shop at the Klondike, is said to have an ambition to become a detective, and may enter the employ of a Chicago agency.

George Kennedy, a kiln hand at the United States, Wellsville, has been compelled on account of illness to give up his position.

James Mount, a plate jiggerman at the East Liverpool, has been off duty for several days on account of the death of a relative.

There is a shortage of kilnmen on the glost end at the Union. Increases will also be made on the biscuit end before long also.

John Barber has taken a position on the glost crew at the D. E. McNicol pottery. He commenced work a few days ago.

Charles W. Myler, a decorating kiln placer at the United States, will return to work Monday after an illness.

Ralph Turner, formerly of McNicol's, has taken a position on the glost end at Brunt's.

The big jigger at the East Liverpool has suspended operations for a few days.

Harry DeTemple, a presser at the Burford, is off duty on account of illness.

Edward Wyman, formerly of the National, is now printing at the Burford.

Lisbon Democrats' Fusion Ticket Does Not Meet With Approval.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Three of the Republicans whom the Democrats nominated on their ticket here have withdrawn their names. Thomas Francis refused to run for council; William Sexton for marshal and Edward Sexton for the school board. They say they were not consulted and have made every effort to get the local Democratic organ to publish their withdrawal.

S. D. Longshore, Democratic candidate for treasurer, is indignant that he has been placed on a fusion ticket.

IMPORTANT CASES

Including the Congo Ferry Franchise, Coming Up in Court.

There will be some very important cases tried before the county court at New Cumberland next week, among them that of Johnston vs. Goucher. The former will endeavor to have the court issue a restraining order which will prohibit Goucher operating a steam ferry between Congo and Wellsville. Oliver Marshall, attorney for Captain Goucher, states that he hasn't the slightest idea that the court will issue such an order but will grant him at least a ten years' franchise.

It is said that a petition has been signed by 300 residents of Congo and locality which will be presented to the court, asking that the franchise be granted. The committee appointed a month since by the court for the purpose of inspecting the Congo landing, is ready to file its report, and it is believed that the court's decision will be based to some extent on the report.

SCARED AT A CAR

A Horse Ran Away And John Bruce Was Thrown From a Buggy.

A horse attached to a buggy, driven by John Bruce, a young farmer living near Asbury Chapel, became frightened at a street car yesterday afternoon near Arner's grocery, and started on a terrific run out First street.

Upon reaching the bridge the buggy collided with the railing, demolishing it and throwing Bruce heavily to the ground. He escaped with a few slight bruises. The horse was not injured.

Jr. O. U. A. M. Councillors' Meeting.

Interesting Oil Lease Suit.

The oil operators of Hancock county are very much interested in the case of Haskell vs. Sutton, which is now pending in court, and which may go to the supreme court.

The suit involves a lease on the farm of Mrs. Emma Morrow, near Oakland church. John McKeown paid $4,500 for the lease and drilled on it, getting a dry hole. Haskell took the lease later and his attorneys claim that McKeown had abandoned his lease before he sold the Morrow lease. The case is very complicated.

A Pleasing Program.

Misses Maggie Hague and Hattie Farnsworth attended the closing exercises of the Franklin schools yesterday afternoon. A pleasing program was rendered and an enjoyable time had by all present.

GOOD-HEARTED OFFICER

Deputy Sheriff Allison Had Sympathy For Demented Albert Shenton.

Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Allison, who took Albert Shenton to Lisbon yesterday afternoon, handcuffed the prisoner only after being repeatedly advised by the police to do so. The deputy had to walk him to the Diamond to get a street car for Wellsville and for this reason did not wish to make a display of the unfortunate man by placing the handcuffs on his wrists.

Shenton made no objection to being thus handicapped, though he shed tears as he shook hands and bade farewell to Mayor Davidson and others about the city hall. He continued, however, to talk about his visionary wealth and it is thought he will have to be sent to an asylum.

NO SIGN OF INSANITY

Discovered By Physicians Who Examined Unfortunate Mary Ann Robinson.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — The physicians' report in the insanity inquest on Mrs. Mary Ann Robinson, who was fatally burned in the jail, is extremely brief. Her age is given as 51 years.

No incompetence in fully answering all questions was noted. No reasons to believe her insane and no causes for insanity are reported, save that her habits were necesssarily injurious to her mental and physical health.

WELLSVILLE

MOVING THE MAIN

THOUGHT NECESSARY FOR STREET RAILWAY WORK.

Difficulty on Clark Avenue Discussed By Council—Conference With Mr. Healy.

To consider a plan by which the difficulty, which has arisen over the grading of Clark avenue by the street railway company preparatory to the laying of a track down to the corporation line, may be overcome the city council held a special meeting last evening.

Mr. Perkins, superintendent of the city water works, was present and stated that he had found that if the track is laid between Nineteenth and Twentieth streets to conform with the present grade of Clark avenue the main water pipe will come into almost immediate contact with the ties underlying the track, and consequently the cars jolting and jarring over the pipe would injure it to a great extent. He suggested that council either have the line of the street railway changed to the left side of the avenue or move the water main to the right of the street.

After considerable wrangling council found it impossible to come to an agreement without having a conference with Supt. Healy and a committee consisting of Whitacre, Shoub and Glaser was appointed to meet with Mr. Healy and Mr. Perkins, of the water works, in the latter's office next Monday evening for the purpose of settling the matter.

Every member expressed himself as being confident that Mr. Healy would agree to do anything within reason, as he had always treated them fairly heretofore. Solicitor Wells stated that it would simply be discretionary with Mr. Healy in regard to his moving the water main. According to the franchise given the street railway company, Mr. Healy cannot be required to move the main, but it is thought that he might be willing to help, as it will save trouble and expense hereafter. The expense attached to moving the main will not exceed $400.

Vigorous protests have been filed with the council during the week by property owners along Clark avenue. They all object strongly to having the route of the railway altered so that it will run next to the left curb. The cause, they aver, is that the street is only 30 feet wide and decidedly too narrow for a track extending to the curb. It is likely that council will not alter the course.

IMACINARY BURGLARS

Seen By Children Call Out the Police On a Fruitless Errand.

Several children playing at the corner of Tenth and Main streets last evening at 8:30 o'clock imagined that they saw burglars prowling around in the grocery store owned by C. B. Cummins. The youngsters ran to the home of Mr. Cummins and apprised him of the fact. He immediately sent in a nalarm to police headquarters, but before the officers arrived Mr. Cummins discovered that there were no robbers about his store.

The boys, said Mr. Cummins, probably saw their own shadows.

New Era Club Meeting.

The members of the New Era club held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Miss Gretta Fraser, Tenth street, last evening. A pleasant social was indulged in after the rendition of the following program: Quotations on Harrison, the club; paper on General Grant, Miss Nellie Davis; paper on General Lee, Miss Bessie McLean; paper on Abraham Lincoln, Miss Jennie Stevenson; club lesson on Civil war, led by Miss Goldie Murdock.

Lost His Finger.

While at work in the railroad shops yesterday afternoon James Mollineaux had a finger on his right hand severed. The finger came in contact with a sharp toothed saw. Another finger was badly mashed, but amputation will not be necessary. Mollineaux recently moved to Wellsville from Jackson county, W. Va., and is a skilled workman.

SENTENCE COMPLETED

And James Lowe Is Released From County Jail to Work For the Sheriff.

James Lowe, who was arrested in this city a few months ago for furnishing liquor to minors, being bound over to court by Mayor Davidson, is now working for Sheriff Leonard, according to his own statement to Chief Thompson.

It will be remembered that Lowe was fined $75 and sentenced to jail to serve the penalty, owing to his inability to pay the mayor. His time expired a few days ago and he claims the sheriff immediately gave him a job.

Rechabites' Ball.

The local lodge of Rechabites gave an enjoyable masquerade ball at its hall last night. There was some misunderstanding as to when the masks should be removed, and no prizes were awarded. Ormes' orchestra furnished the music.

BAPTIST MEETINGS

Encouraging Results From the Special Services—Another Week.

The services at the Baptist chapel continue to be well attended and are increasing in interest. Rev. W. W. Dixon preaches each evening at 8 o'clock, the song service beginning at 7:45. Mr. Dixon's sermon last evening on "The Uplifted Christ" was impressive and helpful. Services will be held this evening at the regular hours.

On Sunday the services will be of a special nature. The Sunday school exercises will be made evangelistic. Mr. Dixon will preach at both services on Sunday. At the morning service "The Palms" will be sung. In the evening Mr. Donaldson will render a clarionet solo. The special meetings will continue next week.

SHENTON IS INSANE

Probate Court Regards Him As a Fit Subject for the Asylum.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Another candidate for the Massillon asylum has arrived from East Liverpool. Albert Shenton was adjudged insane this morning. His own testimony was enough to convince the court that he is demented. But little could be ascertained from him as to his previous life.

He claims to be the son of a minister and very wealthy. He says he is acting under the direction of the Lord, and is constantly wanting to buy expensive jewelry and furniture for his wife, from whom the Lord has separated him.

BOOKED FOR DEFEAT

Features of the Primary Elections Bill—Habitual Criminal Act—Fire Insurance Legislation—Live Stock Commission Threatened.

Columbus, O., March 22.—[Special.]—There is no longer question than two of the important measures which have occupied the attention of the general assembly are booked for defeat. These are the canal abandonment bill and the municipal code. What looked like a probability early in the week is a certainty now. Neither of them can pass. There will be no substitute offered for the municipal code, but a substitute for the canal bill will be introduced and passed. This substitute has been drawn by Former Senator Seiber, of Akron, an advocate of canals, if not always of water. It provides for the perpetual continuance of the Miami and Erie canal in its entirety, and for the Ohio and Erie from Cleveland to Dresden—the northern half. The southern half of this canal from Dresden to Portsmouth is to be continued pending an investigation of a commission to be appointed by the governor which will report upon the advisability of either continuing it in perpetuity or abandoning it and when. This report will not be submitted for some time and cannot be acted upon by the legislature until the session of two years hence. But the fact that the canals are not to be abandoned does not imply that the board of public works will be continued. There is a likelihood of dispensing with this portion of the public service by cutting down the appropriation for the payment of salaries to such a figure as to take away all the attractiveness of the office. While the constitution provides for the board and it could not be abolished with a constitutional amendment there might be difficulty in finding members at a $1 a year salary, and that is what is contemplated. There are more ways than one of getting rid of an officer who is not wanted.

The first primary election bill of the session has been passed by the house and needs only senate confirmation to become a law. It was introduced by Representative Ankeney of Greene, who as a reformer, is securing quite a record. This new measure strengthens the present law relating to the punishment of fraud at primaries. Now, the only person who can be held accountable for this offense is the man who buys the vote or influence of a primary voter. The judges and clerks of election can assist in the casting of fraudulent votes, and the law cannot touch them. Mr. Ankeney's bill provides that the judge clerk or other officer of a primary election who receives or sanctions the reception of a fraudulent vote—if he does it knowingly—shall be fined from $50 to $1000, and gives rest in a prison cell from three months to one year. The provisions of the bill are so specific that there can be no mistaking them. They class as fraudulent the refusal to accept a ballot where the voter has all the qualifications as well as the acceptance of a ballot from an illegal voter. Alterations of poll-books, ballots or tally sheets form an offense under the bill. It further allows any candidate to have two witnesses in the booth at a primary.

What, by students of criminology, has long been considered a somewhat barbarous law will undoubtedly be repealed—the house having placed upon it the stamp of disapproval. This is what is known as the habitual criminal act, permitting an offender to be kept in the penitentiary for life, following his third conviction and sentence to that institution. Mayor Golden Rule Jones, of Toledo, has long been in opposition to the bill and in his efforts to repeal it has been assisted by Warden Darby of the penitentiary and workers in prison reform. The law, it is claimed, has worked a great injustice, failing to reach the hardened criminals at which it was aimed, but often affecting those of less offensive character. Instances without number to prove this can be cited where men for committing petty crimes three times are now serving life imprisonment.

There is a determined and a definite purpose on the part of the senate and the sentiment is infecting the house, to do away with the passage of local bills permitting municipalities to issue bonds. Those attorneys in both branches who have given the matter any attention are unanimous in their opinion that such laws are unconstitutional and will not stand the test of supreme court scrutiny. Indeed, the court in several decisions has made plain its feeling in such matters. The plan is to prepare and have passed a general bill relating to bond issues and applying to all municipalities. This would do away with any charge of unconstitutionality and answer the purpose no less well.

A number of Ohio counties which under the present law are grouped together and thus often have no representative in the lower house of the general assembly, have protested so long and so loud that finally their cry has reached Macedonia—which in this case is the legislature. A resolution has been prepared and passed by the house—it will also pass the senate—providing that there be submitted to the people at the next general election a constitutional amendment giving to each county in the state at least one member in the house. This would add eight members and make the total membership 118. This contention is no new one. It has been up time and again, but until now it never received definite attention.

While the Patterson bill relating to the Boxwell law will be made into a law, it will be much amended from the original draft. As finally enacted it will provide that questions at examinations shall be uniform throughout the state and prepared by the commissioner of common schools. It will further definitely set the time and prescribe the manner for conducting the examinations and give to each member of a county board of examiners $10 a day for attendance at commencements. The closing provision is the one of the most importance to students and makes a Boxwell certificate good for admittance into any high school in the state.

Members from counties where their constituents are insisting upon bills placing county officials on a salary, are not disposed to move rapidly in the matter. The action of the judiciary committee of the house in declaring unconstitutional the Franklin county salary bill, which was drawn by able lawyers, as well as the rumor that the supreme court will hold all bills of a similar charcter to be contrary to law, has caused members to be wary and cautious. While it will not come during this session, the ultimate outcome is sure to be, providing any action is taken, a general law touching all counties and placing officials on a salary commensurate with their duties.

Mr. Fisher, of Medina, who bobbed up a short time ago as the new orator of the house, has now come forward as the originator of a new plan by which the spread of tuberculosis and other infectious diseases pertaining to cattle may be much reduced, if not entirely done away with. His idea is to entirely abolish the state live stock commission and place its power in the state board of agriculture, allowing the members of the latter $3 per diem for each day actually employed. The board is to be given full and unlimited authority to inspect cattle and to kill such as are found to be the victims of a disease, while the governor is empowered by proclamation to prohibit the importation of cattle into Ohio from infected districts. To assist in the carrying on of this work the board is authorized to employ a veterinarian and establish his salary, all of which is very good except that the salary of the latter should be determined by the legislature.

Representative McNamee, of Franklin, who is the Moses now leading the people out of bondage, is opposed to tax inquisitors on both private and public grounds. He wants them all abandoned as good St. Patrick banished the snakes from Ireland. "Away with them all," says Mr. McNamee, "they do no good," and suiting his action to his word, he has drafted a bill that, if passed, will make the office of tax inquisitor but a dream of the past. Mr. McNamee, by the way, is gaining a reputation as a humorist. His is the native wit of the genuine product of the "Green Isle." Guerin, of Erie, ran against one of his buzz-saw answers the other day and came out with the laugh against him. It was on the discussion of some bill during which Guerin asked if certain lawyers had not appeared before judiciary committee in defense of the measure for pay. McNamee was on his feet in an instant. "I resent the insinuation," he shouted, "and would inform the gentleman from Erie that there are still a few lawyers with a high sense of honor and deep feelings of patriotism." Guerin is a lawyer himself, and felt the thrust, but he made no reply except to go on with his argument, which by the way, was an able one, a thing for which he is becoming noted.

Senator Hosea's bill to establish a uniform fire insurance policy is found to be more sweeping in its provisions than first glance would indicate. Not only would it provide a uniform policy such as the New York standard, but it would also repeal the valued policy act, the anti-co-insurance law and the county appraiser's law, together with placing one-half the cost for the appraising of loss after fire upon the policy holders. The senator himself probably did not know quite what the law did. Certainly Mr. Hypes, who introduced a similar bill in the house, did not, but both are daily gaining knowledge through the flood of protests which they receive.

The agitation for an executive mansion is to be revived. Recent visits of legislators to other states where fine gubernatorial mansions were shown them has created in them a pardonable pride that Ohio may have the same. Mr. Metzger, of Stark, will probably introduce a bill setting aside $100,000 for the purpose of purchasing a site and erecting a suitable house. It is believed that sufficient sentiment prevails in the general assembly to carry it through.

This is the time for legislative committees to take themselves away. The finance and public works committee of the house, and the finance committee of the senate are all away on jaunts, and will not return to work before Monday. These are the last to be made before the finance committees prepare the general appropriation bill and submit it.

Largest List, Lowest Prices, Easiest Terms.

To Owners of Vacant Lots:

We are about to publish the most complete sale list of vacant lots ever offered to the purchasing public of East Liverpool; its scope will cover from the state line to Walkers; and from the river to Thompson's Boulevard. It will be issued in the form of a supplement, to each of our daily papers on Saturday, March 29th; complete description, location and price of your lot will be given in it if you will place it on sale with us or or before March 22d. In order that the public of East Liverpool may appr ciate this list and preserve it we will give on its reverse side a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool, showing and naming each street, alley, addition, public building, works, etc., and useful statistical information of the city. Every lot in the city is saleable. Place yours with us at once if you desire to sell.

To Prospective Purchasers of Vacant Lots:

It will pay you to wait until March 29th before purchasing and see what is on sale with us. Our map will help you understand the city and determine where you want to live or invest. It is a well established fact that our prices are always under. We will save you money, time and serve you in many ways if you will let us. Delay your purchasing until our list is out.

To the General Public:

We are about to place in your hands a complete up-to-date map of East Liverpool. We trust that though we have an adveristing profit through it that it will be of convenience to you and will help you locate the street upon which you live and know its name and that you will co-operate in getting our city council to renumber our streets, rename some of them and above all place the names at the corner of the intersecting streets.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Brief Notes of a Personal Nature and of Matters About Town.

Making Improvements—Mrs. Peter Allison is making extensive improvements to her Sixth street property.

Painfully Injured—E. M. Bennett, of May street, was painfully injured while unloading water plugs for the water works. An artery and tendon in his wrist were cut and bled badly.

Had to Take a Rest—Robert Green, a member of the Alliance police force, who is well known here, fell recently while pursuing a thief, and seriously injured his back. He was compelled to rest for a few days.

Invitations Issued—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith have issued invitations for the afternoon and evening of Friday Mar. 28. Both affairs will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Smith, on Pennsylvania avenue.

A Fine Showing—The annual financial statement of the Potters' Building and Savings company, printed on another page, is a most creditable showing for this flourishing institution and one which stockholders can certainly contemplate with satisfaction.

Much Needed Improvement—A 15-inch water sewer is being laid down the hill from Pleasant street to Eighth street near the Peake property, and it is an improvement that has been very badly needed. About 12 of the street men are engaged at the task, and will hardly complete it before Monday.

April 7 the Date—A great deal of speculation has been going on in certain quarters as to the date of the spring election. It has been argued that election day would fall on Tuesday, doubtless by reason of the fact that the November state elections are held on that day of the week. The spring municipal election falls on Monday, April 7, this year, and residents may make arrangements for their vacations accordingly.

A Daughter Born—A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wylie, of Edgewood.

Teachers' Meeting—There will be a general teachers' meeting on Monday afternoon at the Central school.

Scholars Entertained—Mrs. W. R. Clarke entertained her Sunday school class in a very delightful manner last evening.

On Easter Saturday—Emma Marie Walters, of Front street, has issued invitations to her young friends for Easter Saturday, March 29, from 2 to 5.

Episcopal Services in Chester—The second Episcopal service will be held in the M. E. church at Chester Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Rev. Edwin Weary will officiate.

Teachers' Vacation Trip—About 12 teachers from this city will join the party which leaves during vacation week for a trip to Washington, D. C. Supt. W. W. Boyd, of Painesville, will conduct the party.

Palm Sunday — Tomorrow, Palm Sunday, exercises of special interest will be held at the Catholic, Protestant Episcopal and Lutheran churches. At all the churches attractive programs appropriate to the day will be carried out, including special music.

Octogenarian Dead.

Enos Heacock is dead at his home near Sebring. He was aged 80 years and was born on a farm near Salem, only a few miles from where he died. He was widely known and highly respected. The funeral will occur tomorrow.

BRIGHTER EVERY DAY

Local People Who Are Interested Have Received Most Encouring News.

The prospects of the Green Mountain Mining and Milling company, of this city, grow brighter every day. Its Colorado property is certainly a bonanza, unless experts are mistaken, and men who have had years of experience in the mining business usually know what they are talking about. The following letter speaks for itself and shows that those who have invested in the mine have every reason to be satisfied:

The Green Mountain Mining and Milling Company, East Liverpool, O.,
Mr. S. J. Cripps Secretary.

Dear Sirs—I have just returned from the workings of the Osceola and never was so surprised in my life as when I saw them wheeling the car out just as I arrived at the dump.

It was loaded to overflowing with the finest kind of lead and copper ore, the largest pieces being on top, some weighing 100 to 200 pounds, full of lead and copper.

On going inside I found the breast of the Osceola drift proper one mass of ore from one side to the other, the drift being not more than half the width of the vein, so the ore body must be 10 to 12 feet wide and by the looks of it will run at least $20 and maybe higher.

The contractor, Mr. Schwartz, was wild with excitement. He said if some mining man would see that he would build a 100-ton mill right away: he thought it was wonderful; he had never seen the like.

The drift on the Osceola proper is now in 45 feet and the other on No. 2, 22 feet. The latter holding its own right along.

I was so elated over the outlook that I couldn't help but inform you of the good news right away.

I would kindly advise you to be careful at what price you sell your stock. I wouldn't sell a share of mine even at par the way things are looking now. I am pretty sure now that all the different veins will pan out about the same way.

Very truly yours,
WM. BIELEFELDT, SR.

Wellsville Wife Says She Was Deserted Soon After Marriage. Asks Divorce.

Lisbon, March 22. — (Special) — Attorney Charles Boyd, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in which Jennie Ferguson asks adivorce from Frank Ferguson. They were married in Anamosa, Ia., in April, 1897. The wife charges that Ferguson deserted her the following November; that he is idle and dissipated and for a year has been a habitual drunkard. They have one child, of which she asks the custody.

Steamboat Man's Child Dying.

Slowly gasping her life away at her home in Williamston, near Huntington, W. Va., lies little Helen Roe, the infant daughter of Captain W. E. Roe, of the steamer Kanawha. Several months ago the child secured some shelled corn and, infant-like, put one of the kernels in her nose. The kernel was drawn into one of the lungs, where it became fastened. Later the child caught cold, the cold developed itno pneumonia, the grain of corn began growing and the growth cannot be stopped. The child is too young to stand an operation and is slowly dying.

Opportunity for Small Investment to Acquire an Income

The Green Mountain
Mining and Milling Co.
CAPITAL $2,000,000.

Par Value of Shares, $1.00, full paid, non-assessable.

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

THE properties of the Green Mountain Mining and Milling Company consists of twelve claims lying in one body, on the east slope of Green Mountain in Cunniangham Gulch, San Juan County, Colorado, and is crossed for a distance of three thousand feet by three parallel veins which average from 15 to 21 feet in width and of good milling ore of $60 to $90 per ton consentrates.

The company has been operating, developing and driving tunnels since May 1st, 1901, in determining the value and extent of the property and now know what they have, having paid the expenses themselves during the period of uncertainty. For the purpose of completing development and equipment of our mines we now offer to the investor stock in a home mining company, almost ready to start its career as a dividend payer, with the element of uncertainty eliminated.

Assay reports samples of ore from the different workings. Official receipts of ore shipped may be seen at the office of S. J. Cripps, secretary of the company, where persons interested are earnestly invited to call or write for prospectus and map and any other information or verification that may be desired.

FOREIGN TRADE GAIN

DOMESTIC DEMANDS VIGOROUS.

Pressure For Iron and Steel Has Not Diminished Perceptibly — Believed That After July 1 Situation Will Become Approximately Normal.

New York, March 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, was expected to say in part:

Evidences of further improvement are numerous. Labor controversies are less threatening, many settlements having been effected, while others are momentarily anticipated; wages have been advanced, traffic congestion has subsided until impossible to deliver goods according to specifications; aside from some idle foot wear shops, the leading lines of manufacture are very fully engaged while jobbing trade is of exceptional magnitude. Retail dealings are also very large, the Easter stimulus being felt in all lines of wearing apparel. With domestic demands so vigorous it is especially encouraging to notice a gain for the last week in foreign trade at the principal ports.

Pressure Not Diminished.

Pressure for iron and steel has not diminished perceptibly, yet the impression is growing that after July 1 the situation will become approximately normal and it will be possible to secure deliveries with some degree of promptness. This is the more probable, as there has been a further stiffening of quotations and additional importations, which would have been much larger but for the advance in foreign markets. For some time to come it is probable that foreign commerce exhibits as to this industry will be less satisfactory, but it has been worthy of note that imports are mainly of pig iron, billets and sheets, while the exports of many lines of expensive machinery and other finished products are fully sustained. Large contracts are constantly under consideration for structural material on domestic account, including railway bridges, viaducts, car shops and office buildings.

Woolens Are Quiet.

Woolens are quiet, with only a fair movement of staple lines, though some fancy grades are fully sold and out of the market.

Grain markets have begun to feel the effects of weather reports, and for the next few months it will be a simple matter for speculators to secure erratic fluctuations. Strength was conspicuous on Tuesday, last year's serious injury to corn making quotations particularly sensitive to indications of drouth. Another helpful factor was the increase in exports of wheat and flour to 4,657,625 bushels for the week, against only 2,598,472 last week, and 3,355,098 a year ago. Western receipts continued to make an unfavorable comparison with the movement in 1901, wheat amounting to 2,899,990 bushels, against 4,165,833, and corn 1,460,536, compared with 3,074,011. Atlantic exports of corn increased largely over the low record of the preceding week to 298,884 bushels, and there is still a severe loss as compared with the 2,351,272 bushels shipped a year ago.

Failures for the week numbered 209 in the United States, against 224 last year, and 31 in Canada, against 33 last year.

STILL HIGHLY PROFESSIONAL.

Was Stock Market, Friday—Favorable Bank Statement Expected.

New York, March 22.—Friday's stock market was still highly professional and there was abnormal activity in stocks which are usually not a figure in the trading. Considerably more attention, however, was given to the representative stocks in the list, which are quite generally higher as a result of the day's trading. In most instances the gains are merely fractional, but in such stocks as St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville, Illinois Central and St. Louis and San Francisco there are substantial net gains recorded. Rock Island moved rapidly upwards in the last hour to 180, a net rise of 7½. Sugar was inclined to be heavy during the early dealings, but became very strong towards the close, rising more than 3 points over Thursday night and closing with a net gain of 2⅜. Amalgamated Copper was heavy all day on a rather smaller volume of dealings than lately, but a late recovery left it only a fraction lower on the day. The speculation in Colorado Fuel continued very active and feverish, the price raising at 1 to 1⅛ over Thursday night and then falling 1⅜ under. Tennessee Coal and Hocking Coal were affected in sympathy. The inertia of the United States Steel stocks was undisturbed. There were conspicuous new candidates for buying demand among the less prominent stocks. They were balanced by relapses of 1 to 3 points among stocks of a similar class, which have had previous advances. The local traction stocks were rather dull and heavy. The late rise in the market was to some extent in an expectation of a favorable bank statement today. The banks seem to have gained from all sources during the week nearly half a million dollars. The market closed about steady and near the top.

CLEVELAND IN A QUANDARY.

Indications That the City Might Be Without a Form of Government.

Cleveland, O., March 22.—A Columbus dispatch says that the supreme court judges are practically unanimous for a decision that will knock out the Cleveland federal plan law, and that the decision will be rendered within a few days. Action was brought some time ago by Attorney Charles D. Gibbons and others, in a suit to oust the federal plan on the grounds of unconstitutionality. The decision of the supreme court will be final, and if the petitioners' case is sustained Cleveland will be without any form of government whatever.

In view of this, it is said that strenuous efforts will be made to pass the municipal code bill now before the legislature. Should this bill be held over for an extra session and an adverse decision rendered by the supreme court in the meantime, the city of Cleveland will find itself in a very bad fix.

MAY ACT FINALLY TODAY.

Anthracite Miners Did Not Make Decision Yesterday.

Shamokin, Pa., March 22.—Contrary to expectations the convention of districts Nos. 1, 7 and 9, United Mine Workers of America, failed to reach a determination yesterday concerning the grievances of the anthracite coal miners. Many of the delegates had expected an adjournment and definite action not later than yesterday, but the discussion of the scale committee report was more protracted than was anticipated, and its adoption, entire, had not been accomplished at the hour of adjournment yesterday afternoon.

The committee presented its report to the convention at the afternoon session. President Mitchell announced that a part of the reoprt had been adopted, but failed to state the nature of the clauses accepted. President Mitchell was not certain that the report would be made public in its entirety today, although he stated that he expected final action and adjournment by noon today. There was much uncertainty here last night concerning the situation, and opinion is about equally divided as to whether the convention will declare in favor of drastic measures to secure an adjustment of their grievances.

AIMED AT AMERICANS ALONE,

Are Exclusion of Meats, Preserved With Borax, Said Exporters.

Berlin, March 22.—The criticism made in the United States of the exclusion by Germany of meats preserved with borax is answered here by the statements that the prohibition applies to domestic and foreign meats equally and that American exporters have nothing to complain of that does not apply to German preserved meat dealers.

But the agents here of American meat exporters say that this is no answer at all, because boracic meat preserving is an unknown art in Germany and never likely to be much used, as it is unnecessary to preserve meat that is consumed where it is produced. Besides, they declare the regulations are aimed at America alone and can serve no other object than to prevent American exporters from competing with domestic meat producers.

BAPTISTS SOCIETIES LOSE.

Relatives to Get Land Near Painesville, Left by Gray.

Cleveland, O. March 22.—Judge Wing, of the United States circuit court, yesterday set aside the deeds signed by Martin E. Gray upon his death bed, three years ago, by which title to 285 acres of land near Painesville, valued at over $100,000, was deeded to the American Baptist Home Mission society and the American Baptist Publication society. The property will now revert to the heirs.

In the testimony it was alleged that undue influence was used.

Los Angeles People Refuse to Grant Fitzsimmons' Demands.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 22.—The Century Athletic club yesterday wired Tom Sharkey, the pugilist, asking under what terms he would take Fitzsimmons' place and fight Jeffries in this city during the first week in May.

The club has not heard further from Fitzsimmons and refuses to accede to his demands for a larger purse and percentage than they originally offered.

ORDERED MEN SHOT.

Witness Testified Officers Told Him Waller Coolly Gave Directions.

MAJOR PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

But He Admitted 11 Men Had Been Killed—After a Communication From General Chaffee, Court Decided It Had Jurisdiction.

Manila, March 22.—The court martial appointed to try Major Littleton W. T. Waller and Lieutenant John H. A. Day, of the marine corps, on the charge of executing natives of the island of Samar without trial, after receiving a communication from General Chaffee yesterday, decided that it had jurisdiction in the case and proceeded to try the accused officers. Major Waller pleaded "not guilty" to the charge of murder, but admitted that 11 men had been killed.

Captain Robert H. Dunlap, of the marine corps, testified that he received information from Lieutenant Gridley and Sergeant Quick regarding the arrival at Cargadores of prisoners, who, while on the march across the island, ate roots and parts of plants and refused to assist the marines by giving them similar food. He reported the facts to Major Waller, who was lying in a cot and who ordered Lieutenant Day to take the prisoners and have them shot.

The witness said Major Waller was not excited and had personally expressed that the men should be shot.

Captain Adolph T. Marix, marine corps, representing Major Waller, objected to the testimony of Dr. Love regarding the sanity of Major Waller at the time, claiming that his fitness for duty was a matter for the defense alone. He conceded that Major Waller gave the orders while in his right senses.

LORD HOPE DIVORCED.

Decree Granted on Elopement of May Yohe With Strong.

London, March 22.—Lord Francis Hope was granted a divorce on the ground of the misconduct of his wife (May Yohe) with Putnam Bradley Strong, of New York.

Counsel for Lord Hope detailed the marriage of his client to May Yohe, their visits to the United States in 1900, the meeting with Strong and the subsequent intimacy of the respondent and co-respondent, ending with their departure for Japan under the name of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Smith.

Lord Hope, who is still suffering from the amputation of his leg, corroborated counsel's statements. He said he had no suspicion whatever of his wife when he left her alone in a flat in New York. He first noticed a change in her behavior at the end of March, 1901, and in April his wife insisted on a seperation.

Affidavits in proof of the misconduct of Lady Hope were read and the degree was pronounced.

Lady Hope is in Japan with Captain Strong, a son of former Mayor Strong, of New York. She was May Yohe, an actress, before she became Lady Hope.

CLEVELAND NOT TROUBLED.

So Spoke of Recent Attack Upon Him by Mr. Bryan.

Princeton, N. J., March 22.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland was yesterday shown a dispatch from Lincoln, Neb., which said that W. J. Bryan, commenting editorially in The Commoner upon Mr. Cleveland's letter to a Mississippi editor, denounces him as a "traitor, ingrate and political nonentity."

"I am not at all troubled about it," was the only comment Mr. Cleveland would make.

The ex-president was asked what he thought of the prospects of pulling together the Democratic party for the next presidential campaign, and replied:

"I don't know much about it, but there seems to be some efforts in that direction. I wouldn't care to express any further opinion on it at present."

NATIONS AGAIN FRIENDLY.

Further Relations With Mexico Approved by Austrian Congress.

Vienna, March 22.—The government bill arranging for provisional consular and commercial relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico was agreed upon in the upper house of the reichsrath yesterday.

This bill passed the lower house of the reichsrath March 18.

An Austro-Hungarian minister to Mexico was appointed last June. Diplomatic relations between Austria-Hungary and Mexico had been interrupted since 1867, the year Emperor Maximilian was shot.

HOW TO BE SUCCESSFUL.

Experiences of Some of Our Wealthiest Men—Good Health the Keynote.

Success does not follow ill health; on the contrary, it takes good health to make one successful. A good appetite, ability to sleep soundly all night long, and arise feeling rested and refreshed, with a body that has no pains or aches, and a clear brain, full of vim, ideas and insight into business, is what make success. The Vanderbilts, Goulds, Astors, Havemeyers, and a long list of others that we could name, attribute their wealth and success in business to long hours and hard work, which were made possible by good health. Bad health is the cause of more failures in business than anything else. "Blood Wine" keeps the health good. It cleanses every particle of blood that flows through your veins. It abstracts the impurities and germs, forces them out of the body, and leaves only the pure, rich blood, which feeds the weakened tissues, and keeps one in good health. "Blood Wine" will give you a clear brain, so that you can think, reason, plan, and succeed. It enables you to grasp a situation quickly, to understand clearly. It takes every ache and pain out of your system, and transforms every organ of your body to its normal healthy condition. Blood Wine contains no wine or opiates, simply medicines of wonderful curative characteristics that never disappoint.

In the business world "Blood Wine" is a great favorite with both men and women. Storekeepers, clerks, stenographers, bookkeepers, lawyers, clergymen, and all requiring a powerful agent to clear the brain, and aid them in business, take it.

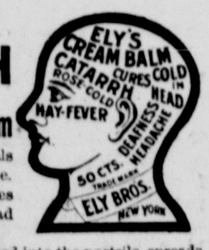

Mrs. Annie Morgan of Waterville, Me., says: "I think it is my duty to let you know what benefit I have derived from taking your "Blood Wine." I have taken one bottle and a half, and feel wonderfully better. My appetite is improved; I do not suffer nearly so much, for I was all run down and felt tired all the time, and my brain seemed clouded. Your "Blood Wine" has benefited me so much that I feel grateful to have found it, and I can heartily recommend it to any one who is suffering from loss of appetite, nervousness, and all trouble arising from poor digestion, overwork, and a run-down condition in general."

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug-stores.

THEATRICAL BUDGET

Ludwig Fulda's "The Twin Sister" Not a Clean Play.

WHOLE MORAL TONE IS FALSE.

Excellent Acting of Charles Richman—The Richepin-Belasco Squabble Over "Du Barry"—Maude Adams' Plans For the Summer.

The Empire theater company has made its second offering of the season, selecting as its vehicle Louis N. Parker's translation of Ludwig Fulda's four act "comedy," "The Twin Sister." This play is a comedy only in the technical sense that all ends well. To me it is a high grade melodrama "with a purpose." It is true that the purpose appears to be to endeavor to demonstrate that a woman can retain a man's love only by constant appeals to his baser passions, but the "purpose" is there nevertheless.

CHARLES RICHMAN AS ORLANDO IN "THE TWIN SISTER."

"The Twin Sister" deals with Orlando and his wife Giuditta, a couple of wealth and refinement. Orlando no longer cares for the society of his spouse, and she, noting his indifference, is sorely distressed. Orlando is moody until a roue of a friend suggests that he should see more of the many pretty women about him and to that end should induce his wife to make a trip to any place he can think of. Orlando promptly takes a portion of his friend's advice by making love to the stupid but pretty wife of his huntsman. Giuditta enters in time to see her husband kiss the woman, but wisely does not let him know that he has been detected.

She decides to resort to artifice. She receives a letter from her twin sister, whom her husband has never seen, announcing that she is about to visit her. Giuditta offers to postpone her visit to her mother, but Orlando protests that the sister probably will not arrive for some time. Giuditta sets off on her trip, but goes only far enough to find a place where she may change her habiliments and bleach her hair, that she may the more closely resemble her sister, between whom and her there is a startling likeness. She immediately returns as her own sister. Her husband, Orlando, is completely mystified, but very promptly accepts his own wife as her twin and, worse still, encouraged by her little artifices, makes violent love to her. The end is clear. She yields sufficiently to make him still more eager and then puts him off for a day. The real sister turns up, and all is well.

Without going into details, which, by the way, would be a difficult thing to do if one would have any regard for the usual amenities of polite society, it will be seen that the tone of "The Twin Sister" is false. It teaches just what civilization is trying to combat—that the physical, and not the spiritual, should dominate the relations between man and wife.

The cast of "The Twin Sister," as was to be expected, was an excellent one. Charles Richman was a manly and dignified yet at times impetuous Orlando. Margaret Anglin was fairly good as Giuditta, and the minor roles were acceptably carried off by the other members of the really strong stock company attached to the Empire theater.

The thoroughly veracious gentlemen to whom we are indebted through the kindly medium of the Atlantic cables for redhot theatrical news from Europe are as a class the greatest humorists connected with the American press. They vary the monotony of cabling to this country "news" which was sent broadcast throughout the United States weeks before by taxing their employers 10 cents a word for the privilege of printing announcements of changes in plans which were never formulated.

Now, for instance, we are sagely and apparently seriously told via London that Maude Adams is not to appear there in "Quality Street," her manager preferring that she go to France immediately upon the close of her tour here. The visit to France is ostensibly for rest, and therefore it is a trifle funny to read in the next sentence that, Miss Adams being in France, there will be greater opportunity for perfecting arrangements for the not yet abandoned plan of presenting "Romeo and Juliet" in Paris, Mme. Bernhardt being the Romeo and Miss Adams the Juliet. It is further casually mentioned that in the event of this production Miss Adams will study her role in French. I am not a prophet, but I do not hesitate to predict that Miss Adams' vacation next summer is not likely to be interfered with by her French studies.

It would seem to be pretty safe to assert that among the London correspondents of the New York papers which devote considerable spacé to theatrical matters there are at least a couple of embryo P. T. Barnums—men who believe that the American public likes to be humbugged.

There bids fair to be a very pretty quarrel between David Belasco and Jean Richepin, the French author, over the play "Du Barry," in which Mrs. Leslie Carter has been enormously successful at the Criterion theater, in this city. It is conceded that Mr. Belasco a couple of years ago contracted with M. Richepin to write a play based on the career of Mme. Du Barry. This was intended for the use of Mrs. Leslie Carter. Mr. Belasco paid a sum of money in advance and later made two additional payments. Just prior to sending Richepin the last installment Belasco claims to have discovered that the play "La Du Barry" was not original. He thereupon returned the manuscript to the author, who acknowledges having received it. It is Belasco's contention that this act of his, to use the vernacular, "let Richepin out" so far as royalties are concerned.

When Belasco later wrote his play "Du Barry" for Mrs. Carter, Richepin for some reason feared that he might have used material taken from "La Du Barry." Upon the production of the former melodrama Richepin's agents declare that they discovered points of similarity which would prompt a court to decide that Richepin was entitled to royalties as originally agreed upon. Suit was accordingly entered.

Belasco does not appear to permit accusations of this sort to worry him and in speaking of the matter is reported to have said:

"I have not had much to say about Mr. Richepin's charges, although he and his agent have kept them constantly before the public, but I have always said that when the proper time came I would be fully vindicated. I now intend to make a fight to the end.

"I have a copy of the book from which we allege Mr. Richepin's play was taken. In due time it will be introduced in evidence. Until the case is in court I shall not tell what it is.

"But the matter will not be permitted to rest with the trial of this suit in America. I have retained Coudert Bros. in Paris to bring the matter to the attention of the Authors' society, charging that Mr. Richepin appropriated the work of a fellow author. We shall have plenty of proof, and when we are through the public will realize that I was the one who was wronged, because I paid $3,500 for something which did not prove to be what I had paid for."

Until the case has been tried it will of course be impossible to ascertain the merits of the case. Richepin stands high in the French literary world, and, no matter what the outcome, it would be a difficult matter to make any one believe that Richepin does not conscientiously regard himself as having been wronged. On the other hand, it is probable that Belasco feels that he has been treated badly by the Frenchman, just as he felt a short time ago that he did not get fair play in the matter of "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch," produced by Mrs. Fiske at the Manhattan theater in this city. Mrs. Burton Harrison was named in the advertisements as the author, though Mr. Belasco stoutly asserted that he was largely responsible for the play, which

Courtship In China.

A curious custom prevails at Huayning-hsien, in Kwangsi. On the fifteenth day of the first month in each year all the young ladies and gentlemen take a walk to the Yenyen mountain. Each damsel carries a little box, which she deposits at the foot of the hill. Any young gentleman desirous of entering the bonds of matrimony may select one of the boxes and take it away with him, whereupon the fair owner of the box makes herself known, and an acquaintanceship is thus formed. Ill assorted matches are not likely to occur, as this custom is observed only among the well to do classes of society.

How He Saved Him.

They were speaking of a certain physician favorably occasionally, but mostly otherwise. Finally one of the party spoke of the good qualities of the absent doctor and said his life had once been saved by the much criticised practitioner.

"How is that?" some one asked. "I did not know he usually treated you."

"No, he does not," said the man, "but one day when my family physician was out of town I was suddenly taken ill and sent for this fellow in the emergency, and he couldn't come."

JONES ON JUMPING

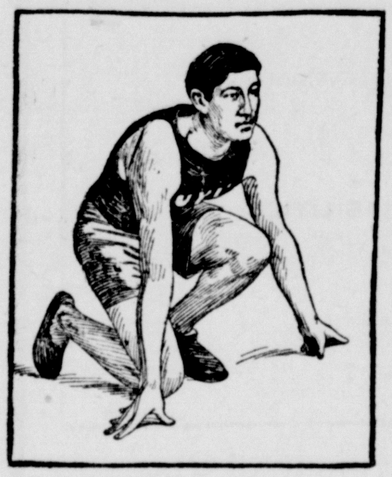

World's Greatest High Bar Skimmer Tells Methods.

America has produced another phenomenal high jumper in Samuel S. Jones of the New York Athletic club and the New York university. He is considered a worthy successor of M. F. Sweeney, and his friends look to see him break Sweeney's great record of 6 feet 5⅝ inches before he retires from competition.

Jones has won interscholastic, intercollegiate, metropolitan and American championships, and last summer in the stadium of the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo he tied with G. P. Serviss, Jr., of Cornell, with a jump of 6 feet 3 inches, for the world's championship.

Despite his great height, 6 feet 3½ inches, Jones is well proportioned. He has often been compared to Sweeney in this respect.

Jones speaks on the subject of high jumping as follows:

"One of the main things in jumping is to get a good run and strike the takeoff properly. To know the exact spot to take off is absolutely necessary, and the run must be measured so that you will strike within six inches of this spot. I found the takeoff by facing the bar and raising my right leg. When you can stand on one foot and touch the bar with your right toe, you have found the proper takeoff for the height you have measured.

"The distance of the run varies with different men. I find that fifty feet suits me, and I measure it by taking fifteen strides from my takeoff. The importance of the takeoff can be realized when it is stated that you cannot put your whole mind on the spring unless the takeoff is a perfect one.

"The first part of the jump is comparatively easy. You go almost straight up in the air. It is the second part, called the second hitch, that is hard to acquire. With this hitch you turn the body toward the right until you practically face the bar while falling. The second hitch is really a sort of snap forward that carries the body across the bar. It gets the hip, shoulder and right arm out of the way and really makes possible the great performances of the present day. Without this hitch very few men could ever have cleared six feet.

"Another essential is a perfect balance while sailing across the bar. This is only acquired by constant practice. It is quite a knack to get the right arm out of the way. Many a good jump has been spoiled by the inability of the athlete to do this. But for my arm dragging a bit I would have been credited last summer with a jump of 6 feet 6½ inches, for my body was entirely over the bar. The arm should be got out of the way when the second hitch is made.

"The training of a high jumper is rather more scientific than training for other events in athletics. A jumper really nurses his muscles into condition. To develop the spring is the main thing, and this is done by very light training, plenty of rubbing and a good deal of rest. Sweeney lay in bed for the most part of several days before he made his great record jump.

"When in training, practice every other day. For the first week or two I content myself each time I train with clearing 5 feet 3 inches several times in succession. After that I gradually raise the bar until I am doing 5 feet 7 inches without much effort."

Stable of Great Pacers.

W. L. Snow of Hornellsville, N. Y., has in his string the pacers Hal B., 2:04¼; Fanny Dillard, 2:06¼; Charley Hoyt, 2:06½, and Council Chimes, 2:07½. That would seem to be an embarrass du riche for the fast pacing classes.

Stone Throwing.

A propensity to throw stones regardless of consequences has been one of the earliest signs of natural depravity among men since time began and, we fear, must continue that way until the millennium ushers in the era when bad boys are no more and stones are confined to their proper and legitimate uses.

Anyway, the mischief wrought by this vicious and execrable habit looms up into serious proportions when the figures are given out by plate glass insurance men showing that it costs not less than $250,000 a year to make good the losses thus caused by reckless boys in this country alone.

With stone throwing costing $250,000 a year, carelessness in setting fires costing hundreds of millions more and heedless accidents causing immense sacrifice of property, the good people have many bills to foot which ought not to be theirs.—Leslie's Weekly.

The Coffee Heart.

The largest part of the coffee grown in the world is consumed in the United States, and some of our life insurance societies are beginning to realize how its excessive use increases the risks of life. Its effect is in shortening the long beat of the heart, and medical examiners for insurance companies have added the term "coffee heart" to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. These physicians advise that the use of coffee be limited to not more than two cups a day. Coffee topers, they say, are plentiful and are as much tied to their cups as the whisky toper. The effect of the coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently worse than that of liquor.—Detroit Free Press.

Umbrella Inconsistencies.

"There's something remarkable about this umbrella," said Jawleigh, exhibiting the antique handle.

"I suppose," remarked his friend, "you refer to the fact that while your name is John Anderson Jawleigh the monogram is F. L. T.? Nothing peculiar about that at all, sir."—Baltimore News.

If the reader took the time and trouble to ask his fellow residents of East Liverpool the simple question given below, he would obtain the one answer. If he would read the statements now being published in East Liverpool, which refer to this answer, it would surprise him to know that they number so many. As many more could be, and may be, published, but in the meantime ask the first person you meet what cures backache? The answer will be, Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a citizen who endorses our claim.

Mr. B. H. Hawkins, an employe of Sebring's pottery who resides at 234 Second street, says: "I had been taking medicine for my kidneys right along, and if I had found a cure I would have had no occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I was troubled two years or more with distressing backache across the loins, a steady, aching pain with a quick twinge now and then while stooping or lifting that felt as if a sharp instrument had pierced my back, and the secretions of the kidneys were highly colored, feverish or slightly scalding. Work seemed to be a drag. I had no energy and I am more than thankful that I was induced to go to the W. & W. pharmacy and get Doan's Kidney Pills. After taking them there was no sign of my old complaint."

By Congressman CHARLES H. GROSVENOR of Ohio

GOVERNMENT ownership of the telegraph is utterly impracticable and wholly inadvisable. ONE EXCELLENT REASON WHY THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD NOT OWN THE TELEGRAPH SYSTEM IS THAT IT WOULD CAUSE AND NECESSITATE A GREAT STANDING ARMY OF EMPLOYEES. This would be bad in principle, and it would be ruinous financially in practice. The experience of England with government ownership should be enough to satisfy this country that it would be a great mistake. Since England, as large as the state of Ohio, began the experiment her telegraph system has cost her £40,000,000. How large a deficit may it be supposed that this country, 4,000 miles wide, would soon have?

I DO NOT BELIEVE THAT IN A FREE COUNTRY ANY INDUSTRIAL SYSTEM SHOULD BE UNDER GOVERNMENT CONTROL.

This project would mean that the nine people in ten who do not use the telegraph would have to be taxed to pay for a system for the benefit of the other tenth of the population.

It has been argued that because the postal system of the government has proved successful the telegraph system should also be owned by the nation. The postal system is a fine one, but I can demonstrate that nearly every improvement that has taken place in it, if not all of them, since my father paid 25 cents to send a letter has come because of private competition and enterprise.

HIS HORSES WERE WOODEN

But All the Same He Had to Pay For a Livery License.

As "his honor" sat on the bench from which even handed justice was dispensed in the town of Lavilla, which flourished way down in Florida before the days of Greater Jacksonville, he was amazed to note among the prisoners at the bar a "paleface."

Casting the eagle eye of the law over the room, he was agitated still more to observe a "biled" shirt and standing collar and that these were worn by another white man.

The marshal, being called on, explained that one white gentleman was arrested by him for running a "flying jinny" without a license, and the other was his lawyer. To a man cast in a less heroic mold than the mayor such complete smashing of all records and invading of precedent would have been a Waterloo. A white man arrested in Lavilla and a lawyer appearing to plead in its court! To what are we coming?

Repressing all signs of such a strain on his judicial composure, the mayor announced that to fittingly mark so great an occasion he would disregard the calendar and take up the white man's case first.

The lawyer demanded the immediate discharge of the prisoner on the ground that there was no ordinance requiring "flying jinny" to pay a license and threw the court on its "beam ends" by asking for a copy of the ordinance book.

No one had seen it in years. Many doubted if there had ever been one. A whispered consultation was held between the mayor and the marshal and a search instituted which revealed the book, with a brick on top of it, supplying the place of a missing leg of the stove.

After looking vainly through the book for law on "flying jinnies" his honor delivered judgment as follows:

"Ordinance No. 11 requires all keepers of livery stables to pay a license of $10 and imposes a fine of twice the amount for running without a license. The defendant must pay both the fine and the license."

"But," objected the lawyer, "this man don't run a livery stable; he runs a 'flying jinny.'"

"He keeps horses for hire, doesn't he?"

"Yes, but they are wooden horses, and he charges a nickel for one ride."

"The ordinance makes no fine distinction. It says livery stables require a license. A livery stable is a place where horses are kept for hire. It makes no difference whether they are wooden horses or 'meat' horses. Next case, Mr. Marshal."—New York Mail and Express.

TROUBLES OF J. BULL

England is beset with a peck of troubles these days, at home as well as abroad. The Boers have fulfilled to the letter their promise that the price of their liberty would stagger humanity, and the end seems yet afar off. Now come rumors that much money intended for the suppression of the South African republics has found its way into the pockets of army contractors, and, to cap the climax, it is hinted that conscription may be found necessary to keep the army up to the required standard.

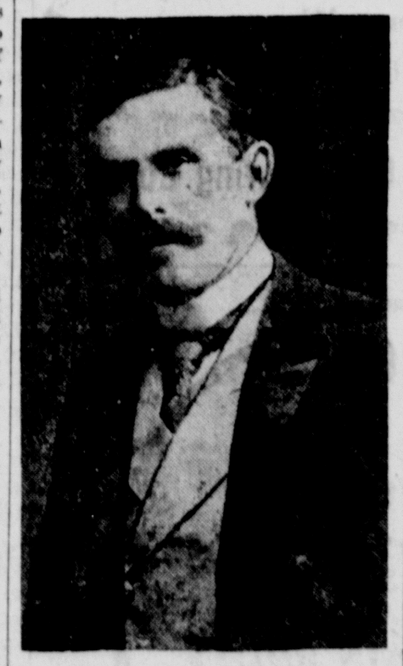

The true Briton will stand a good deal for the glory of his country and the acquisition of territory, but the limit seems to have been nearly reached in the tight little isle. Recent disclosures in parliament showing apparent incompetence and dishonesty in the purchasing departments of the army have caused a public agitation that augurs ill for the war office.

Hon. W. St. John Brodrick, secretary of state for war, in introducing the army estimates, $345,550,000, to the house of commons, entered into a defense of the war office, contending that the work has been done well, considering that 300,000 men and 245,000 horses are being fed in South Africa.

Judging from recent and promised disclosures, however, scarcely any of the supplies for the army in South Africa were secured on business principles. Speculating contractors are now known to have made hundreds of thousands of dollars by reselling contracts.

It is openly stated in England that the contract for meat for the army was first resold at $50,000 premium and then at $200,000, while Cecil Rhodes and the De Beers group handed over $1,000,000 and thus finally secured the privilege of supplying the troops in South Africa with meat.

The horse purchasing scandal is another raw spot on John Bull's epidermis and has had a very disquieting effect on the public mind. During the Crimean war there were similar scandals, but that affair is such ancient history that it is altogether forgotten or was never known to the present generation. So that the exposures of the horse purchasing scandals have come as a genuine shock to the moralists who have been fond of holding up the British virtues for other nations to copy.

RIGHT HON. W. ST. JOHN BRODRICK.

Recently it has come to light through the medium of a French horse dealer that frauds before which those of the Crimean times pale have been perpetrated. This individual stated to a newspaper correspondent that he was making a fortune out of the English by selling them the most wretched crocks of horses, only fit for the boneyard, at prices that were simply astounding. The officers who bought the horses knew very well that they were doctored. All they wanted was to ship over as many heads as was possible in a given number of days, and no one can maintain that they did not succeed in this questionable purpose. The war could probably have been concluded by this time if Lord Kitchener had been provided with fit and proper horses. The secret of De Wet's mobility is at last out, and the inability of the British commanders to catch him is explained, because their horses were not equal to the task.

While these criticisms of the war office are being publicly aired there is proceeding beneath the surface a revolt that threatens to be of even greater importance. Leading officers in the volunteers, many of them noblemen, are working against Mr. Brodrick's new volunteer regulations. Mr. Brodrick wants a conscription. Should his idea prevail the volunteers would cease to be an effective force and furnish the war office with a strong argument for compulsory military service.

Ahead of the Times.

"The trouble with dear Jason," said the patient looking woman, "is that he is so far ahead of the times."

"In what way?"

"He keeps figuring on whether he'd better endow a college or build a hospital when he gets to be a millionaire instead of going ahead and getting the money."—Washington Star.

Some people are so suspicious that it is a wonder that they trust themselves.—Atchison Globe.

G. W. ROLANDOW ON BODY CULTURE.

Famous Athlete Outlines Exercises For Those Who Would Be Muscular.

G. W. Rolandow, the famous strong man, is a splendid specimen of an all around, well developed athlete; consequently his views on the subject of health and muscle and how to obtain them should be of great interest to all persons desirous of possessing an able, symmetrically formed body. Rowlandow speaks on physical culture as follows:

"It is well to get the whole body in shape before beginning the extraordinary development of any special muscle or set of muscles. With that end in view I'm going to give a series of exercises that will give work to all the muscles.

"They can be practiced in your own room or in a gymnasium. Wear as few clothes as possible, take precautions to avert strain and have something heavy to slip on as soon as you pause to avert catching cold. Many a man has been killed or rendered a wreck by sitting down to cool off while dripping with perspirattion from exercising. Do not let perspiration dry, nor after your cold bath delay in getting into warm clothing.

"The first exercise I'll give you is as follows:

"Inhale and render abdomen muscles rigid.

"Stand facing the wall, several feet away from it. Step forward with your right foot, putting out your right hand flat against the wall and pushing as though trying to push the wall back. Keep your feet firmly planted.

"Now stand straight again, bringing back your right foot to a line with the left. Then step forward with the left foot, putting the left hand against the wall and pushing as before. Then recover your standing position and exhale. Draw in another breath and repeat. While going through this keep every muscle of the whole body rigid. Tighten the muscles of the free hand as in the accompanying picture.

"This exercise may seem silly to you, but it is not. As you will soon find, it brings into play to a greater or less degree every muscle of the body.

"Another thing I want to impress on you, and this is the keynote of the whole system and the secret of success in getting strong: Keep your mind on what you are doing. Be strenuous. Keep every atom of your mind on your work. If you're going through an exercise requiring you to lift your arm, just imagine you're lifting a thousand pound dumbbell. When you try the wall pushing exercise I've just shown you, imagine you're pushing the wall down. Put all your mind and energy into every motion. I have young men at my gymnasium who work there ten minutes a day and who accomplish more than other persons who work an hour. Why? Simply because they throw all their mind and will power into their work. There lies the whole secret of strength's concentration.

"Lie on your back, clasp your hands behind your head; inhale. Now, keeping the legs rigid, rise toward a sitting posture until your shoulders are from twelve to sixteen inches off the floor. Then slowly sink back and do it again; then exhale. Don't keep on rising till you reach a sitting posture. After you pass a certain point the strain all falls on the spine, and this is bad for it.

"These movements I've given you will exercise all the muscles, and by those alone you can become strong. They are a splendid and necessary groundwork for harder work later on.

"Give up tea, coffee, liquor of all kinds, tobacco, pastries and rich fried food. It may be more or less hard to do this, but all are injurious, and you can't hope to be really strong and healthy unless you leave them alone.

"Drink nothing with your meals. A little after meals won't hurt you. Chew every mouthful of food carefully. Don't bolt it down, thus leaving the overworked stomach to do the work nature intended your teeth to do. Eat slowly; never rush through meals.

"Don't exercise for at least an hour and a half after eating."

Animal Intelligence.

Elephants are among the most severely drilled of animals. Their intelligence does not have free play in consequence. But all English trainers agree that there is a great difference in capacity between them and that some will learn and remember a lesson far more quickly than others.

Cats have very "level" brains and are too self centered and self contained as a rule to show the distinctions which exist between them. Their strongest instinct is toward a kind of domestic comfort not exactly shared with human beings, but enjoyed in their company, to which the cat perfectly adapts itself. Yet there are misanthropic cats which make no secret of their dislike and contempt for mankind in general, only come into the house under protest and would prefer to sleep in a coal cellar to taking their nap in good society. These are the exceptions in the cat world, but every one has met with them.

Birds are usually regarded as possessing brains in "classes," not as individuals, the origin of the belief being probably the fact that birds of one species usually build exactly the same kind of nest. The generalization is not correct. The same species may have brains of all capacities.—London Spectator.

His Queer Way.

Dumleigh—What a queer chap Synnex is!

Gargan—In what way?

Dumleigh—I was saying that Tyson claimed to be a great mind reader, but he was unable to read my mind, and Synnex said that the best book reader could not read if there was no book before him. That's the way Synnex has of suddenly wandering from the subject.—Boston Transcript.

Many a man after attaining a high position forgets all about the laws of gravity until it is everlastingly too late.—Chicago News.
